TWEED'S DILEMMA.

The Chief of the Ring Robbers Fairly Cornered.

Orders of Arrest Granted by Judge Learned, of Albany.

Tweed, Ingersoll, Garvey and Woodward Included in the Papers.

The Accused to be Taken Into Custody Today.

A Million Dollars' Worth of Real Estate Transferred by Tweed Yesterday.

Intense Excitement Among all Classes Throughout the City.

The publication in yesterday's journals of the Broadway Bank disclosures created the wildest excitement in the City. The plundered tax-payers at last saw spread before them the overwhelming evidence that their money had been shared by thieves. The TIMES has all along told them that TWEED and his gang were robbers, and yesterday it proved it. The damning evidence against TWEED, the ringleader of the band, was nowhere disputed, and loud were the demands that went up for the speedy arrest and punishment of the wrong-doers.

Yesterday morning application was made to Judge LEARNED, at the Chambers of the Supreme Court, in Albany, for an order of arrest against WILLIAM M. TWEED, ANDREW J. GARVEY, JAMES H. INGERSOLL and ELBERT A. WOODWARD. The motion was founded upon the affidavit of SAMUEL J. TILDEN, already published, and upon a complaint setting forth the fraudulent character of the claims audited by the Board of Audit, claims clearly fictitious, and the fact, shown by the investigation of the Broadway Bank accounts, that these four men had pocketed the money. The complaint demands judgment against the defendants for over six millions of dollars.

Judge LEARNED granted the order of arrest, holding each thief to bail in the sum of $1,000,000.

Today TWEED will be arrested. The others have skulked away, leaving but one to satisfy an outraged people's clamoring for their rights, and that one, the worst of all, will be taken by a Deputy Sheriff today, on the proven charge of downright stealing. TWEED remained at the Department of Public Works during the greater part of the day. Delegations from political associations and delegations of roughs swarmed about the corridors and besieged the door leading to the private office. But few were admitted, and the rest remained in the damp, dingy, chilly hall-way, that reeked with unsavory odors, and there whiled away the heavy time with objurgations and curses against the men who threaten the downfall of their chief. White-coated roughs, ornamented with slouched hats, lounged around the staircases, apparently waiting only for orders. Anxious men hurried in and out, or stood earnestly conversing in half-whispers upon the troubles that threatened their master. A few affected carelessness and incredulity when the subject of arrest was broached, while others, too accustomed to it to regard it as a disaster, smiled ghastly smiles of scorn.

"What, arrest our Boss!" exclaimed one of the ushers attached to the Department. "You don't know him;" and he laughed at the idea. The Committee of Seventy and every one who have been instrumental in the exposure of TWEED came in for their share and were subjected to the vilest abuse.

During the afternoon Mr. JOHN GRAHAM appeared, and was immediately ushered into the presence of TWEED. For a long time they were closeted together patching and splintering up a defense, trying to find one that bore even the appearance of soundness. When the information that the Attorney-General had empowered able and upright men to represent him in this City was given out, TWEED immediately sought advice, and concluded to "protest" against the action as unconstitutional. But the mine has been sprung too quickly for him, and he is now reduced to the necessity of defending himself against the people he has so long oppressed. He dare not deny the accusations against him; the proof stares him in the face, and he turns wildly from one subterfuge to another. At one instant he claims that the money deposited to his credit in the Broadway Bank was merely the repayment of moneys advanced by him to GARVEY, INGERSOLL and WOODWARD, and the next throws all the blame upon the old Board of Audit and complacently announces that he is pleased with the prospect because it will now give him an opportunity to vindicate himself.

Mr. TWEED has no defense to the charges brought against him. He will talk and protest and put forth specious pleas until after election. If he shall gain that he will consider himself invulnerable, and with that object in view he and his satraps, HALL and SWEENY, are straining every nerve.

Tweed Disposing of His Property.

It is a well-known fact that WM. M. TWEED has been busily engaged during the past few weeks in hiding away all of his personal effects and real estate. His stocks have nearly all been sold or transferred to other parties in trust, and nearly all of his houses have been quietly turned over to those who will hold them safely. Within a few days past it is said that he has transferred upward of four million dollars' worth of real estate, and yesterday he disposed of property worth $975,000 more, including his magnificent dwelling on Fifth-avenue. One deed recorded yesterday is to RICHARD M. TWEED, (his son,) conveying twenty-two acres, two roods and ten and one-half perches, at Fort Washington. The deed was prepared by GEORGE F. DEMAREST, of No. 229 Broadway, is dated Aug. 16, 1871, and is acknowledged before WILLIAM M. TWEED, Jr. Consideration $250,000.

The second deed is from RICHARD M. TWEED, conveying the same property to the Pottier & Stymus Manufacturing Company, of which the "Boss" is said to be the "Company."

The third deed is from WILLIAM M. TWEED to RICHARD M. TWEED, dated Aug. 16, 1871, and conveys a plot of ground on the northerly side of West Fifty-ninth-street, 34 feet 3 inches west of the "Circle;" consideration $200,000; acknowledged before WM. M. TWEED, Jr.

The fourth deed is from WILLIAM M. TWEED to RICHARD M. TWEED, dated Aug. 16, 1871, conveys one plot of ground on the south-east corner of West Forty-third-street and Fifth-avenue; consideration $275,000. This deed is also dated on the 16th of August, 1871, and acknowledged before WM. M. TWEED, Jr. This is TWEED's private residence. The "Boss" is in desperate haste to get everything out of the way, and when he has done so will doubtless snap his fingers in the faces of his victims and defy them to recover. He doesn't know the trap that is being laid for him, however, or he would not speak as confidently as he does. There is something warm in store for him before he gets done with this business.

WHAT THE PEOPLE SAY.

Opinions Freely Expressed Everywhere—Views of Tweed's Political Friends.

"I thought BILL TWEED was smart enough to cover up his tracks, but the morning papers don't show it," said one Tammany man to another, yesterday. "Brains has got the best of this fight, and TWEED is cornered. I tell you, O'CONOR is goin to fetch him.

The group whose views upon the disclosures of yesterday are thought worthy to be reported, as an index of a phase of popular opinion, were standing on the basement floor of the County Court-house. All, with one exception, were Democrats of influence in the councils of Tammany Hall, and one holds an important office in which he is the responsible chief of others. "It is a bad thing for TWEED," said the last one referred to. "I don't know how he is going to get out of it. He is weakening and fast losing his best friends. Every man that I have talked to today shrugs his shoulders and says he don't know what the Boss is going to do about it. Have you seen TWEED today?" he added, addressing one of his companions.

"Yes, I saw him a little while ago," was the answer. "He appeared to be somewhat shaken, but he said he felt all right—wasn't at all worried. But there wasn't anything else for him to say."

"I think he is in a pretty bad box. They will have to get quarters ready for him at Ludlow-street Jail. They say he is to be arrested today."

"The jailers will have a good boarder," said another.

"Yes," replied the previous speaker. "He'll have plenty of money to spend. The jailers will have an opportunity to make him fork over some of the appropriations made by the Board of Apportionment for the benefit of the jail, and which he, with the others, have pocketed themselves."

"They ought to have the whole Board of Apportionment over there," said another.

"Well, they may have them; there is no telling, the way things are going now," said another. "Hello, there's the Controller, MIKE TUOMEY and Judge CARDOZO," he remarked, as those gentlemen passed by engaged in earnest conversation, and he added: "Here comes Ex-Sheriff O'BRIEN, shaking hands with everybody."

As Mr. O'BRIEN disappeared in the direction of Sheriff BRENNAN's office, he remarked: "O'BRIEN is pretty active. He'll make things very lively for BRADLEY in his district.

"What do you think of TWEED's chances?" chimed in the TIMES reporter.

"Oh, he will go to Albany. It is too late to make a nomination strong enough to beat him in his district now," was the answer.

During these remarks crowds of politicians were hurrying by, and groups like this one were standing together conversing earnestly and in low tones. The damning array of evidence put forth in the big black type in the TIMES would admit of no argument. There it was, furnished by a Democratic leader of unimpeachable integrity, and the prosecution vigorously pushed by the Democratic State Attorney.

The reporter left the crowd and drifted into Sheriff BRENNAN's office. "What do you think of the situation?" was asked by one of the principal hangers on, who is familiar with the views of the Sheriff.

"Bad, Sir, bad for TWEED. I don't know what he is going to do about it," was answered.

"What will the Sheriff do under the circumstances?" said the reporter.

"Sheriff BRENNAN, Sir, can't keep company with such men, Sir; that's my opinion."

REPORTER—Do you think he will talk on the matter—express any opinion today?"

OFFICIAL—He'll talk, but I don't think he will express an opinion. Wait until to-morrow. There will be something of importance to-morrow. Come in and see me.

REPORTER—Do you think TWEED will run in his district for Senator?

OFFICIAL—He'll run, I suppose. There is no time now to make another nomination, but there is some talk of putting up a man against him. TWEED expected to get a tremendous majority, but it will be a small one now, you can rest assured. If he is elected, I don't see how he is going to take his seat, while being tried for criminal offences. Do you?

The reporter confessed his inability to see how it could be done, and expressed his amazement at the audacity of TWEED in keeping his name before the public for their suffrages. The foregoing is a reflex of what intelligent Democrats, to whom but a short time ago TWEED's name was a tower of strength, felt yesterday, after reading the paper. Among the ignorant and vicious, and those thoroughly corrupted by the money and favors which TWEED has lavishly showered upon them, there was a little show of defiance, and such as these asserted that "Boss" TWEED was smart enough to escape the consequences of his crimes, and that he, to use their slang, would "give them all the go-by," and rule Tammany Hall and New-York, in spite of itself.

"Well," said a respectable citizen, "I guess we'll have justice at last."

"It looks like it," said another. On the streets, in the cars, in the hotels and restaurants, the subject was discussed, and even the trial of ROSENWEIG was forgotten in the interest which centred about the case of the People vs. WM. M. TWEED. Even the little gamins in the street prated about it, and asked each other if they thought TWEED would be sent to Sing Sing. One of these little Arabs said, "he didn't believe TWEED would be arrested, he'd git off."

Should he escape, this boy, like many others, may be encouraged to practice theft on a smaller scale, with the hope of going unpunished, too. Men, upon getting into the street-cars, sank into their seats, and immediately became absorbed in reading the papers. Conversation in some of the cars became general, and expressions of gratification that the frauds had been in part traced to one of the principal offenders, were frequent. It was the same on the ferry-boats. Among the Germans the feeling was one of intense satisfaction. "It looks now," said a German to the TIMES reporter, "as though we were reaching the end." Everywhere WM. M. TWEED's guilt was urged and admitted, and yet, upon the authority of those who know him best, he is determined to run for State Senator, and huge swinging banners stretch across the streets in the Seventh Ward, one of them in the Bowery, to the disgust of honest Germans passing under it, with a portrait of the arch Ring thief, and advertising him as a candidate for Senator of the Seventh District. The false rumors of TWEED's arrest last evening flew like wild-fire to all parts of the City, increasing the disgust of the dishonest and the gratification of men of honor.

The Arrest of Tweed—Sentiments of the Community.

Wild rumors were floating around town last night as to what had been done with the culprit TWEED. Up-town it was asserted that he had been arrested and safely lodged in Ludlow-street Jail, not being able to obtain the required amount of bail. Some who retailed the story to open-eared listeners placed the bail demanded at $1,000,000, and others at $2,000,000.

"That is too much bail to demand," said one. "Too much!" said another, "I would like to see it placed so high that there would be no possibility of his getting it," he added, answering his own question.

"It does me good," said a man in front of Thomas' saloon on Broadway, "to see this man brought to justice. Why, there was a poor man here the other day, sent up on the Island for stealing three buns from a bake-shop. Shall this man who is rolling in wealth that he has stolen from the City go scot free, while the hungry wretch is punished?"

Considerable excitement prevailed in the Fifth-avenue Hotel and other of the large caravansaries, at the rumored arrest, and our reporter, who visited the head-quarters of the Committee of Elections of the Committee of Seventy, the Executive Committee of the Young Men's Political Reform Association, and several other head-quarters, was eagerly questioned about the truth of the report. These rumors, however, as will seen elsewhere, have at present slight foundation.

Around the City Hall.

The figures published in the TIMES yesterday were the cause of considerable conversation around the Hall yesterday morning. The general conclusion arrived at was that WM. M. TWEED and E. A. WOODWARD had been doing a large and very profitable business, and that the robberies of the City Treasury had at last been brought home to the guilty parties, or, at any rate, to some of them. The Mayor was invisible yesterday, arriving late at his office, and leaving after reading his letters. There was some talk, too, yesterday, in regard to Mr. HALL, and some strong language was uttered as to his culpability in permitting the accounts laid before the Board of Audit to be passed on and approved by subordinates, of the untrustworthy character of one of whom, at least, he had full knowledge. Various surmises were indulged in as to when TWEED would be arrested, and several persons stationed themselves near to the Department of Public Works, expecting to see the "Boss" brought out by a policeman, or a Sheriff's officer, at least. The "Boss," however, was closeted the whole morning with his lawyer, Mr. BARTLETT, and about noon a messenger was dispatched for Mr. JOHN GRAHAM, who arrived in hot haste and had a long and doubtless very interesting conversation with his client.

THE TELL-TALE FIGURES.

Analysis of the Detailed Account Published Yesterday—The Figures Grouped for the Benefit of the Reader.

The crowded condition of our columns yesterday prevented us from giving an analysis of the full figures contained in our supplement. The facts concerning the identification of the parties receiving the proceeds of warrants drawn for allowances made by the special Board of Audit, under section 4 of the County Tax Levy of 1870, are now presented in brief.

The figures appended to the affidavit of Mr. TILDEN prove that on the 6th of May, 1870, four warrants, amounting to a total of $225,658 87, were drawn upon the Broadway Bank. The bank entries of the same day show that INGERSOLL & Co. deposited $99,037 12, being the amount of two checks indorsed by them, and immediately drew another check to the order of E. A. WOODWARD for $41,358 93, who deposited it to his own account. At the same time ANDREW J. GARVEY deposited $46,025 67, and then drew a check payable to WOODWARD's order for $30,376 44, which the latter at once deposited to his own account. The warrant of KEYSER & Co. for $32,596 08, indorsed with the initials "E. A. W." in lead pencil, was also deposited to WOODWARD's credit.

The next day, May 7, 1870, four warrants, indorsed by INGERSOLL & Co., and amounting to $152,586 52, were drawn on the Broadway Bank. Checks were drawn from that amount by INGERSOLL, in favor of WOODWARD, for $75,202 47, which he at once deposited, and then drew a check for $28,772 95. The latter was immediately deposited by WM. M. TWEED.

On the 13th of May, two warrants were drawn on the same bank and indorsed by INGERSOLL & Co. The total amount, $128,281 22, INGERSOLL deposited, and then drew a check for $64,465 58, which was placed to WOODWARD's credit. The latter then drew a check for $9,328 39, which was deposited to the account of WM. M. TWEED.

On the 14th of May, three warrants were drawn on the same bank. Two of these were in favor of A. J. GARVEY, and amounting to $89,611 77, he deposited, and drew a check to WOODWARD's order for $59,127 95. This, with a check of KEYSER & Co., indorsed in lead pencil initials "E. A. W., for $27,887 38, making a total of $86,015 43, WOODWARD deposited, and then drew a check for $28,434 21, which was added to the bank account of WM. M. TWEED.

On the 21st of May nine warrants were drawn on the same bank. Of these, $284,173 57 was deposited by INGERSOLL & Co., who drew checks for $127,731 15, which were placed to WOODWARD's credit. A. J. GARVEY deposited $133,720 53, and drew a check in favor of WOODWARD for $88,316 19, which was deposited to the latter's account, which amounted to a total of $216,047 34. Of this day's doings, the share of Mr. TWEED seems to have been $30,996 66. There is no account of the disposition of the remainder. Of the five warrants drawn on the same bank on the 23d of May, in favor of KEYSER & Co. and A. HALL, Jr., and indorsed "E. A. W." in pencil, WOODWARD deposited all, $146,980 17, and drew a check for $35,031 87, which went into Mr. TWEED's bank account.

On the 27th of May two warrants were drawn on the same bank amounting to $166,701 01. Of this total WOODWARD received from INGERSOLL $54,140 60, and from GARVEY $26,976 50—in all $81,117 10. Mr. TWEED received $9,924 50.

On May 28 six warrants were drawn upon the same bank for $257,527 61. Of this, INGERSOLL deposited $193,121 95, of which WOODWARD received $90,430 09. A. J. GARVEY deposited $43,390 81, and paid WOODWARD $28,639 64, making the total for the latter $140,084 58. Mr. TWEED received $25,018 07. The remainder is not accounted for.

On the 30th of May three warrants were drawn, amounting to $177,629 86. This was divided thus: WOODWARD received from INGERSOLL $28,461 09, and from GARVEY $27,000 34. WOODWARD's own check, drawn for $68,515 70, adds up his share to $123,977 13. Mr. TWEED received $26,568 75.

On the 3d of June eight warrants were drawn. INGERSOLL deposited $154,531 79, of which WOODWARD received $73,574 10; A. J. GARVEY deposited $125,552 22, and paid WOODWARD $83,031 16. The latter drew on KEYSER & Co.'s warrants $53,423 65—thus making his whole share $209,828 91. Mr. TWEED was paid $51,290 28.

On the 6th of June sixteen warrants were drawn. INGERSOLL deposited $191,583 48, and gave WOODWARD $98,684 58. GARVEY took $166,961 26, and paid $110,635 13 to WOODWARD, who drew $54,196 80 on KEYSER & Co.'s warrants, (indorsed in lead pencil,) making a plump total share of $263,516 51. WM. M. TWEED received $64,411 68.

On the 10th of June there were nine warrants drawn. INGERSOLL had $181,680 61, and handed WOODWARD $85,279 24. GARVEY deposited $108,079 15, and paid WOODWARD $71,552 12, who drew all the other warrants, amounting to $121,520 01, thus making his share $278,342 27. Mr. TWEED's portion was $66,513 28.

On the 13th of June three warrants were drawn. INGERSOLL deposited $181,086 45. Mr. TWEED's share was $38,515 45, and Mr. WOODWARD's $101,493 65.

On the 17th of June four warrants were drawn. A. J. GARVEY received $88,128 71, and gave WOODWARD $58,500. INGERSOLL received $48,768 21, and paid $32,136 22 to WOODWARD, who drew, including the warrant of JOHN MCBRIDE DAVIDSON, $139,806 64. Mr. TWEED's part was $61,482 60.

On the 20th of June six warrants were drawn. INGERSOLL drew $107,257 74, and paid WOODWARD $54,494 31. GARVEY had $87,901 61, and paid WOODWARD $58,777 38, who drew the warrants of KEYSER & Co. and JACOBUS, for $56,063 81, making his entire profit $169,335 50. Mr. TWEED received $44,168 52.

On the 24th of June eight warrants were drawn. The deposit of INGERSOLL was $85,523 72, of which $47,733 67 was paid to WOODWARD. GARVEY deposited $89,140 13, and gave WOODWARD $69,058 58, who drew also $38,308 74, his total share being $135,101 29. Mr. TWEED, on the same afternoon, deposited WOODWARD's check for $42,556 67.

On the 27th of June eight warrants were drawn. INGERSOLL deposited $188,368 74, and paid WOODWARD $133,998 14, who drew $108,064 04, all indorsed in pencil—his entire share amounting to $242,062 18. Mr. TWEED's portion was $66,787 54.

On the 30th of June six warrants were drawn. INGERSOLL deposited $179,559 01. WOODWARD's share from INGERSOLL was $94,224 33, and from GARVEY $29,879 38. JACOBUS' warrant, for $3,012 87, was drawn by WOODWARD, and swelled his total to $127,116 58. Mr. TWEED received $29,489 75.

On the 1st of July five warrants were drawn. INGERSOLL deposited $203,563 41, from which WOODWARD received $108,567 43, and Mr. TWEED had $24,304 24 as his portion.

On the 8th of July five warrants were issued. INGERSOLL deposited $76,264 91 and paid to WOODWARD $50,234 48. WOODWARD also drew on his own penciled indorsements $110,583 77, thus making his whole profit $160,818 25. Mr. TWEED's portion was $44,507 25.

On the 19th of July eight warrants, pencil-indorsed with WOODWARD's initials, were drawn in favor of J. O. SEYMOUR, KENNARD & HAY, for the total of $98,352 54, which WOODWARD placed on deposit to his own account, and paid Mr. TWEED $23,190 69.

On the 1st of August four warrants were drawn. INGERSOLL drew $221,366 61, and gave WOODWARD $108,849 46, who drew KEYSER & Co.'s warrant for $42,224 93, making his total share $151,074 39. Mr. TWEED received $26,589 98.

On the 5th of August one warrant was issued to ANDREW J. GARVEY for $72,075 08. INGERSOLL received of this $47,744 68, who deposited it, and simultaneously drew a check to the order of WOODWARD for $21,963 81, who, in turn, deposited the check, and gave his own to Mr. TWEED for $17,378 85, which he deposited.

On the 9th of August three warrants were drawn. INGERSOLL had $184,675 38, and gave $121,471 67 to WOODWARD, who turned over to Mr. TWEED $45,154 51.

On the 12th of August four warrants were drawn. INGERSOLL received $215,672 30, and turned over $75,310 56 to WOODWARD, who passed over to Mr. TWEED, as his share, $56,601 46.

The extent, variety, and method of these operations is thus seen at a glance. Within the comparatively brief period of four months, this audacious trio of Ring-men filched the enormous sum of $5,710,913 98. The deposits of INGERSOLL & Co. were $3,549,329 18, and the sums he paid to E. A. WOODWARD amounted to $1,817,467 49. The deposits of ANDREW J. GARVEY amounted to $1,177,413 72, of which he paid WOODWARD $779,615 69. WM. M. TWEED received $932,858 50.

E. A. WOODWARD's total receipts were $3,581,254 26.

In addition to this list, are warrants to the credit of the New-York Printing Company, the Transcript Association, and the Manufacturing Stationers, amounting to $384,395 19. June 7, the Printing Company gave a check for $104,333 64, which WM. M. TWEED deposited the next day. This swells his total share of the spoils to $1,037,192 14.

INGERSOLL also deposited in the Bowery Bank warrants to the amount of $113,583 52. Thus the whole amount of plunder was $6,312,541 37. INGERSOLL paid to unknown persons $1,731,861 69. GARVEY paid in the same way $397,798 03 WOODWARD likewise disbursed $2,649,195 76.

A number of the warrants issued to KEYSER & Co. have been pronounced forgeries, but all those except one were deposited by WOODWARD, the bandy go-between factotum man of "Boss" TWEED.

The conspiracy to compass this wholesale fraud commenced in the passage of section 4 of the County Tax levy of 1870. It provided for the payment of claims as might be found due by a special Board of Audit, composed of Mayor HALL, Controller CONNOLLY and WM. M. TWEED, President of the Board of Supervisors, or JOS. B. YOUNG, the Secretary of the Board. It is incredible that Mayor HALL did not know and tell his associates that their duty was to investigate all accounts, and that first or last they must be held—as they now are—responsible for all errors and frauds on the face of the bills. It is very easy to imagine the reasons Mayor HALL particularly, and all the other conspirators generally, had for wishing the forged vouchers burned. Fortunately for the ends of justice, the forged warrants are preserved, and are available for the occasion.

The teller of the bank testified that E. A. WOODWARD's writing is on the deposit tickets; that he usually made the deposits in person. WOODWARD is Deputy Clerk to JOSEPH B. YOUNG, on whose certification, according to Mr. TWEED's and Mayor HALL's resolution, all bills are to be paid. He has made many payments to persons that cannot be traced, but of those made to Mr. TWEED the identification is perfect.

A Word With the Tribune.

Nearly two weeks ago the TIMES gave the public the first intimation that the books of the Broadway Bank were being examined for the purpose of convicting WM. M. TWEED. On the following day the Tribune, under the caption of "Another TIMES Story Discredited," denied the fact. Yesterday the Tribune published the results of the investigation. Comment is unnecessary, except to say that this is a fair specimen of the "abuse" to which the Tribune has been subjected by the TIMES in all late matters of interest and news.

Woodward's Flight From Justice.

Weeks ago ANDREW J. GARVEY fled from New-York to Canada to avoid arrest, and now another Ring scoundrel has gone. ELBERT A. WOODWARD, TWEED's go-between, has left for parts unknown, and is probably beyond reach at this time. He was Deputy Clerk to the Board of Supervisors, confidential agent of WM. M. TWEED, and a kind of scape-goat convenience for the Tammany Ring. The evidence against him now seems overwhelming. He appears, in Mr. TILDEN's revelations of the Broadway Bank accounts, to have been not only the distributor of the Tammany plunder, but a tool for any intrigue. With the late County Auditor, WATSON, as well as with ANDREW J. GARVEY, JAS. H. INGERSOLL, and KEYSER & Co., he was thoroughly intimate, and is thought to possess many of the secrets that apparently were buried with the dead Auditor. Those secrets unraveled would probably tell the whole story of the great Tammany conspiracy, and reveal all of the guilt of the criminals. He had built a splendid residence, adjoining those of Messrs. INGERSOLL and GARVEY, at South Norwalk, Conn., which he is said to have recently transferred to his business partner, J. P. BEATTY, of No. 468 Broadway, in this City. Since the first discovery of his implication in the forgeries of JOHN H. KEYSER's name, on the warrants paid by the Broadway Bank, amounting to more than $800,000, he has not been seen. On Tuesday he returned to South Norwalk, where he transferred real estate valued at $200,000 to various persons, resigned his position as Director in the Fairfield County Fire Insurance Company, in which he holds $25,000 of stock, and as Treasurer of the Fairfield County Planing Mills. The county records show that he transferred his homestead to Mr. J. P. BEATTY, who then transferred it to Mr. WOODWARD's wife for the nominal sum of $1. He also signed quit-claims of valuable property and mortgages, and made tranfers of valuable property for merely nominal sums to several parties, including INGERSOLL. These operations are thought to represent but a small portion of his great wealth. Since 1864 he has purchased real estate to the value of nearly $200,000, and has sold property to the value of $60,500. He has also loaned an immense amount of cash to sundry parties. There can be no reasonable doubt of the escape of both GARVEY and WOODWARD. The effort of friends to deny it is evidently to baffle or mislead the pursuit of officers after them.

The Citizens' Committee.

The Joint Committee of Citizens, Supervisors and Aldermen were to have met yesterday afternoon, but did not do so, owing to the illness of Alderman DIMOND. The Chairman of the Committee, Recorder HACKETT, has called a meeting for 2 P. M., today, when a report will probably be presented and adopted, and the Committee will then adjourn sine die.

The Laborers Again.

The usual deputation of unpaid laborers appeared at the Controller's Office yesterday to demand a settlement of their claims, and received the usual answer—no funds available.

Mr. TWEED yesterday advanced the sum of $22,359 28 from his stolen fund to pay off men employed in laying small pipes. Their claims were audited by the pay-master, and the money disbursed before 2 P. M.

Why Don't These Men Go to Tweed?

A deputation of contractors for street improvements, appointed at the meeting in Brevoort Hall on Wednesday evening, paid a visit to Deputy Controller GREEN yesterday morning. The deputation comprised Patrick Farley, Thos. Pierson, John Kinsley, Bartholomew Noonan, John L. Brown, Wm. Baird, Thos. Cremin, Henry Stollmeyer, L. W. Johnson, Charles Devlin, R. J. Cunningham and Matthew Baird. On being introduced to Mr. GREEN, Mr. PIERSON said the City now owed him about $150,000; that he stood much in need of money, as did his fellow contractors, and that he had been obliged to reduce the number of men at work on the sewer in Harlem, because he had no means of paying them. A warrant for $29,000, he said, being seventy per cent. of the South-street paving contract, had been signed, as he understood, three months ago, and he would be glad to have it.

Deputy Controller GREEN said that the contracts were now under investigation, and as each was found to be correct the contractor would be notified and his account settled. He intended to call a meeting of the Board of Revision and Correction of Assessments at once, and he would facilitate the settlement of the accounts as much as possible.

The deputation then withdrew. They state that the aggregate of their claims is about $2,000,000.

Mayor Hall's Tribute to Tweed.

From the Leader of last Saturday.

The renomination of Senator TWEED from the Fourth District is a compliment as deserved as it is suitably bestowed. Mr. TWEED has served several terms in the State Senate with signal ability and success. He has accomplished for the City what few Representatives in the Legislature have done. The charitable and educational institutions of the City owe much of their established worth, capacity for usefulness and conspicuous progress to Mr. TWEED's untiring efforts in their behalf. Throughout his Senatorial career Mr. TWEED has been the constant friend of the poor and distressed. His friendship for the working man has been shown in a multitude of ways, and every scheme for the advancement of the condition of the working classes receives his hearty indorsement and co-operation. In the Senate, his wise counsels, decision of character, and great executive ability, have shone out conspicuously. He embodies to an eminent degree all the qualities of leadership, and his position in the State Senate has been won by faithfulness to principle, integrity of purpose, assiduous industry and an unflinching sense of justice. His renomination is a deserved recognition of those eminent qualifications, and his re-election will be the tribute of respect and confidence which his constituency are anxious to award to HONESTY and straightforwardness of official character.

MR. BOUTWELL IN BOSTON.

Lecture on the Present Questions Affecting Public Prosperity.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

BOSTON, Oct. 26.—Mr. BOUTWELL lectured this evening, in the Bay State Course, at Music Hall. He was received with enthusiastic applause by an immense and fashionable audience, composed in a large degree of ladies. The subject of the lecture was the "Present questions affecting public prosperity." He pointed out the errors committed by laboring men in looking to labor organizations for bettering their general condition and in spending so much time in discussing the hours they should work, and showed that the only way to elevate the laboring classes was to educate them. He next showed the evils of entail in land tenure, and of the power of railway companies to purchase land not necessary to the business of their road, and to hold coal lands, thus depriving people of getting a livelihood by owning such lands. Transportation by land and water was next discussed, and the evils growing out of the power of railroads shown. The English Parliament had passed a law that railroads should convey passengers a certain distance from the city for a shilling. Boston needed such a law. The internal interests are fifteen times as great as the external interests, and cheap transportation for Western products is of vital importance to the eastern working man. He deplored the absence of American shipping. The removing of duties as a measure of relief was noticed; it would necessitate removing duties from all, and that the Government could not afford. Referring to the burden of public debts, he said those of Europe and America were, a few years ago, $7,500,000,000, and today they are $23,000,000,000. He opposed postponing the payment of the debt, and closed by pointing out to young men who will have to govern this country when it contains 100,000,000 of people what mistakes they must avoid.

GREAT BRITAIN.

Another Colliery Explosion in England—Thirty-three Miners in the Pit—An American Bark Run Down.

LONDON, Oct. 26.—Another frightful colliery disaster is reported. An explosion took place this afternoon in the Seaham Mine, near Newcastle. Thirty-three men were in the pit at the time, none of whom have yet been reached. There is scarcely hope of saving a single life. The families of the victims, with large numbers of people, are gathered around the mouth of the pit, and former scenes of excitement and distress are renewed.

LONDON, Oct. 26.—The bark J. B. Bradley, BRADLEY, master, of Bucksport, Me., from London for Philadelphia, was run down off the Isle of Wight by a steamer (name not given) and a portion of the crew perished. No damage to the steamer reported.

RUSSIA.

Reorganization of the Army—1,600,000 the War Footing.

LONDON, Oct. 26.—The entire reorganization of the Russian Army for the training of the whole people to arms, raises the total field and landwehr forces for war to 1,600,000 men and 51,000 officers, sixty-six regiments of Cossacks not included. There is created further a reserve force, which, in case of an invasion, is equivalent to making every man a soldier on a peace footing, to 750,000 men and 35,000 officers. The new artillery adds 1,000 guns to the old force. This enormous change in the military forces of Russia is masked under the mere creation of landwehr, called local forces, which nominally leaves the old army intact.

GENERAL EUROPEAN NEWS.

Austrian Politics—Resignation of the Hohenwart Cabinet—Spain Quiet—Release of Communists.

VIENNA, Oct. 26.—The morning journals are of the opinion that the political questions pending before the Emperor will be decided according to the views of the Imperial Chancellor, VON BEUST, and that the resignation of the Hohenwart Ministry is imminent.

Later.—The Hohenwart Ministry tendered their resignations today to the Emperor. There is no doubt that His Majesty will accept them.

MADRID, Oct. 26.—The rumors which have gone abroad of the conspiracies against the Government by partisans of the Duke of MONTPENSIER and of the infant ALFONSO are without shadow of truth. The whole Kingdom is perfectly quiet, and no demonstration of any kind against the dynasty of SAVOY is apprehended.

HAVRE, Oct. 26.—The number of Communists released by the Courts is not less than 10,000. It is said that Prince NAPOLEON has left Corsica.

ROME, Oct. 26.—The workmen's societies of Rome and Naples have refused to participate in the Congress of working men which is shortly to be held at Rome, on the ground that that assembly will be a mere Republican demonstration, and, as such, unfriendly to Italy. The Government has relaxed the vigor of its precautions against the Internationals and the partisans of Republican agitation, believing that their principles have no hold upon the Italian people.

Foreign Aid for the Chicago and North-western Sufferers.

VIENNA, Oct. 26.—Today's journals publish an appeal for contributions in aid of the sufferers by the Chicago fire, signed by Von Beust, Erlanger, Todesco, Kinsky and others. United States Minister JAY is active in furthering the relief movement.

LONDON, Oct. 26.—The contributions to the Chicago Relief Fund received at the Mansion House up to last evening, amount to £41,200. The town of Bradford has subscribed £4,250. The Times this morning urges the dispatch of prompt and liberal aid for the settlers in Wisconsin and Michigan, burned out by the forest fires. The Times says if such help is not afforded to these unfortunate people, the ultimate suffering which will result from the North-western fires will be greater than can follow the Chicago conflagration.

MEXICO.

Progress of the Monterey Revolution—Government Movements Against the Rebels.

MATAMORAS, Oct. 22.—SALTILLO still holds out against the revolutionists. Eight hundred troops have arrived to reinforce the garrison. ESCOBEDO, the Commander-in-Chief of the Government troops, is marching against the rebels. Senores, Morales and Hamaita, small cities in the Nuevo Leon province, have pronounced against TREVINO. Two thousand Mexicans have crossed into Texas to escape rebel proscription.

BOUNTY CLAIM FRAUDS.

Arrest of a Clerk in the Second Auditor's Bureau and of Ex-Congressman Stokes, of Tennessee.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—The Evening Star of today says that VICTOR Y. POWELL, a clerk in the Second Auditor's office for the last eight years, was arrested here by Deputy United States Marshal PHILLIPS, on Tuesday last, charged with frauds on the Government in connection with bounty claims. The amount specified is $10,000, but it is rumored that an investigation will show the amount to be over $100,000. It is also rumored that an Ex-Member of Congress is implicated.

Later.—Ex-Congressman WILLIAM B. STOKES, Supervisor of Internal Revenue for Tennessee, was arrested here today on his arrival from that State. He is charged with defrauding the Government to the amount of $60,000. On being arraigned before Commissioner J. J. JOHNSON, he waived a preliminary examination, and gave bail in the sum of $15,000 for his appearance before the Criminal Court. It is said that VICTOR J. POWELL, clerk in the Second Auditor's office, who was recently arrested, and now in jail, is concerned in the same alleged fraudulent transactions.

THE MORMONS.

A Petition Fifty Feet Long from Mormon Women in Favor of Polygamy.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—The character of the petition from Utah, fifty feet long, and signed by about 2,500 women of that territory, was recently unintentionally misstated. Instead of being against, it is in favor of polygamy, and was sent to the Executive Mansion by delegate HOOPER. The petitioners say that their husbands, fathers, sons, and brothers are now being exposed to the murderous policy of a clique of Federal officers intent on the destruction of an honest, happy, industrious, and prosperous people, and they therefore ask for the removal of the Federal disturbers of the peace, or at least to stop the disgraceful court proceedings, or send candid and reliable men to Utah to investigate the question of the constitutional rights and liberty of the people. The petitioners express their approbation of polygamy, asserting that it was sanctioned by Christ's teachings, and that the institution is being perverted by Federal officers.

THE ELECTIONS.

Nine Important State Contests on the 7th of November.

New-York, New-Jersey, Massachusetts and Maryland.

Illinois, Minnesota, Mississippi, Wisconsin and Virginia.

Names of Candidates for the Chief Offices to be Filled.

Statistics of Former Elections in Each State.

Preparations of Both Parties for the Final Struggle of the Year.

Nine very important State elections are to be held on Tuesday, Nov. 7, of which full statistics are given below. ## OTHER STATES.

Illinois.

Illinois elects a Congressman-at-large in place of Gen. John A. Logan, who has been transferred to the United States Senate. And in the Sixth District a Representative in Congress is to be chosen, in place of Hon. Burton C. Cook, resigned. The candidates for Congressman-at-large are Gen. John L. Beveridge, Republican, and S. S. Hayes, Democrat. In the Sixth District the Republicans have nominated Henry Snapp, and the Democrats Lorenzo Leland. The vote for Congressman-at-large last Fall, resulted as follows: Republican, 168,862; Democratic, 144,190. In the Sixth District the Republicans cast 10,341 votes, and the Democrats, 7,712.

Maryland.

The candidates of the two parties for State officers in Maryland are as follows:

| | Republican. | Democratic. |
|---|---|---|
| Governor | Jacob Tome. | W. P. White. |
| Attorney-General | Alexander Randall. | L. Woolford. |
| Controller | Lawrence J. Bengle. | A. K. Syester. |

The vote of the State for Congressmen in 1870 resulted as follows: Republican, 57,750; Democratic, 76,608. The State is also to elect its Legislature, for which there is a new apportionment reducing the number of members of the House from eighty-six to eighty-two members. Eleven Democratic members of the Senate hold over. The last Legislature was entirely Democratic in both branches.

Massachusetts.

In Massachusetts there are four tickets for State officers, and they are as follows:

| | Republican. | Democratic. |
|---|---|---|
| Governor | Wm. B. Washburn. | John Quincy Adams. |
| Lieut.-Gov. | Joseph Tucker. | S. O. Lamb. |
| Att'y-Gen. | Charles R. Train. | Luther Stevenson, Jr |
| Sec. State | Oliver Warner. | Levi Heywood. |
| Treasurer | Charles Adams, Jr. | Phineas Allen. |
| Auditor | Charles Endicott. | William W. Warren. |
| | Labor Reform. | Prohibition. |
| Governor | E. M. Chamberlain. | Robert C. Pitman. |
| Lieut.-Gov. | Allen Dean. | Eliphalet Trask. |
| Att'y-Gen. | H. B. Maglathlin. | George S. Ball. |
| Sec. State | Henry T. Delano. | John I. Baker. |
| Treasurer | George L. Ruffin. | Ezra S. Conant. |
| Auditor | George P. Sanderson. | Stephen T. Field. |

The vote of Massachusetts, the two past years, has been as follows:

| | Republican. | Democratic. | Lab. Ref. and Prohibition. |
|---|---|---|---|
| 1869 | 74,106 | 50,701 | 13,567 |
| 1870 | 79,549 | 48,536 | 21,946 |

The State also elects its full Legislature. That last chosen, in 1870, was composed as follows:

| | Senate. | House. | Joint Ballot. |
|---|---|---|---|
| Republicans | 34 | 195 | 229 |
| Democrats | 5 | 34 | 39 |
| Labor Reformers | 1 | 11 | 12 |
| Republican majority | 28 | 150 | 178 |

Minnesota.

The candidates of the two parties in Minnesota are:

| | Republican. | Democratic. |
|---|---|---|
| Governor | Horace Austin. | Winthrop Young. |
| Lieut.-Gov | William H. Yale. | D. L. Buell. |
| Treasurer | William Seeger. | Barney Vosberg. |
| Sec. of State | S. P. Jennison, | Erick N. Falk. |
| Att'y-General | F. R. E. Cornell. | John L. Macdonald. |
| Judges S. Court | S. J. R. McMillan. | Daniel Buck. |
| | John M. Berry. | Wm. Mitchell. |

The vote of Minnesota last year for Congressmen was: Republican, 36,739; Democratic, 29,395. In 1869, for Governor, it was: Republican, 32,319; Democratic, 28,152. The States is to vote on two proposed amendments to its Constitution. One forbids the Legislature to relieve railroad companies from the tax on their yearly earnings; the other authorizes an increase of the State debt by $250,000 for the erection of a State prison and an asylum for the deaf, dumb and blind. The Legislature is also to be chosen. Last year it was as follows:

| | Senate. | House. | Joint Ballot. |
|---|---|---|---|
| Republicans | 13 | 32 | 45 |
| Democrats | 9 | 15 | 24 |
| Republican majority | 4 | 17 | 21 |

New-Jersey.

The candidates for Governor in New-Jersey are Cornelius Walsh, Republican, and Joel Parker, Democrat. The Legislature is also to be chosen. That last chosen was divided as follows:

| | Senate. | House. | Joint Ballot. |
|---|---|---|---|
| Republicans | 12 | 34 | 46 |
| Democrats | 9 | 26 | 35 |
| Republican majority | 3 | 8 | 11 |

The vote of the State for Congressmen in 1870 resulted as follows: Republican, 80,426; Democratic, 76,373. The vote for Governor in 1868 was: Republican, 79,333; Democratic, 83,955.

Mississippi and Virginia.

Mississippi and Virginia elect their Legislatures only. That last chosen in the former State was composed as follows:

| | Senate. | House. | Joint Ballot. |
|---|---|---|---|
| Republicans | 26 | 82 | 108 |
| Democrats | 7 | 25 | 32 |
| Republican majority | 19 | 57 | 76 |

In Virginia the Legislature last chosen was composed thus:

| | Senate. | House. | Joint Ballot. |
|---|---|---|---|
| Republicans | 13 | 41 | 54 |
| "Conservatives" | 30 | 96 | 126 |
| Conservative majority | 17 | 55 | 72 |

Wisconsin.

Wisconsin elects its Governor and other State officers and Legislature. The candidates for State officers are:

| | Republican. | Democratic. |
|---|---|---|
| Governor | Cad. C. Washburn. | James R. Doolittle. |
| Lieut.-Gov. | Milton H. Pettit. | John A. Rice. |
| Secretary | Llewelyn Breese. | Milton Montgomery. |
| Treasurer | Henry Baetz. | Anton Klaus. |
| Att'y-Gen. | Stephen S. Barlow. | Edward S. Bragg. |
| Supt. Inst. | Samuel Fallows. | Warren D. Parker. |
| Pris'n Com. | George F. Wheeler. | Lars E. Johnson. |
| Com. Immi. | Ole C. Johnson. | Jacob Bodden. |

The last Legislature elected was composed as follows:

| | Senate. | House. | Joint Ballot. |
|---|---|---|---|
| Republican | 18 | 55 | 73 |
| Democrat | 14 | 38 | 52 |
| Independent | 1 | 7 | 10 |
| Republican majority | 3 | 10 | 11 |

The vote of the State for Governor in 1869 resulted as follows: Republican, 69,478; Democratic, 61,263; Republican majority, 8,215.

A Benevolent Work of Emigration.

A most useful charitable work is now being performed by the Children's Aid Society, in sending large numbers of poor families and destitute children to homes in the West.

Families are found by the agents, or come to the office, who are in extreme destitution, and sometimes exposed to starvation. In twenty-four hours they are placed in Western country villages, where work and food are immediately supplied them, and small houses are either loaned or rented to them, and the children are brought under the best American influences. The boys, who are roaming through the streets, liable to become thieves and sharpers, are turned into industrious Western farmers. Some of them sent in former years have grown up and acquired properties and honorable positions. Many of these write back, expressing their deep gratitude for this great change of their prospects in life. Over 300 were sent by this Society during last month to places in the country.

We regret to hear that the Society is much cramped for funds for this most useful charity.

ROSENZWEIG'S TRIAL.

Opening of the Case for the People—The District-Attorney Condemns the Law as Insufficient—Testimony for the Prosecution.

The trial of Jacob Rosenzweig, alias "Dr." Ascher, charged with producing the death of Alice Augusta Bowlsby by medical malpractice, was resumed yesterday morning in the Court of General Sessions, before Recorder Hackett. A mass of evidence detailing the principal features of the case was given, but little of any importance transpired beyond what was developed before the Coroner's jury. Rosenzweig, calmer than on the preceding day, entered the Court early, accompanied by his counsel, Mr. Wm. F. Howe, and took his seat at the bar. The Recorder was punctual in his attendance, the general audience was smaller and apparently less interested than in the first day's proceedings, and, as far as its expectation of developments of a sensational character was concerned, it was bitterly disappointed. The friends of the prisoner and the deceased were present, and appeared to be the only spectators who watched the proceedings with unabated interest.

At the opening of the Court, District-Attorney Garvin stated the case on the part of the prosecution. He observed that he never rose to open a case of this description without feelings constituting the most lively emotions within the heart. The surroundings of a case of this character were such that wherever we look, to whatever point of the compass they direct their attention, death, blood and murder stared them in the face. If the prisoner was guilty of the crime with which he stood charged, he was guilty of one of the highest crimes known to the law. And yet for some unaccountable reason, which he never had been able to fathom, our legislators and governors have seen fit to construct the law so that a man who takes the life of the unborn child, and also of the mother, by no jury of his country or by no Judge can he be consigned to the gallows. The only punishment that can be inflicted upon him is to send him to the State Prison for a limited number of years. He knew there were reasons which were assigned for this system of legislation, but in his judgment and in the judgment of older and wiser men, such laws fail utterly to meet the necessities of a case of this description. For if a man who claimed to be clothed with the character of a physician, much more one who has no such character, or position in the community, deliberately goes to work to take the life of an unborn child, in his judgment he was as guilty of murder as if he took the life of an adult. Yet the statute was that if a mother died and the infant also died, that all the punishment that could be inflicted on him was a verdict that would consign him to imprisonment for a period not exceeding seven years. The District-Attorney then proceeded to state to the jury the circumstances upon which a verdict of guilty would be sought to be substantiated. He expressed his conviction that a stronger and clearer case was never presented before a jury, and the prisoner, if he dared to do so, would be afforded an opportunity of contradicting them. Having in seathing terms denounced the horrible crime of malpractice, he described the evils it produced in society, and called upon the jury, if satisfied of the prisoner's guilt, so express their abhorrence of it by a verdict of guilty.

Mrs. Caroline Bowlsby, mother of the deceased Alice Augusta Bowlsby, attired in mourning, was then called to the stand, and gave her evidence clearly, detailing the marks on the person of her daughter, which we more minutely described subsequently, and enumerating the several articles of dress worn by her on the morning she left home for the last time. She identified a handkerchief bearing the name "A. A. Bowlsby," which was found in the house of the prisoner, as the one worn by her on that day, and also a breast-pad which she herself fixed upon the deceased on that unhappy morning. She described her daughter's age as twenty-five years, and feelingly narrated the intimacy that existed between her and young Walter Conklin, of Paterson, N. J., who committed suicide on the identity of the deceased being made evident. The witness, at this portion of her testimony, became greatly agitated and elicited general sympathy. Miss Carrie Bowlsby, sister of the deceased, was examined. She gave corroborative evidence of the appearance of her sister, and identified the handkerchief and pad found in the prisoner's house as belonging to her. Miss Bowlsby further identified the stencil-plate used in marking the handkerchief, but could not positively say whether a blue sash, also found in Rosenzweig's premises, was the property of her sister, though it strongly resembled it. Jane Johnson, a domestic in the employ of the prisoner, testified that she resided with him three months prior to Saturday, Aug. 26. His wife, three children, Abraham Sigel, and herself were the only occupants of the house. A young lady named Netta frequently visited there. On the Wednesday or Thursday previous to the 26th of August, she observed Dr. Rozenzweig enter the basement and admit a lady through the main entrance. She wore a white dress, with ruffles and tucks in it, and immediately went upstairs. This was after 12 o'clock. On Saturday, early in the morning, she was sent out of the house with the prisoner's children to take them to the Central Park, and did not return until late in the afternoon. Never saw Netta since. Could not positively identify the trunk, but saw something like it in Rozenzweig's house. Identified a baby's wrapper found in the trunk containing the dead body, as that belonging to the Rozenzweig family, but could not be positive about the other articles there.

Alexander Potts, the luggage boy at the Hudson River Railroad Depot, and William Peckett, the truckman, repeated the evidence given by them at the Coroner's office, in regard to carrying the trunk into the depot. Peckett identified the trunk in Court as the one he was directed by the lady to get at the house of the prisoner, No. 687 Second-avenue, and also identified the prisoner as the person who helped him out with it. Officer Murphy, of the Twentieth Precinct, testified to having seen the body in the trunk at the depot, and to having caused it to be removed to the Morgue, on obtaining instructions from the Coroner.

David O'Brien, Assistant Superintendent of Bellevue Hospital, deposed to having put the body of the deceased in a coffin at Bellevue Hospital and placed it in the dead-house. The trunk and other articles were carefully preserved. Robert Vandevoort, baggage master of the Hudson River Railroad Depot, testified to the finding of the body in the trunk. Warden Brennan, of Bellevue Hospital, gave evidence corroborative of the foregoing testimony.

Dr. Theodore F. Kinne, of Paterson, N. J., stated that he was attendant physician on the deceased for the last five or six years; he was otherwise intimately acquainted with her and attended her for intermittent fever, remittent fever and other diseases; on Monday, after finding the body in the trunk, he examined it at Bellevue Hospital with a view to its identification; he recognized in the lower portion of the jaw a cicatrised scar produced by an ulcerated tooth; the skin was fastened to the bone, a portion of which, he believed, had passed away; on Wednesday afternoon, accompanied by Dr. Parker, he made a more elaborate examination of the body; he found the scar just referred to, upon the right side of the cheek, a mole on the left side of the neck, a vaccination mark on the arm below the elbow and a missing right eyetooth, which he knew to be gone; upon the entire examination he had no doubt the deceased was Alice Augusta Bowlsby.

Joseph T. Parker, dentist, residing in Paterson, N. J., testified that he made an examination of the body of the deceased, in company with Dr. Kinne, at Bellevue Hospital, on the 30th of August; identified the body as that of Miss Alice Augusta Bowlsby, whom he attended frequently; he had filled in some of the teeth and noticed his work in her mouth; he noticed the scar on her chin and the mole in the neck, which he positively identified, but did not observe the vaccination mark on the arm until after her death; had not the slightest doubt of her identity.

James T. Boyd, undertaker, residing at No. 336 East Thirty-fifth-street, positively identified the prisoner as the man who came to his store about ten o'clock on the morning of the 26th of August, and tried to have a "poor servant girl" of his buried quietly from his store; he refused to give his name or residence, stated that the doctor who attended her lived down town, and when told the burial could not take place without a medical certificate, he left, promising to call again; he never returned, but two hours subsequently the witness saw him standing outside of the house No. 687 Second-avenue.

Detective Larue testified to the discovery of the handkerchief bearing the letters "A. A. Bowlsby," as already stated in these columns.

Dr. Joseph Cushing testified to having made a post-mortem examination of the body of deceased, and expressed the opinion that death was caused by metro-peritonitis, the result of an abortion. He also testified, that in his opinion the abortion was produced by a blunt instrument. He was cross-examined by Mr. Howe at considerable length, but without shaking his direct testimony. The Court then adjourned to 10 o'clock this morning.

National Insurance Convention—Rate of Interest and Taxation.

The Insurance Convention held its eighth day's session yesterday. The supplementary report from the Committee on Permanent Organization was presented and read. The amended form provided for a salaried Secretary of the organization, the salary to be fixed by the Convention, and prescribing the duties of such official; also, fixing the annual meeting for the third Wednesday in May, said meeting to be held in New-York. The report was laid on the table.

The Special Committee appointed yesterday on the rate of interest realized by American life insurance companies presented their report, showing that, by such rough calculations as the Committee were able to make, the rate of interest realized was six and one-tenth per cent. on the gross assets.

Prof. Newton, of Yale College, was introduced to the Convention as substitute for Mr. Gillespie. He said that the question of mortality should be considered entirely apart from the rate of interest. They were by no means identical. In regard to the rate of interest, he thought four and one-half per cent. was not below the line of safety, with ordinary prudence on the part of companies; but no rate of interest, however low, would be a security against fraud or mismanagement.

Mr. Pillsbury, member of the Committee on the subject under discussion, said the Committee had explored every source of information available in the preparation of their report, and from a comparison of all the facts and opinions presented, they had come to the conclusion that a four and one-half per cent. standard was absolutely safe. He thought the establishment of a uniform standard most desirable.

THE RUSSIAN SQUADRON.

Probable Causes of Its Delay—Still in the Fog—Preparations Still More Elaborate—The City to Present a Carnival Scene—Unjust Charges Against the Poles—Their Intense Indignation.

The same thick, damp, foggy weather prevailed off the Hook yesterday that characterized the day previous. The United States squadron still remained anchored inside the bar, and everything around was as dull and as gloomy as could well be imagined. It is hardly possible now that the fog will be dispelled until there is a change of wind, which old seamen say will not occur until there is a change of the moon, which occurs on the 28th. It is not improbable that this heavy and foggy weather has extended some miles off shore, and even if the expectant Russians are near us, they would never approach very close in to the coast without taking an altitude of the sun in order to ascertain their position, which, of course, they could not do in such a dense fog. Again, an opinion advanced by a Rear-Admiral of the navy, yesterday, in regard to the non-arrival of the Russian fleet, seems to be a very plausible one. He says he thinks that the fact is explained in the recent experience of the United States steam frigate Franklin, the flagship on the European station. This vessel it is known has put into Halifax for coal, and reports head winds and gales all the way across. The Russian fleet may have possibly encountered the same winds, and have been consequently delayed by them. Besides, that old sailor, Vice-Admiral Possiett, under whose guardianship the son of the Czar comes to America, may have a facetious desire to give the young Imperial sailor a good taste of salt water before His Imperial Highness is permitted to enjoy the round of dissipation that awaits him in New-York and the larger cities of America. It seems that the longer the visit of the Grand Duke is delayed, the greater the curiosity becomes to discover what kind of fellow the son of the mightiest potentate in Europe is, and how he looks, though there are now numberless portraits of him purporting to be likenesses, which have been scattered broadcast throughout the land by the illustrated journals. The Executive Committee for the reception of Prince Alexis seem to be trying to make their already admirable plans if possible more perfect, and many novelties have been devised during the past few days which would not have been produced had Alexis arrived here when first expected.

Mr. Frank Thomas, Superintendent of the Eastern Division of the Ohio and Erie Railroad, has been appointed manager of railroad service for the Grand Duke Alexis during his visit across the continent. The Navy Department at Washington have ordered Admiral Smith, of the Brooklyn Navy-yard, to furnish the Reception Committee all the bunting that could be spared. Yesterday several of the large hotels came forward and offered to pay for the music furnished for the procession, and it is to be hoped that others will follow the example, as the great hostelries of New-York will be vastly benefited by the multitudes that will flock to the City to witness one of the most magnificent pageants ever seen on Broadway. Late yesterday afternoon the following order was issued:

> OFFICE OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE FOR THE RECEPTION H. I. H. GRAND DUKE ALEXIS, No. 245 BROADWAY, NEW-YORK, Oct. 26, 1871.
> It is hereby announced for the information of the public generally, that should the Russian fleet arrive in the harbor on Saturday, the reception in the Upper Bay and the military parade will take place on the following Monday. In such event, members of the Reception Committee and invited guests will assemble on board the Mary Powell at the hour and place named in previous orders.
> By order of Executive Committee.
> JAMES E. MONTGOMERY, Secretary.

The military are expected to assemble on Broadway at 1½ o'clock, as the Grand Duke and party will arrive at the landing by 2 o'clock. Admiral Rowan has been requested to bring the Russian fleet to the Upper Bay, when they are to be met by the Mary Powell as near noon as possible. The City Hall will be appropriately draped with flags and bunting, conspicuous among which will be seen the Russian blue-cross banner flying from one of the flag-staffs. The Clarendon House alone will display the Imperial flag of Russia. The grand stand in Union-square is being rapidly finished, and is in the hands of accomplished decorators. When the Grand Duke arrives at his quarters he will alight and proceed to the balcony of the Clarendon, where all the troops will pass in review, giving him a marching salute. One unfortunate affair has already occurred in connection with the visit of Alexis, which happily has happened before his arrival. It is in relation to an article which appeared in the Tribune some days ago, wherein it was stated that the Poles resident of this City were entering into a conspiracy to assassinate the young Russian Prince. There seems to be throughout the City among the entire Polish population, young and old, the utmost indignation in consequence of the despicable intentions attributed to them, which they assert positively are without the slightest shadow of foundation. However much they may despise the rule of the Czar, they say that they would be the last to violate the hospitality extended His Majesty's son by the land of their adoption by committing such an act of atrocity.

A Strange Story of Robbery.

Yesterday morning, a man calling himself John Livingston Vernon, appeared at Police Head-quarters and told Capt. Irving, of the Central Detectives, a story of his being a victim of misplaced confidence. According to his statement, he was working a mine in Summit County, Colorado, in company with John W. Russell and Alexander Dickinson. Some time ago he left the mine with them, the party having $18,000 in gold dust, of which $12,000 belonged to Vernon, and being destined for New-York, where the gold was to be sold. On the 19th inst. they arrived at Baltimore, where Russell and Dickinson persuaded Vernon to come on to New-York, and await their arrival on the next day at the Astor House. He accepted the proposition, and, leaving them in Baltimore with all the treasure, came to this City, where he has waited six days in vain for them to appear. He claims to be now entirely destitute, and to have never received but $100 out of the savings of two years' labor in the mine. He offers $3,000 reward for the recovery of his money, and the Police are displaying great activity in the case.

Boy Shot by a United States Marshal in Brooklyn.

Shortly after 5 o'clock yesterday morning United States Marshal Biggart attempted to arrest James R. Benzie, a notorious illicit whisky dealer, in an eating saloon near the Fulton Ferry-house, Brooklyn. A friend of Benzie's named Donohue interfered, and by his action permitted Benzie to escape to the street; he was followed by the Marshal, who, seeing him about to turn the corner of Prospect-street, drew his revolver and fired. The shot missed Benzie, but lodged in the leg of a newsboy named John Ruthington, who happened to be standing in the vicinity. Fortunately the wound was not of a serious nature. After the firing of the shot the Police appeared upon the scene, and, having captured Benzie, took him, accompanied by Donohue and Biggart, into the presence of Justice Walsh, who, after considering the case, fined Donohue $25, discharged the Marshal, and sent Benzie under guard to the United States Court, where he was committed for examination.

Narrow Escape of a Hell Gate Pilot from Drowning.

As the pilot Giles Fowler was about speaking the schooner Bay State, opposite City Island, on the morning of the 24th inst., to inquire, as usual, if his services were required to pilot the vessel through the Gate, there was a heavy sea running, and a violent gale from the north-east. This, combined with the waves created by the passing craft, overturned the pilot-boat and precipitated the man into the water. For some cause as yet unexplained, the parties on board the Bay State did not make the slightest effort to rescue the man, though perfectly cognizant of his perilous situation. The following statement by pilot J. Weaver shows how cool and heartless was the conduct of the Captain of the Bay State: "Was on duty on the night of Oct. 24; it was blowing heavily from the north-east, with a violent sea. Spoke the schooner Bay State about a mile west of City Island. Some one on board sung out: 'Pilot-boat upset and man in the water about a mile astern.' I did not wait to hear further, but rowed as speedily as possible for the bearing indicated, and luckily found the object of my search, and succeeded in getting him on board of my boat in an exhausted condition. He could not have survived much longer, as it was impossible to cling to his boat, which was bottom upward, and shifting with every roll of the sea. It was wonderful that the man was able to keep afloat as long as he had, taking into consideration the violent state of the weather."

THE PARSEE LUNATIC.

The Disposition to be Made of his Person and Property.

In addition to the brief but comprehensive opinion by Chief-Justice Daly, already published in the Times, deciding that he had authority to send back Bomanje Byranje Colah, the Parsee lunatic, to his native city Bombay, the Judge has now rendered a very elaborate opinion, quoting largely from all the authorities on which he bases his judgment in the case. The facts given in this opinion have already fully appeared in the columns of the Times, while the law quoted being largely elementary, can be of little interest even to lawyers. The substance of the decision is that the Court has authority, in the interest of the lunatic, to order his transfer, and directs that, in company with Mayor Constable, formerly a resident of Bombay, and a nurse from the Flushing Asylum, the lunatic be taken to his home by way of San Francisco by steamer; that he be there placed in an asylum, and if the family fail to apply within a reasonable time for the appointment of a committee, then Mayor Constable is to apply himself for such appointment, bringing back with him a duly certified copy of the same; that if the lunatic dies on the passage, Mayor Constable and the nurse shall immediately return and report to the Court; that if the five physicians who recommended the transfer of the lunatic, shall recommend the attendance of a physician on the voyage, in addition to the ship's physician, the Court shall order that a physician shall so accompany him. The property of the lunatic, for the present, is to remain in the custody of Nathaniel Jarvis, Jr., the Committee of the lunatic's estate, who has invested it in bond and mortgage securities at an interest of seven per cent. per annum. All expenses of the transfer of the lunatic to his home, and the fees of counsel who appeared in the case, are to be paid out of the estate, under order of the Court.

The final order, in conformity with this opinion, is to be entered on one day's notice, and the lunatic and his attendants will go by the first steamer which sails from this port after the settlement of the order. The father-in-law of the lunatic, on whose application his transfer is now ordered, will accompany him also.

THE CITY INJUNCTION.

Motion for Settlement of Judge Barnard's Order Modifying the Injunction so as to Permit Work on the Croton Reservoirs, &c.

Mr. Bartlett, Jr., appeared before Judge Barnard, sitting in Supreme Court, Chambers, yesterday, and moved for a settlement of the order, to be entered in conformity with Judge Barnard's decision, recently published in the Times, favoring a modification of the original injunction so as to permit permanent work in the Croton Department to be carried on. Mr. Bartlett said he had drawn the order to be submitted in exact conformity with the language used in the opinion, that is: "This injunction shall not interfere with the making of permanent improvements on the receiving or distributing reservoirs, or the laying of mains."

Mr. Lawrence interposed an objection to the language of the order submitted by Mr. Bartlett. In the decision of the Court, the language had been used "receiving and distributing reservoir," both of which are situated on Manhattan Island, whereas the reservoir referred to in Mr. Tracy's affidavit is situated in Putnam County, and in relation to this alone is relief asked for. He desired, therefore, that the parties seeking relief should be pinned down to the exact relief asked for. If the order should be entered in its present form, it might be discovered that some permanent improvements had become necessary on the reservoirs on the island.

Judge Barnard said he referred only, and intended to decide only, in reference to the reservoir in Putnam County, he understanding that those on this island had been already completed. When he drew the order he did not have the affidavit before him on which the modification was moved for, and inserted the words "receiving and distributing," supposing them to be the same used in the affidavit.

Mr. Lawrence suggested that by striking out the words "receiving and distributing," and inserting the words "in Putnam County," the order would be made to conform to what his Honor evidently intended to decide, and now announces as his decision.

After some further unimportant discussion Judge Barnard took the proposed orders on both sides and said he would settle the order.

THE ENGLISHMEN'S ERIE BONDS.

Motion to Fix the Amount of the Receiver's Fees.

In the litigation between the English bondholders, Heath and Raphael, and the Erie Railroad, the facts of which have already been fully published in the Times, a motion was made yesterday, before Judge Barnard, in Supreme Court-Chambers, to fix the amount of fees due to James H. Coleman, the receiver. The motion was opposed by Mr. Soutamayd on the ground that the suit having been removed into the United States Court, the State Court had no jurisdiction to make any order in the matter.

Judge Barnard said he did not propose to make any binding order in the matter; that all he proposed was to certify in a judical way what, in his judgment, was a reasonable amount of fees for the receiver, who was the officer of the State Court. That certificate might be presented to the Judge of the United States Court, to be considered by him in making a formal order in the matter of payment of the receiver's fees, and to this extent only did he intend to go.

At the request of Mr. Beach, who appeared for the Erie Railroad Company, it was finally decided to let the matter stand over until 10½ A. M. today.

Aid for the West—Further Subscriptions.

Subscriptions in aid of the sufferers by the fires in Chicago and Michigan and Wisconsin continue to be received, and a proper disposition is made of them through the various Committees. Yesterday Messrs. Steinway & Sons gave $1,526 to the Chicago Relief Fund—$1,000 for themselves and $526 on behalf of such of their employes as had not previously contributed through their trade societies and lodges.

The following additional subscriptions have been received:

The French Musical Union, organized three months, is making arrangements for an extensive musical entertainment—a Soirée Concertante—the proceeds of which will be given in aid of the sufferers from the late fires.

The sum of $881 50, raised by the Employes' Association of the grocery and brokerage trades, has been forwarded to the Chairman of the Relief Committee, Chicago.

Special reference will be made in the Reformed Church at Mount Vernon, on Sunday, to the late conflagration at Holland, Mich., and a collection will be taken up in behalf of the sufferers. The ladies of the Church are now engaged in making up articles of clothing to be sent out for the needy of the place.

A New Educational Institution.

About two years ago a few of our generous citizens associated themselves together for the purpose of supplying a deficiency long felt in our common school educational system, by beginning the establishment of a Museum of Natural History, where, without leaving our City, the pupils of our public schools could study at their leisure the wonderful works of the Creator in all parts of the earth. Already great progress has been made toward the founding of such an institution, and on such scale as to command not only the attention and interest of our City, but of our whole country. No other City in America is so favorably situated for the diffusion of such useful knowledge as New-York, and in order to allow both the teachers and pupils of our common schools and students from all parts of our land the opportunity of examining the beautiful specimens already secured, without disturbance, a letter has been written to the Department by the trustees and indorsed by a remarkably large number of our leading citizens. The Department of Parks has, we learn, agreed to the request of the trustees, who are the owners of all the specimens.

NOTES FROM THE PEOPLE.

Servants' Recommendations.

To the Editor of the New-York Times:

When you are through the Tammany reform, I wish you would commence lecturing the employers upon the deplorable habit they have of recommending servants, or not telling their very prominent faults. Charity ceases to be a virtue in recommending a bad servant. I am a sufferer now by these very charitable people who do not want to ruin the future of the servant by giving him a bad character.

I have a drunken waiter, recommended by one of the first bankers in town. Also a drunken cook recommended by one of the first dry-goods men in town. I think it a good subject to lecture the people on. Yours,

H. L. WATSON.

Ill-Behaved Audiences.

To the Editor of the New-York Times:

Even as the English tourist, annoyed by the persistent efforts of the Arabs to obtain backsheesh, writes from under the nose of the Sphynx to the London Times to have the abuse corrected, as being decidedly un-English, so it seems to be the correct thing for dissatisfied Americans to grumble through the columns of our Times at what displeases them. Several letters have recently been published, criticising the singing of Mrs. Moulton, and what took place at her concerts. One, from "An Old Fogy," gave a hearty rap in the right direction. I attended one of those concerts, and, unfortunately, being an American, and having never traveled abroad, also being utterly ignorant as to what this or that "school" of singing may be, thoroughly enjoyed myself. Now to the point. At this concert in question Mrs. Moulton, having finished her last song, and retired, amid great applause, the audience began to leave the hall, notwithstanding the fact that Miss Palmer and Leoni were then entering the stage to sing the last piece—a duet from "Il Trovatore." In this way did several hundred ill-bred persons prevent the ladies and gentlemen present enjoying the piece. Of all that immense concourse, only about one-third were sufficiently well-bred to sit still during the singing. Now, this lady and gentleman would have been justified had they declined to sing to an audience which had turned its back upon them. As an old-fashioned American, my ears burned somewhat at this spectacle. Cannot these ill-mannered persons, who always attend our concert-halls and theatres in large numbers, be hissed, or otherwise dealt with, until they either stay at home or learn what good breeding is?

ANOTHER OLD FOGY.

NEW-YORK, Wednesday, Oct. 25, 1871.

Mr. Beecher's Sympathy.

To the Editor of the New-York Times:

After reading Mr. Beecher's reply to the Times on the "sympathy" question, quoted from the Christian Union in this morning's issue, I am at loss to know what motive Mr. Beecher could originally have had for giving expression to his sympathy; for certainly this explanation seems to deprive his views concerning the "erring and wicked" Tweed, Hall & Co. of anything distinctive from the regard in which those miscreants are commonly held by honest men.

Must he not at first have aimed at some practical effect upon public opinion concerning them? For what else does such a man write or preach? Then what false tendency in public opinion setting toward the punishment of these traitors to their trusts did he observe and seek to correct by sending out his counter-current?

It seems to me that as yet we have too little evidence that these high-handed robbers are "suffering on account of their own wrong-doings" to make an expression of sympathy seasonable, to say the least.

If I understood Mr. Beecher in his last Sunday morning's sermon, however, it is not in the full Christian spirit to wait for the sinner's repentance before, in our love for him as a man, we take him up in arms of "sympathetic benevolence" and surround him with exhibitions of affectionate pity. "While I execrate the sin, I would love the sinner," he said. To such a minister of the Gospel, with whom it is so easy a matter to separate the sinner and his sins into two entities, we do not wonder that the Gospel furnishes—as he often tells us it does to him—many and sore perplexities. For what becomes of the doctrine of eternal punishment if Mr. Beecher accords to God power to separate in His regard the sinner from his sin; and benevolence toward the sinner equal to Mr. Beecher's own? Must there not come a time, if eternal punishment is possible, when God either does not regard the sinner and his sin so differently, or His love toward the sinner has absolutely no effect whatever to mitigate perfect and eternal misery?

Well may a clergyman be made "heartsick," (as Mr. Beecher sorrowfully tells us he is made when he preaches everlasting punishment for the unrepentant,) who aspires to greater power and benevolence in himself than he conceives to reside in the God whom he teaches us to worship.

THE AMERICAN MISSIONS.

Closing Meeting of the Missionary Association at Hartford—The Indian Policy of the Government Sustained.

Hartford, Conn., Oct. 26.—At the closing meeting of the American Missionary Association, this morning, the Committee to whom was referred the report on the Indians reported in favor of co-operating with the Government, heartily indorsing the policy of President Grant, and recommending to the Association and the friends of humanity everywhere a hearty support of that policy.

Ex-Gov. Hawley then made an earnest address, showing, first, the bitter hostility which the Missionary Association encountered in its early days when abolitionism was unpopular. He alluded to the fact that his own father was brick-batted in a Connecticut town, and to show the great change in public sentiment, he said that he himself had secured a Republican majority in that very town. He argued that the Indians were capable of Christianization and civilization, and quoted the officers of the Hudson's Bay Company and others, saying that the Indian will treat the whites well if they will treat him humanely. The speaker did not believe that it was necessary for the Saxon and Protestants to kill the Indians on sight, when Latins and Catholics even get on without it.

Secretary Delano, of the Interior Department, then made a long and eloquent address. After showing that the Government had always been liberal in its donations to the Indians, who were swindled by agents so that they had become bitterly hostile to the Government, he proceeded to explain the new policy which was adopted by Gen. Grant, who sounded the key-note in his inauguration message when he said, "I'm in favor of any policy in behalf of the Indians that intends to civilize, and make them citizens." The policy he believed in was to aggregate the Indians on a single Territory. He believed that the time would come when they would be accepted as citizens, and would participate in our elections. He thought they were better subjects for Christianizing than some of the politicians of New-York. Altogether the Indian population does not exceed 350,000. In the work before it, the Government is now for the first time acting the part of a missionary.

City Missions.

The New-York City Mission held its monthly meeting, on Wednesday evening, in the West Presbyterian Church, Forty-second-street, Rev. Dr. Hastings. A number of the missionaries, with the Superintendent of Missions and the pastor of the church, made interesting addresses. From the Secretary's monthly statement we take the following figures: There are 38 City missionaries, who, last month, made 8,449 missionary visits; there are 8 mission chapels, in which were held 448 meetings; 4 mission Sabbath-schools and 1,260 children; 8 temperance societies and over 4,000 members; 4 mission churches and 450 communicants; 250 families aided, and 100,000 tracts and papers distributed. The Treasurer reported for the month as follows:

|---|---|
| Receipts | $4,254 77 |
| Disbursements, including deficit | 9,894 38 |
| Deficit | 5,639 61 |

REAL ESTATE TRANSACTIONS.

The attendance at the Exchange yesterday, Oct. 26, was very large, and the proceedings were of special interest, particularly the sale conducted by ADRIAN H. MULLER, P. R. WILKINS & Co. who, by order of the executors of LUCIUS CHITTENDEN, deceased, disposed of an extensive line of City property, located on Washington Heights, and on Broadway adjoining. In all thirty-five plots of land, containing from ten to twenty-five City lots each, were sold, together with Broadway lots to the number of thirty-five each, in size 25 by about 120. All the property offered was sold to bona-fide bidders, and at really good prices. The result, as a whole, may be termed a great success, and one which, in the existing dullness of the market, cannot fail to exert a healthy influence upon real estate generally. Full details of the sale will be found below, with the figures in each instance realized, and purchasers' names noted.

In addition to the above A. J. BLEECKER, SON & Co., at public auction, offered for sale sixteen lots, located at New-Brighton, Staten Island, eight each fronting respectively on Stuyvesant-place and Jay-street. Two of these were sold for $700 each to JOHN C. BAILEY, and the remainder withdrawn. WINANS, SANDS & GARRETTSON also offered for sale the property known as "Hillside," at Jamaica, Long Island, formerly occupied by C. G. GUNTHER, embracing a country residence, with about ten acres of land. No adequate bids, however, being received, no sale was effected.

Owing to the inclemency of the weather, the suburban auctions advertised to occur were all adjourned, as follows: Sale at Norwood, N. J., A. D. MELLICK, JR., & BRO., auctioneers; adjourned until Monday next. Sale at Scotch Plains, N. J., JOHNSON & MILLER, auctioneers, adjourned until Tuesday of next week; and sale at Alturas, Rockland County, N. Y., S. E. OGDEN, auctioneer, postponed to a day which will be duly announced.

Today, at the Exchange, several legal sales of City property, of some importance, will take place, conducted respectively by JAMES M. MILLER and JOSEPH MCGUIRE, as auctioneers. The following is a summary of the business conducted at the Exchange yesterday.

Order of Judge Barnard as to Future Arrests.

In relation to the granting of future orders of arrest, Judge BARNARD has made the following order: First—That hereafter no order of arrest in a civil action will be granted by Judge BARNARD against defendants for obtaining money, goods or other property by or through alleged false pretenses, unless the same shall have been made in writing, and subscribed by the person or persons sought to be proceeded against. Second—That hereafter no order of arrest will be granted against any person for a libel, assault and battery, slander or false imprisonment, other than upon or against the person or character of a female. Third—No order of arrest will be granted in any action unless the party or parties are non-residents, or about removing from the jurisdiction of the Court, nor where the sum sought to be recovered is less than $1,000.

Manslaughter Trial in Newark.

FREDERICK EIGANMAN, a German driver, was placed upon trial, in the Essex County Court of Oyer and Terminer, yesterday, for manslaughter. On the 17th of May last, according to the assertions of the prosecuting attorney, the defendant had, by carelessness in driving his wagon, run over and killed a little girl named CALVERT, in Howard-street, Newark. The offense for which he had been indicted was, the prosecutor said, one of omission in not exercising due caution. He cited the case of O'BRIEN and THOMPSON, switch-tenders on railroads in New-Jersey, convicted of manslaughter, as justification for the Grand Jury's indictment. Case still on.

The Dock Commissioners—Report of the Auditing Committee.

The Commissioners of Docks met yesterday, Mr. JOHN T. AGNEW presiding. The Executive Committee reported in favor of strengthening the end of Pier No. 22, East River, as requested by the Union Ferry Company, the expense to be paid by the said Company. Also, in favor of requiring the Knickerbocker Ice Company to repair the easterly side of the pier at the foot of Second-street, East River, and in favor of repairing Piers Nos. 4, 5, 6 and 7, East River, and the expense to be charged to the lessees. Approved.

Commissioner WOOD submitted the report of the Auditing Committee, by which it appeared that the Commissioners owed $133,374 36. He said the parties to whom the money was due could not be paid, as the Department had not funds at present.

UNITED STATES SUPREME COURT.

No. 169.—Evans vs. City of Richmond.—Error to the Circuit Court for the District of Virginia.—This is an action brought against the Corporation of Richmond to recover certain notes of a denomination less than $5, issued by its authority during the year 1861. The determination of the cause depends upon the question whether the City Council under the charter of the Corporation had power to issue the notes. The defense is, that the notes are void, because they were issued in violation of the provisions of the city charter, which nowhere grants such powers, because it is in violation of the general laws of the State against issuing any "note or other account" by any person, "with intent to create a circulating medium;" because in violation of the laws of the United States, in that they were issued in aid of the rebellion; because in violation of the Constitution of the State, which provides that no appropriation shall ever be made for the payment of any debt or obligation created in the name of the State of Virginia by the usurped and pretended State authorities assembled at Richmond during the war, and that no county, city or corporation shall levy or collect any tax for the payment of any debt created for the purpose of aiding any rebellion against the State, or against the United States. In respect to subsequent action by the State Legislature which was intended to render the notes valid, it is contended that no Legislature can, by a subsequent statute, render a contract made by a corporation valid, which at the time it was entered into the corporation had no power to make. It is also insisted that the Legislature which passed the act was not the rightful Legislature of the State, and, therefore, had no authority to pass the act relied on to sustain the validity of the notes. The Court below sustained the points made by the defense and the judgment was for the city.

It is here contended that the city being a corporation by its charter, which may contract or be contracted with, and generally, having "all rights and franchises, capacities and powers appertaining to municipal corporations, it is liable on the notes for which it has actually received value. Even if it could avail in defense to show to what purpose the money received was used, yet the purpose or object does not appear as a fact found; but the demand is not affected by the use which the corporation made of the money received on the notes, nor was it known to the plaintiffs (claimants) what use would be made of the money when it was advanced. The ordinances of the city did not reveal the fact, even if they had been looked to.

John A. Meredith for claimants; Conway Robinson for the city.

No. 170.—Avery vs. United States.—Error to the Circuit Court for the Western District of Tennessee.—This is a writ of error from a refusal of the Court below to enter a satisfaction of a judgment recovered by the United States against Avery as surety, on a Postmaster's official bond, and to grant a writ of audita querela prayed for on the ground that the United States by their officers, received for rents of lands, &c., (seized under the Captured and Abandoned Property act) belonging to him. $7,000, which Avery was entitled to have from the Government, as so much money by it due and received for his use, and that by the retention of the money the judgment against him as surety was in fact paid and satisfied. It is here claimed that the unconditional pardon and amnesty proclaimed by the Government, gave Avery the right to the money realized for the rent of this property. As soon as he was thus pardoned the moneys became his; by the pardon, the United States alone having claim to them, they were restored to him. The United States refusing nevertheless to pay them over to him, and placing the moneys in the Treasury, satisfaction of the judgment was effected by operation of law. It was paid. The Government sustains the rulings of the Court below, and submits that if a judgment recovered by the Government is satisfied, and the Court improperly refuses to enter satisfaction, the proper remedy would seem to be by writ of mandamus.

Pike & Johnson for plaintiff in error; B. H. Bricton and C. H. Hill for the Government.

SUPERIOR COURT—TRIAL TERM—PART I.—OCT. 26.

IMPORTANT LEASEHOLD CASE.

Before Chief-Justice Barbour and a Jury.

Johnson vs. Oppenheimer et al.—In this case, which involved the canceling of a lease, covering rent to the amount of nearly $50,000, the facts of which have already appeared in the TIMES, the Court dismissed the complaint on plaintiff's own testimony. The amount of the judgment was for a quarter's rent, $3,985 10.

Evarts, Southmayd & Choate, for plaintiff; Levi Cohen and John Graham, for defendants.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT—IN ADMIRALTY.

Before Judge Blatchford.

Dunham vs. 1,265 Vitrified Pipes.—This case, reported in the TIMES of yesterday, was concluded before Judge BLATCHFORD, when counsel submitted written briefs of their points. Decision reserved.

THURSDAY, Oct. 26—P. M.

There was ⅛@¼ ₱ cent. advance in both Gold and Exchange today. The sales of Gold in the forenoon, before the bids to the Treasury were opened, were at 111⅞@112 ₱ cent., and after the award of $2,000,000 by the Treasury, out of a gross bidding of $5,040,000, the price in the Gold Room continued 111⅞@112 ₱ cent. There was a good inquiry for Exchange, on a market not so well supplied with transient or other cheap bills as earlier in the week. The leading houses put up their drawing rates to 108⅞@108¼ ₱ cent. for 60 days, London; the market closing firm in rates, but not very active in demand.

There was marked ease in Money after 1 o'clock, at 7 ₱ cent. on loans to the Brokers, returnable on demand, and on some considerable balances, near the close of Bank hours, 6 ₱ cent. was accepted. Prime Merchant paper, when not taken at Bank at 7 ₱ cent., is discounted on the Street at 9@12 ₱ cent. per annum. Early in the day one or two Brokers essayed to advance the price of Money, by bidding a small commission over 7 ₱ cent. for its use until to-morrow, but, as on yesterday, the experiment worked indifferently, both on the Street and on the Stock Exchange.

The Stock Exchange exhibited rather a halting market at the outset of the day's dealings, but in the main a pretty free business was done at both Boards and in the Hall of the Exchange late in the Afternoon, and at improving prices. The Public Funds were all firm, the Southern State Bonds advanced on Tennessees and South Carolinas, and the Railway Mortgages were in demand and a considerable business done at the Boards in the Pacifics and the old Western Mortgages. Western Telegraph and Pacific Mail were active, and the New-York and Western Roads, after some hesitation in the morning, took a fresh start and were generally firm, and, in some instances buoyant at the close of the day; the latest quotations being as follows, as compared with Wednesday night. About 4 o'clock Gold sold up to 112⅛, but returned to 112 ₱ cent. The 5-20s of 1867 quoted strong at 113⅜@113½ ₱ cent. Bills on London, 108⅞ ₱ cent.

The circumstance referred to by a correspondent yesterday in regard to the credit balance of over $2,000,000 at the Clearing-house in favor of the Bank of New-York is said to have been accidental, and had no concern whatever with the accounts of the Stock Brokers alluded to. This morning the Bank was debtor nearly $1,000,000 at the Clearing-house.

Mr. M. P. HODGES, formerly President of the Excelsior Fire Insurance Company, has been made President of the Hoffman Company in place of Mr. DIXON, resigned, and it has been resolved to increase the capital to $250,000.

The Coupons of the Second Mortgage Bonds and of the Second Mortgage Convertible Seven ₱ Cent. Bonds of the New-York and Oswego Midland Railway, due Nov. 1, will be paid by Messrs. GEORGE OPDYKE & Co., on and after that date, on presentation.

BANKING AND FINANCIAL.

☞THE PEORIA AND ROCK ISLAND 7 PER CENT. FIRST MORTGAGE CONVERTIBLE GOLD BONDS may now be obtained from the undersigned, and from banks and bankers throughout the country, at NINETY AND ACCRUED INTEREST.
They are secured by a mortgage on ninety-one miles of completed road connecting the cities of Peoria and Rock Island, and having a navigable river at each end. The road forms a part of a short through route from the Atlantic to the Pacific Roads, and its net earnings are largely in excess of the interest on the total issue of bonds, which is about $16,500 per mile. The business offered is sufficient to pay a large dividend on the capital stock, making the bonds absolutely safe, and a very desirable investment.
Maps and pamphlets furnished, containing full particulars, by
TURNER BROTHERS, No. 14 Nassau-st.

BANKING AND FINANCIAL.

☞FIRST MORTGAGE SINKING FUND LAND-GRANT BONDS
OF THE
ST. JOSEPH AND DENVER CITY RAILROAD COMPANY,
IN DENOMINATIONS OF $1,000, $500, AND $100, can now be had from the undersigned or through the principal banks and bankers of the United States. The attention of investors is invited to the merits of these bonds, secured by a first and only mortgage on the road, equipments, franchises, and property of a trunk line of railroad which will shorten the distance between New-York and San Francisco some 230 miles, and in addition the mortgage to secure the bonds covers a land-grant of 1,500,000 acres of the most fertile land in the West, which is prohibited from being sold at less than four ($4) dollars per acre by the terms of the mortgage deed, and according to the present market price of the Illinois Central Company's lands is worth $18,750,000. This loan was originally for $5,500,000, but has been largely reduced by subscriptions of actual investors. The remaining balance of the loan is offered at 97½ and accrued interest, but the right is reserved to advance the price at any time, without notice.
The bonds have thirty years to run; bear 8 per cent. interest, payable in New-York, London or Frankfort-on-the-Main, at the option of the holder, without notice, free of taxes. BOTH PRINCIPAL AND INTEREST ARE PAYABLE IN GOLD. They are Coupon Bonds, but can be registered with the coupons ON, or can be registered with the coupons OFF, and interest paid to registered owner. Interest payable Aug. 15 and Feb. 15. A liberal sinking fund, formed from the entire land sales, in payment for which the bonds will be received at par and accrued interest, provides for the early extinguishment of this loan.
Trustees—Farmers' Loan and Trust Company.
These bonds offer favorable inducements to parties desiring to fund their Five-Twenties or other high-priced securities.
In converting Five-Twenties the investors realize 17 per cent. profit on the principal; 2 per cent. per annum excess of interest; and at the same time get a perfect security.
Maps, circulars, documents, and full information furnished on application.
Though acting as agents for the sale of this loan, our firm buy and sell in their regular business the bonds of the St. Joseph and Denver City Railroad Company, those of the Eastern Division being now quoted at 102 and accrued interest. These were originally placed by us at 97½.

☞CHESAPEAKE AND OHIOS — FIVE-TWENTIES—CENTRAL PACIFICS.
BANKING OFFICE OF FISK & HATCH,
No. 5 NASSAU-ST. NEW-YORK, Oct. 23, 1871.
The SIX PER CENT. GOLD BONDS OF THE CHESAPEAKE AND OHIO RAILROAD COMPANY are rapidly being taken up. Only a limited amount of the smaller denominations is left. These bonds offer unsurpassed safety and a liberal income, and are especially suitable for investments.
The great line of railroad upon which they are based is already completed and in operation from Richmond to the White Sulphur Springs—227 miles, and the portion between the Ohio River and the coal deposits of the Kanawha Valley, (nearly 100 miles,) is nearly ready for traffic. The intermediate section of about 100 miles is also well advanced, and will be completed and in operation within one year, so as to form a continuous trunk line from the navigable waters of the Atlantic to the Ohio River.
When the Railroad is completed, in 1872, and the Bonds are dealt in at the Stock Exchanges of the world, we have no doubt they will be equally popular with the Central Pacifics, which now command a premium, and are a favorite security here and in Europe, both roads being prominent lines, and under substantially the same fiscal management. Principal and interest of the CENTRAL PACIFIC and CHESAPEAKE AND OHIO BONDS are specifically payable in gold coin in New-York; the interest on the former being paid January and July, and of the latter, May and November, correspondin g with the two classes of Five-twenties.
We recommend either of them to our friends and customers with the same confidence that we did the Five twenty Bonds, when we were selling millions of them for the United States Government.
We buy and sell FIVE-TWENTIES, TEN-FORTIES, EIGHTY-ONES, and CENTRAL OR WESTERN PACIFICS, or receive them in payment for CHESAPEAKE AND OHIO BONDS at their current market price. Orders for Chesapeake and Ohio Bonds, accompanied with Drafts or Checks, may be forwarded to us by mail, and the bonds will be sent by express, charges paid.
Bonds are in coupon or registered form, same as FIVE-TWENTIES; run thirty years; principal and interest in United States gold coin. Price, 93 and accrued interest, that is, with coupon attached, due Nov. 1.
$1,000 Chesapeake and Ohio Bond costs today $958 77.
$500 Chesapeake and Ohio Bond costs today $479 38.
$100 Chesapeake and Ohio Bond costs today $95 88.

P. S.—Accounts of Banks, Bankers and others received, on which we allow four per cent. interest.
Certificates of deposit issued and collection made in all parts of the Union.

☞WINSLOW, LANIER & CO.,
No. 27 PINE-STREET.
Offer for sale, at 90 per cent. and accrued interest in currency, and recommend as an investment of the most undoubted character, the 7 Per Cent. Bonds of the GRAND RAPIDS AND INDIANA RAILROAD COMPANY. They have 30 years to run, principal and interest payable in gold, coupon or registered, interest October and April. They are secured by a first mortgage on 220 miles of finished road and 100 miles more in progress, and on a Land Grant of one million one hundred and sixty thousand acres of lumber land in Northern Michigan. The road extends from Fort Wayne, where it connects with the extensive system of roads centering at that point, northerly, and having been finished through the rich agricultural region of Southern and Central Michigan, has now penetrated the Land Grant. The lands have been recently put upon the market, and are being rapidly sold. By the terms of the mortgage the proceeds of the land must be invested by the Trustees in the purchase of the Bonds, which insures their constant repurchase from the holders. This Land Grant is estimated to be worth $12,000,000, and is probably more available for immediate sale than any other Land Grant ever made to any company. The whole issue is Eight Million Dollars, of which more than six millions have been disposed of. This road is run as a connection of the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad, and the Pennsylvania Railroad, and has the powerful support of those companies and their numerous affiliated lines. These Bonds have been sold in large lines to the most prudent investors.

ASHES—Continue in moderate request at $7 75@$8 25 for Pots, and $9 25@$9 75 for Pearls, ₱ 100 lbs.

BOOTS AND SHOES—There has been a slow movement in most kinds of stock, since our last, within our previous range.

COFFEE—Holders of Rio have been very firm in their views, and have been offering stock sparingly, notwithstanding the telegrams from Rio reporting increased purchases for the United States, which buyers regarded as promising enlarged supplies, and, consequently, the bids today were somewhat less confident. No important sales from first hands were reported, and the sales from second hands were of job lots within our range. The stock of Rio and Santos in first hands this morning was only 20,221 bags here, and 16,937 bags at the outports, with 93,100 bags reported afloat and loading for the United States. In other kinds business has been very tame within our range. The week's movements in other than Rio, Messrs. C. Amann & Co. sum up thus: 12,476 mats Java, ex Alexander, sold on private terms; 4,058 bags Maracaibo, ex Allemania and Recruit, sold on private terms; 400 bags San Domingo, and 232 bags Costa Rica, sold in lots within our range; [illegible] bags Maracaibo, ex Victoria Perez and Joe Kelly, 3,000 bags Laguayra, ex Thomas Dallet, and [illegible] bags Costa Rica, ex Arnold, sold before arrival on private terms. There has been more activity during the week, and prices are somewhat firmer. We notice [illegible] mats Java, ex Jane Sproit, and 10,000 mats Java, ex Enoch Train, sold to arrive on private terms. We quote nominally as follows: Java at 24c.@25½c.; Maracaibo, 18½c.@21c.; [illegible] 15½c.@17½c., in bond; Native Ceylon, [illegible]; Rio, Jamaica, 18c.@19½c.; Singapore, [illegible]; Costa Rica, 18c.@20c.; Manila, [illegible]; Mexican, [illegible]; Savannah, 17½c.@[illegible]; Curacoa, [illegible]; San Domingo, in bond, [illegible], gold. ₱ lb. The stock of other than Rio in first hands comprises 3,689 bags [illegible], 3,228 bags Maracaibo and 13,343 bags Mexican.

COTTON—Has been moderately inquired for, for early delivery, opening rather stronger but closing weak, with sales of 2,250 bales, (of which 63 bales were to arrive,) including 734 bales to shippers, 1,125 bales to spinners, 16 bales to speculators, and 375 bales in transit. For forward delivery, business was again fairly active, opening at an advance of ⅛c. ₱ lb., but closing less buoyantly, with part of the improvement lost. Sales have been reported of 22,200 bales, basis of Low Middling, including last evening, for October, 200 bales at 18 3-16c.; November, 200 bales at 18½c., 500 bales at 18 3-16c., 1,500 bales at 18 1-16c.; November and December, 100 bales at 18⅛c., together; December, 100 bales at 18⅛c., 1,400 bales at 18 5-16c., [illegible]; March, 200 bales at [illegible]; April, 100 bales at 19½c. [illegible] exchange 100 bales November [illegible]. And today, for October, [illegible] ber, 1,000 bales at 18⅛c., [illegible] December, 100 bales at 18⅜c., [illegible] bales at 18 9-16c., 2,700 bales at [illegible] 18 7-16c., 1,700 bales at [illegible] 18⅛c., 900 bales at 18 11-16c., [illegible] at 18¾c.; February, 300 bales [illegible]; March, 200 bales at 19½c., [illegible]; April, 100 bales [illegible]. Free on board at Mobile, 200 bales, on private terms, last evening. The average quotations of yesterday's forward deliveries, as officially reported under the bulletin, were as follows: November, 18.26c.; December, 18½c.; January, 18.60c.; February, 18¾c.; March, 19.20c.; April, 19.50c. The receipts at this port today were 3,246 bales, including 152 bales from Baltimore, 1,360 bales from Charleston, 129 bales from Fernandina, and 304 bales per rail. The receipts at the shipping ports today were 16,412 bales, and thus far this week 78,174 bales, against 66,336 bales same time last week. The receipts at all the shipping ports since Sept. 1 have been 349,783 bales, against 417,440 bales same time in 1870. The following official quotations are based on Cotton running in quality not more than half a grade above or below the grade quoted:

Southern Flour continues in fair demand at former figures, with sales since our last of 1,150 bbls. at $7 35 for ordinary to very good, and at $7 ... for very good to very choice Extra, ₱ bbl. Rye Flour has been in request and steady at $4 50@$5 50 for 250 bbls. Corn-meal has been moderately sought after at $3 50@$4 10 for White and Yellow Western; $3 95 for Jersey, and $4 40@$4 50 for Brandywine, ₱ bbl.; sales, 425 bbls. Buckwheat Flour has been selling at $2 90@$3 40 ₱ 100 lbs.

GRAIN—Wheat has been in quite active request and quoted 2c.@3c. ₱ bushel higher on less liberal offerings. The demand has been mainly for shipment and on speculative account. The sharp decline in ocean steam freights favored the outward movement. Sales have been reported since our last of 291,000 bushels, all told, part to arrive, including Winter Canada, in bond, at $1 69½c.; White Western at $1 70; Red and Amber Western at $1 54@$1 60, chiefly at $1 55@$1 58 for poor to good Red, and at $1 56@$1 63 for Amber do., afloat; No. 1 Spring, $1 54@$1 55; No. 2 Spring, $1 47½@$1 50 in store, prime, chiefly at $1 51 for prime Milwaukee, and $1 50 for Chicago, with $1 52 reported paid for very choice Milwaukee, afloat; $1 42@$1 43 for No. 3 Genesee, $1 58@$1 68; Red and Amber Western, $1 62, chiefly Red at $1 55@$1 59, ₱ bushel.... ### The New-York Times,
DAILY, WEEKLY AND SEMI-WEEKLY.

This journal is now thoroughly identified with the greatest political necessity of the hour—uncompromising warfare against all forms of corruption, whether in national or local government. For years past the TIMES has been exposing the demoralizing schemes of self-interested politicians, and its recent warfare upon the Tammany Democrats has been received with universal approval. It has adhered to the pledge given in its original prospectus, more than twenty years ago, that the public should be truly represented, and their interests faithfully guarded through its columns. Its record has been pure and honorable, and the highest aim of its proprietors is to render it more and more worthy of its past history, and of the confidence which the public repose in it. Two out of three of the original proprietors still direct its policy, and guide it on all public questions. They purpose that the TIMES shall continue to keep clear of all narrow and unworthy influences and cliques, and aim to represent the great body of the public, as distinguished from personal factions. It occupies a perfectly independent position, and is free to speak the truth on all subjects and about all men. Its greatly increased circulation throughout the country adds to its power and influence. It will continue to be a faithful exponent of Republican principles, and advocate with untiring energy every cause which tends to further the welfare of the people.

The utmost care will be devoted to gathering political news from special sources during the Presidential canvass. This department of the paper will be unusually full and trustworthy. Renewed enterprise will be exhibited in every department of the paper, and large space will be devoted to reports of speeches made during elections, or on other important political occasions.

A very full summary of news, and many general articles of great interest, are published in the Semi-weekly editions; and in the Weekly edition there is an unabridged report of the proceedings at the Farmers' Club, an excellent summary of political information, and a great variety of matter suitable for family reading.

The NEW-YORK TIMES is pre-eminently a family paper, all objectionable advertisements being rigidly excluded; and it has a constantly increasing circulation among the most respectable classes of the community.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

A fire-damp explosion occurred yesterday afternoon in the Seaham mines, near Newcastle, England. Thirty-three miners were in the pit, and there is slight hope of their rescue....The bark J. B. Bradley, of Bucksport, Me., was run down by a steamer off the Isle of Wight, and a portion of the crew drowned....The reported conspiracies by Montpensierists in Spain, are denied from Madrid....Ten thousand Communists have been released in France....Prince NAPOLEON is said to have left Corsica....The Hohenwart ministry have tendered their resignations, and the Emperor of Austria will probably accept them....The reorganization of the Russian Army by the creation of a landwehr, or local force, virtually brings every man into the military ranks, making the war-footing of the army 1,600,000 men and 51,000 officers, exclusive of sixty-six regiments of Cossacks, and a reserve of three-quarters of a million in peace....The London Times yesterday made an earnest appeal for aid for the sufferers by the forest fires in Wisconsin and Michigan....The Chairman of the Executive Committee of the Chicago Relief and Aid Society writes that 40,000 persons are now fed and cared for by the Society; that beans, potatoes and onions are needed to keep the people from falling sick, and that straw beds, of the ordinary size for two persons are also needed....The petition of 2,500 women in Utah to the President recently spoken of in despatches from Washington was in favor of polygamy, not against it, and urges the removal of the Federal officials there, who are said to be "intent on the destruction of our honest, happy, industrious and prosperous people," or, at least, the stopping of the "disgraceful Court proceedings"....VICTOR Y. POWELL, a clerk in the Second Auditor's office, was arrested yesterday, accused of being engaged in bounty claim frauds to a large amount. Ex-Congressman STOKES, of Tennessee, was also arrested yesterday in Washington as implicated in the frauds, and waiving examination, gave bail in $15,000 to appear before the Criminal Court.

Is More Proof Needed?

For many months the advocates of the Ring—including the "Hank Smith" fraternity—objected to our attacks on TWEED, HALL & Co., on the ground that they consisted of "vague charges." "All partisan malice," the tools of the Tweed gang went about mumbling to each other. "The warrants published by the TIMES are fictitious. The TIMES only wants to get paid for some advertisements," &c. All that we asked for then was an opportunity of proving our statements. One day the Mayor said, "You shall have this opportunity. A committee of citizens shall be appointed, and they shall inquire into all departments of the Government." Whereupon the Ring journals cried out, "There! Is not that satisfactory? What will the TIMES ask for now?"

We asked for nothing more than the report of this Committee, and, if we are not misinformed, that report will be presented today, and we hope to be authorized to publish it to-morrow. The documents which we laid before the public yesterday will prove a hard nut to crack for those journals which still try to bolster up the falling Ring. But, unless our information is wrong, the report of the Committee, appointed by desire of Mayor HALL, will contain still more astounding revelations. It will describe the financial accounts as exhibiting a series of "unexampled and appalling frauds"—language quite as strong as that for which we have been so bitterly reproached by the New-York Tribune. We believe it will be shown that over $12,000,000 have already been spent on the New Court-house, and that the building is not worth more than $3,000,000. It will be shown that the frauds committed in connection with the armories amount to more than $3,000,000, that over $6,500,000 have been stolen under pretense of supplying the City with carpets, safes, furniture, &c.;—that money has been stolen from the Treasury by all kinds of expedients, including fraudulent bills and open forgeries. It will be shown that the condition of the City and County finances must necessarily destroy all confidence in the present officials, and that it will be hopeless to attempt to borrow the money necessary to carry on the Government while those officials remain in power. All this and much more will be revealed in the report of the Citizens' Committee—nominated, remember, by the Board of Aldermen, at the request of Mayor HALL himself.

Thus evidence accumulates, and every charge we have ever made is more than substantiated—a fact we may well be allowed to mention, considering the torrent of abuse which has been poured out upon us for daring to impugn the honesty of TWEED and his colleagues. We have understated, rather than overstated, our case. And now what will be done? What is the use of piling up this testimony, mountains high? TWEED boasts every night that he will undoubtedly represent the Fourth Senatorial District in the next Legislature—and, indeed, he holds it in his pocket comfortably enough. HALL, who has undoubtedly assisted TWEED, and only last Saturday certified him to be an honest man, is still Mayor of the City, and has two or three newspapers at his beck and call. SWEENY can get the Herald to say anything he likes. And so it goes on. Are the people waiting for more proof still? Or are they resolved to redeem the City on the 7th of next month from the overwhelming reproach which now rests upon it?

Affairs in Spain.

That the crown of Spain was so long going a begging, no sensible man wondered. The wonder was that any sensible man was found willing to put it on his head. There is, indeed, a well-founded story to the effect that Prince AMADEUS persistently declined the honor, and would never have been induced to accept it but for his wife. Not that she desired it either, but the Spanish Minister was told, "Your only chance with the Prince lies in his wife; your only chance with the Princess lies in her confessor." The confessor was successfully tackled, and he persuaded the young Princess that it was her duty to have greatness thrust upon her.

A few weeks ago, news of quite a couleur de rose hue came from the Iberian peninsula. The young King was making a progress, and receiving such ovations as only young Kings do. But this was much too good to last. Madrid was, as a matter of course, meanwhile fermenting, and presently the fermentation culminated at the meeting of the Cortes to select a President of the Assembly. The candidates were SAGASTA, formerly Minister of the Interior under SERRANO, and RIVERO. SAGASTA won by ten, and the Minister, RUIZ ZORILLA, who supported RIVERO, consequently resigned. The result is a tremendous party conflict. SAGASTA's supporters have issued a manifesto, saying, "Choose between SAGASTA, who will consolidate the constitutional monarchy and give you law, order, and prosperity, and RIVERO, who will lead you on to communism, socialism, and every other objectionable 'ism.' Terrible catastrophes will come should the Cortes be dissolved, and RIVERO then succeed." On the other hand, ZORILLA's friends issue a counter manifesto, stating that they are not Communists, &c., but favor the dynasty of Savoy and all that moderate men should wish for.

Madrid is, unfortunately, full of hungry politicians, who frequent chocolate-houses, in which, however, they never consume anything but cheap cigarettes, and talk frothy rubbish from morning till night. Such persons having nothing to lose, are always ready to encourage any cheap and ready means of stirring up a revolution. They are making themselves prodigiously active now, holding meetings and haranguing. Strict orders have been issued that the soldiers are, in conformity with PRIM's ordinance to that effect, to take no part whatever in politics; but in the event of matters becoming very exciting, it is rather questionable whether, in the absence of a leader like PRIM, his ordinance will be strictly obeyed.

When old LEOPOLD found the Belgians getting troublesome, some twenty years ago, he said to them, "Look here. I came here because you invited me. I really care little about remaining. Only give me fair notice, and if you wish I'll pack up and be off." This frank language had the desired effect, and the long-headed, shrewd old monarch died in a green old age at Brussels, leaving seven million dollars behind him! Perhaps KING AMADEUS might take a hint. Spain certainly has little chance of rising in the scale of nations if she changes her form of government every two years. She had an excellent chance of a Republic, and did not choose to profit by it. Were it established to-morrow, what guarantee is there for its permanence and effectiveness, any more than there is for that of the monarchy of today? The country resembles a splendid estate, with a defective title, and half a dozen claimants all at loggerheads over it.

Where is the Rest?

A million dollars out of the three millions and a half of plunder that was deposited in the hands of E. A. WOODWARD, the distributing agent of the "Ring," has been traced directly to the pockets of TWEED. Two millions and a half yet remain to be accounted for. Where did it go to? This is the question everybody is asking; and we venture to say that nine out of ten who ask the question have in their own minds some uniform answer, and that that answer is correct. The other participators of the robbery may have been more cautious than TWEED and more careful to cover up their tracks; but unless we are much mistaken, each one of the thieves will find his portion of the "swag" ultimately traced home to its possessor. It must be borne in mind that only TWEED's bank account has yet been examined. Other accounts, we are assured, will speedily follow. Let the public not get impatient. The detectives are on the right track, and the "Boss" of the Ring is already bowled out. The rest of the gang are still skulking in the bushes, but the Committee of Seventy are on their trail.

We do not apprehend that any man is so simple as to suppose that a Board of Audit, composed of three men, conspired together to pass fraudulent claims amounting to five millions of dollars, from which only one of their number was to be benefited. Who composed that Board of Audit? The Mayor, Controller, and President of the Board of Supervisors—HALL, CONNOLLY, and TWEED. The law creating the Board placed the Mayor at the head; and, as the Chief Magistrate of the City, it was his duty, more than that of any of the three, to see that the City was not swindled. And yet there are men who ask the public to believe that Mayor HALL sanctioned claims to the extent of five millions of dollars, which he must have known to be fraudulent, and allowed the City to be robbed of that amount, solely for the purpose of putting a million dollars in TWEED's pocket, another million in CONNOLLY's, and allowing the balance of three millions to be divided between such miserable guttersnipes as GARVEY, INGERSOLL and E. A. WOODWARD. He didn't get a cent of it. Oh, no! Neither did SWEENY, for he is a man of "towering spirit." Not a penny did they receive. They were altogether above such things. That is the theory of the champions of HALL and SWEENY. Let us put it to the test.

In the first place it makes no particle of difference, as all will agree, in the criminality of the act, whether HALL aided others to rob the Treasury, or robbed it himself—whether he shared in the plunder or whether he didn't. Hence it is incumbent on those who advocate his innocence to show that the robbery was committed without his knowledge. This cannot be done; it is absurd on its face. But assuming it to be so, for the sake of argument, what then? When an honest man discovers that he has, unconsciously, been used by a set of villains to aid in perpetrating a crime, what course does he pursue? He takes the most prompt and vigorous means in his power to expose the men who have deceived him, and bring the real criminals to justice. Now, what was Mayor HALL's course when he found that he had—unwittingly, if you please—aided TWEED, GARVEY, INGERSOLL & Co. in robbing the City Treasury of five million dollars? The public knows full well what his course was. Instead of being shocked at the exposure, as everybody else was, and as he would have been, if innocent; instead of calling for the prompt punishment of the men who had so grossly deceived him, and so wickedly swindled his constituents, he was the first to spring to their defense, and the most active and unscrupulous, both with his tongue and pen, in trying to deceive and befog the public and screen the robbers. And this course he has pursued without interruption, though with constant change of tactics and the grossest inconsistencies and contradictions, up to the present time. No longer ago than last Saturday he had the effrontery to tell the public through his organ, the Leader, about the "wise counsels, decision of character and great executive ability" of the head thief, TWEED, and to vouch for "the honesty and straightforwardness of his official career." And this man, who thus insults his constituents by his open advocacy of a thief who has robbed them of millions of dollars, is still Mayor of the City, and still finds people stupid enough to proclaim his innocence.

The Truth Gaining Ground.

The proof of TWEED's dishonesty has at last become strong enough to compel even the World to publicly accept it. We say publicly, for, though that paper has sturdily affected to belittle the evidence we have been accumulating against the Ring, we have no reason to suppose that it had really reversed the opinion it avowed in the Spring of 1870, that TWEED was a "swindler." It was only earning the Ring money by pretending to have changed its mind. Now, however, it is forced to say that "No one can doubt that Mr. TWEED is a public robber." As a matter of fact, no one has been able to doubt it since last July, at least, but when we remember the foul abuse it was our fortune to receive from the World, during the Summer and Autumn, for insisting on this truth touching Mr. TWEED, we receive its tardy acknowledgment without much interest. Other people, too, it will be perceived, are beginning to understand the facts in relation to the crew of which TWEED is the head. Mr. GREELEY, in his speech on Wednesday evening, said plainly:

> "Now, I don't care to go into any minute criticism as to who has got the money—whether A has got more, or B more, or C more. You and I know that the men who have been trusted and honored and paid to watch over our interests and protect the City from spoliation have betrayed their trust. No matter whether you say 'this Mayor has got some of the money,' or 'this administrator of public works has got it,' you know that, together, they were intrusted with the keeping of it, and they have kept it not in the way that was intended."

This is what we have been saying from the beginning, and what we have succeeded in making the people see so clearly that they were inclined to be impatient with "H. G." when he devoted a column or more of the Tribune to weighing and balancing the different shares of the plunder received by the different members of the Ring. It was this unavoidable and settled conviction of the fact that wholesale robbery has been going on in the City Government, which has brought about every step in the direction of reform and recovery. The specific evidence of each man's guilt, and that which would enable us to accurately apportion it, was in the keeping of the guilty. We could not at once get at it. We did not wait for it, but laid before the people the evidence we had that the Treasury had been gutted, and that the Ring, working together, had done it. We shocked some tender and prudent souls by so doing, but we are content to abide by the result. The evidence in detail is now coming in. Enough has been reached already to make Mr. GREELEY see that details are not needed to justify a general verdict of guilty. More will, we trust, come along within a few weeks, when the last lingering scruples of the most cautious will be removed, and the Ring will be individually, as it now is collectively, condemned.

Meanwhile, every additional development only makes the work before us more urgent and more promising. The chief thief of the lot is before the people for their suffrages. The Ring, as a body, has its ticket in the field, not only for local and legislative but for State offices. That ticket is the Democratic one in every case. The swindlers have taken refuge behind the nominations of the Democratic Party. The shortest and surest—in fact the only certain—way to reach them is by the defeat of those nominations. If we cannot accomplish that, we shall have gone a great way to prove to the world that we are unable to preserve our liberties. For, after all, our liberties are more seriously threatened than our purses. When TWEED stole a million of dollars out of the proceeds of our bonds, he took what we can repay if necessary. But when he went to Rochester and dictated a set of Democratic nominations for us to support, and came home and had himself nominated to the Senate, and boasted that all the candidates, including himself, would be elected, he asked us to deliberately surrender self-government. The people, if they submitted to this could not be said to have any liberties left. Mr. EVARTS told the audience at Cooper Institute on Wednesday:

> "All through Europe there is an intense solicitude on the part of the common people that this defilement, this pollution, this infamy, shall be shown to have been from the negligence of the American people, and that, when discovered, it can no longer be maintained, or be repeated."

This is undoubtedly true. To our mind, however, if we have not the wit to see that the election of the Tammany Democratic ticket would be an outrageous and alarming abandonment of the principle of free government, and if we have not the self-respect to prevent that abandonment, it really matters very little what Europe may think about it.

Virginia or Australia?

Much talk has been heard of late abroad about the comparative advantages to emigrants of Virginia and Australia. The reason the two localities are thus put forward in rivalry is that there are companies for encouraging emigration to both. Australia is very big and has very few people in it, and Virginia offers without doubt peculiar advantages to new comers. It is quite true that Australia has an immense number of square miles—two and a half millions at least—and that land can almost literally be had there for the asking. That the soil is often fertile, and capable of a great variety of productiveness, is equally undeniable. We may further admit that the soil in Australia has not been deteriorated, as some of that of Virginia has, by two hundred years of tobacco raising. But for all this, and for all the Australian gold, we maintain that emigrants may be happier, more comfortable, and have better chances for early competency in Virginia than in Victoria.

As regards the actual first cost of land, it may be had in Victoria, on Crown lease, for 60 cents, gold, per acre, the rent going to the purchase-money, which is $5, gold, per acre. In Virginia land may be had for from $1 25 to $25 per acre, according to situation and quality. Excellent land can no doubt be had for, say, $6 an acre. The price is on the whole easier in Australia. But this, of course, taken alone, is a delusive indication of comparative advantage. The nearness to a market, the demand for products that can be raised, climate, wood and water, facilities for worship and education, necessarily enter into the problem, and in all these points the American locality is the superior. It is all very well to say that Australia produces "gold, corn, wine and wool;" without question she does; but the conditions are such that much capital is commonly indispensable to getting any profit out of either, and the majority of poor men who make their way thither remain poor men for a considerable time. On the other hand, in any of our new or unoccupied Territories, it is notorious that the majority do, pretty early in life, amass a sufficiency for comfortable livelihood even when they fail to get rich. The point on which so many people from the old country are so strenuous—namely, the comparative facility of revisiting home—is immeasurably stronger on the American side. It is possible to get from Virginia to Europe in ten or twelve days; while four or five times that period, even under most favorable circumstances, are requisite to reach it from Australia.

As regards government, it need only be said that the emigrating classes almost universally prefer the republican form; and assuredly the means and freedom of religion and instruction for all classes in this country are not, on the whole, surpassed elsewhere. It may be further claimed for Virginia, and more particularly for Western Virginia, that, either in respect of beauty of natural scenery or salubrity of climate, nothing too laudatory could well be said; while, save on the banks of some of the rivers, and in a few exceptional places, no such encomium can be passed on Australia; and, notably in the diseases that so often attack the eyes, there are several distinct drawbacks to average health there. It is not likely, therefore, that the Australian company will beat the Virginian company in the emigration market.

The Slanders Against Collector Murphy.

The Nation reproached us a week or two ago for not "showing up" Collector MURPHY. We replied that we had examined the evidence which a notorious rascal named HENRY S. OLCOTT had brought forward, and the other statements made in the Tribune, and that, in our opinion, they did not prove anything against Mr. MURPHY's character. Whereupon the Nation said we must have strange notions about evidence. But since then the Nation has been convinced by its own examination of the stenographer's report of the investigation which resulted in Mr. MURPHY's acquittal, and it says of Mr. MURPHY this week: "He did not defraud the Government, and we have done him an injustice in asserting that he did. * * * As we have wronged MURPHY, we would gladly say no more about him." Then the Nation goes on to condemn him, as Collector, on other grounds, and quotes from the TIMES' comments when Mr. MURPHY was appointed. We are glad the Nation has found out that the TIMES did speak its mind about the appointment in question, when the Tribune was silent.

The expediency of Mr. MURPHY's appointment is a question totally distinct from the base slanders trumped up against him by the Tribune. If the Tribune was misled by the knave HENRY S. OLCOTT, more shame for it to be so easily duped. The fact is, that we opposed Mr. MURPHY's appointment from the first—see the Nation this week for a very glowing admission of that fact. We do not retract a word we said then. But we opposed him on fair and honest grounds—whereas the Tribune tries to stab at him like a bravo in the dark, and solely to gratify that malevolent spite which FENTON and all his followers bear to Gen. GRANT and all his supporters—and there you have the whole truth in a nutshell.

When the Tribune retracts its slanders about Mr. MURPHY, it will be time enough for it to begin once more sounding the praises of FENTON. It professed great surprise the other day that Mr. MURPHY should have suffered twenty-four hours to pass without accepting the challenge of "BOB" MURRAY to go into Court and disprove his libels. The public has not forgotten that Senator FENTON has suffered two years to pass by, without daring to go into a Court and test the truth of charges made by the oldest, and one of the most respectable, journals of this City—the Commercial Advertiser—to the effect that he had accepted bribes for signing corrupt bills while he was Governor of the State of New-York.

The Dowling-Brennan Difficulty.

No stronger proof could be given of the utter demoralization of our City Government, and the manner in which the purity of the ballot-box has been destroyed, than is afforded by the recent quarrel between the supporters of MATTHEW T. BRENNAN and Judge DOWLING in the Sixth Ward. The entire cause of this fierce dispute—which has led to extensive torch-light processions and other demonstrations, and threatened to cause a split in the Tammany ranks—was simply that Mayor HALL had appointed as inspectors of election, the friends of Judge DOWLING instead of Sheriff BRENNAN. To those "outside of politics" this would appear to be a trival matter, unworthy of serious attention—not so, however, to men who are familiar with the way elections are managed in the City of New-York. Whatever "outsiders" may think, all politicans know that whoever owns the inspectors carries the election. As SCOTT writes:

> "Who takes the foremost foeman's life,
> That party conquers in the strife."

The actual number of votes that may be cast for any candidate is, nowadays, a secondary consideration. The only real question is, "Who are the inspectors?" for whoever secures them will certainly be returned as elected, irrespective of the votes cast.

No one is more familiar with these facts than Sheriff BRENNAN and his friends. Those astute politicians recognized at once that the appointment of Judge DOWLING's inspectors of election was the political doom of the Sheriff and his friends. They knew that they possessed the majority of the voters; but they also knew that, with "the inspectors against them," this was a matter of indifference, and that nothing was left to them but abject submission or war. It must also be understood that the Sixth Ward, which is now the field of this contest, is part of TWEED's Senatorial District; and it is currently reported that TWEED's henchmen are even now engaged in providing beforehand for the return of sufficient votes to give him the thirty thousand majority which he has called for from his followers.

This, citizens of New-York, is what your elective franchise has sunk to in the hands of Mayor HALL and the Tammany Ring. What are you going to do about it?

Tammany in Queens County.

The Tammany "Ring," in carrying out their customary programme of controlling nominations to the Legislature in the rural districts around New-York, have rather overshot the mark in Queens County. By the free use of money they secured the nomination for the Assembly of EDWARD A. LAWRENCE, well known from his connection with GENET's Blackwell's Island Bridge bill, which is to impose a tax of $500,000 on the county. The nomination was due to the town of Flushing, which elected Anti-Lawrence delegates by a vote of 250 to 100, but Tammany money and influence carried the Convention in the interest of the Ring. The result has been that the young men of Flushing, irrespective of party, have organized a Reform Club, with the distinct issue of Tammany or Anti-Tammany, and have nominated Hon. L. BRADFORD PRINCE, who represented the district last year. Mr. PRINCE was one of the few members of the last Assembly whose character was above reproach, and whose official integrity was acknowledged by all. His vote was recorded against every corrupt scheme, and he won a reputation such as few men achieve in one term in the Legislature. The Republican Convention has unanimously indorsed him, and, although the district usually polls a Democratic majority of seven hundred or over, there is little doubt that Mr. PRINCE will carry it again this year as he did last, unless the large sums of money sent into the district in aid of GENET's Bridge bill should prove too powerful for the honest voters to overcome. Let the people of the district watch the Ring agents, and spot every man who allows himself to be bought over with their money.

MINOR TOPICS.

The Express of yesterday evening addresses some remarks to us which appear to be in the nature of a warning, and therefore we are naturally extremely anxious to understand them properly. We would not for all the world lose the benefit of anything the Express is kind enough to say to us. Unfortunately, like diviners and soothsayers generally, the oracle of the Express is not quite so clear as we could wish. We have not the slightest doubt that if we could only get at the meaning of our admonisher, that we should be much edified and chastened; but whether the foggy weather muddles the human understanding—as we much fear must be the case—or whether the Express is trying to get a few riddles ready for Christmas, certain it is that, after posing over its paragraph for three consecutive hours, we are still as much in the dark as ever as to what it is all about. However, we will lay it before our readers just as it stands, and we shall be happy to receive and insert solutions of the conundrum, for such we are convinced it is:

> "If the dangers and uncertainties of the journey (from Tien-Tsin to Pekin) are really so great as he describes, we regret that Mr. BROOKS did not take a few of his fellow Sachems of Tammany Hall along with him."—Times.

Comments of the Express.

> "J. B., if at home, would no doubt reciprocate this regret of the TIMES, and express his in return—as we do in his absence—that New-York Republican rogues like BAILEY, now living so magnificently in South America on Government plunder, and a thousand others like him, and just as free, or else, with HODGE & CO., in the Albany Penitentiary, were also not 'along with them' in their absence from the City. Our amiable and zealous neighbors are reminded of the fable which reads that when the priests of a temple erected in honor of Jupiter, annoyed by the ravages of the mice that preyed upon the offerings of the altar and disturbed the good priests' slumber by their nocturnal scamperings, besought the ruler of Olympus for relief from the plague, Jupiter sent a thunderbolt, and the mice were destroyed, and the priests and temple also! The moral of the fable is this: That when law and justice lay their hands upon the Federal plunderers, even the City corruptions, vast as they are, will rise like incense from the altar, above their chief accusers."

We advise the Police Commissioners to alter their course with reference to the present campaign. They have hitherto treated the force intrusted to them for the preservation of peace and the care of property as if its members were the political employes of the Ring. They have transferred officers and men, not for the better service of the public, but to help the friends and embarrass the opponents of the thieves. This sort of thing ought to cease, and if the Commissioners are men of common sense it will cease. The next Legislature will not be in the interest of Tammany. A day of reckoning will come for the Police Commissioners as well as for all others, and when it does, the prostitution of the force to serve the ends of corrupt politicians, and to bolster such fellows as JOHN J. BRADLEY in important offices, will be a heavy item on the debit side for the Commissioners.

Poor M. THIERS has much to suffer. Paris grumbles now even at his dinners. It is not in a day that she can get up a taste for Spartan simplicity, and from all accounts the new President is under the impression that good eating is Anti-Republican. Here is a savage thrust at M. THIERS' hospitality, from one of the Paris newspapers: "Scene: A café at Versailles, upon the stroke of midnight. Customer: 'Garçon, two bocks,' (glasses of beer.) Garçon: 'Gentlemen, we are shutting up.' Customer: 'For pity's sake, Garçon! we are dying of thirst. We have just come from the President's.'" The contrast between this and the splendid profusion of the Imperial entertainments is harrowing indeed.

GARVEY has gone to Nova Scotia, or Nova Zembla, for aught we know to the contrary. E. A. WOODWARD seems also to have fled to parts unknown, and now the "Boss" is stripping himself of his load of real estate, as if meditating a bolt from the too obtrusive attentions of the State Courts. "Only let me get into a Court of Justice," said TWEED the other night in discoursing amid the "scenes of his youth" about the base charges against his honesty, "and I shall quickly silence all accusers." The "Boss" must have expected to be brought before his friend DOWLING, since the first intimation of his case being taken to Albany has evidently frightened him. TWEED has already given into the keeping of his sons nearly a million of dollars worth of real estate, or rather less than the aggregate of his stealings from the warrants "audited" by HALL, CONNOLLY and himself. Perhaps the next best thing for the "Boss" to do is to borrow a suit of old clothes from some of the friends of his youth, and make his appearance before Judge LEARNED as a humble denizen of the Sixth Ward, who has found public service as ruinous an occupation as making chairs.

We publish this morning a very full and carefully-prepared article, embracing facts and figures of interest in connection with the approaching elections in this and other States. In it our readers will find the names of all the candidates nominated by the two great parties, as well as of those named by any considerable minority; and with reference to our own State, there are also given the figures of the last preceding election for the respective offices. The article will be found worth preserving for reference by all interested in the subject. Hundreds of letters come to us asking for just such information as is given in this article. We hope the writers will be satisfied.

As we stated, a few days ago, the checks paid to "Hon." TOM FIELDS in his capacity of assignee of the claims against the City of some members of the old volunteer Fire Department, will be explained in the report of the Citizens' Committee to be presented to-day. FIELDS undertook the task of not only getting the laws passed which were to give the voluntary services of the firemen the title to rank as "claims," but also to collect the money for these superseded nuisances. To any one not affiliated with the Tammany thieves, this would have been a somewhat difficult piece of work. To "Hon." TOM, however, it was all plain sailing, both at Albany and New-York, and the quarter of a million of dollars which he obtained for his trouble, was very cheaply earned indeed. Now that the robbers of the City Treasury are to be called upon to disgorge, this little transaction of Corporation Attorney, Park Commissioner, and Assemblyman FIELDS ought to receive due attention in the Courts.

The German-American Citizens' Association, last evening, indorsed the nomination of HENRY G. LEASK for Assemblyman in the Second District, represented for so many years by DENNIS BURNS, who has been thrown aside this year by Tammany as not sufficiently servile, and a tool named JIMMY DUNPHY nominated in his place. Mr. LEASK had already received the nomination of the Republicans and of the Council of Political Reform, and as he is a very popular, as well as a very worthy man, there is a fair prospect of his election even in that Democratic stronghold.

Mr. GEO. T. BRADLEY, Second Auditor in the Department of Finance, informs us that he is neither son nor nephew of JOHN T. BRADLEY, the City Chamberlain, and that his salary is not $5,000, but $4,000 a year. We congratulate Mr. BRADLEY on his freedom from disreputable connections, and assure him that, after this avowal, the public will more readily believe that he honestly earns his salary.

Secretary BOUTWELL's lecture is to be given to-night at Steinway Hall, and not at the Mercantile Library, Astor-place, as was announced by mistake in this column yesterday.

The Franklin Statue in Printing-House-Square.

The corner-stone of Capt. DE GROOT's admirable statue of FRANKLIN was laid yesterday afternoon in Printing-house-square with the impressive ceremonies of the Masonic Order. The weather was exceedingly unpropitious, but this did not interfere with the attendance, which was very large. Shortly before 2 o'clock the Grand Lodge proceeded to the spot, led by Capt. DE GROOT, PETER COOPER, Esq., and other distinguished gentlemen. With R. W. JNO. H. ANTHON were the following-named officers of the Grand Lodge: R. W. E. P. Breed, D. G. M.; E. L. Judson, S. G. W.; Jas. L. Husted, J. G. W.; Jno. W. Simons, G. Treasurer; Jas. M. Austin, G. Secretary; W. R. Brown, S. G. D.; Enoch George, J. G. D.; Isaac H. Brown, G. Steward; O. G. Brady, Steward; R. L. Schoonmaker, G. Chaplin; Chas. W. Roone, G. Marshal; John Hoole, G. Tiler; Johnston Fountain, G. Pursuivant, and District Deputies E. E. Thorne, John A. Foster, H. W. Turner, C. B. Wade, and Chas. Sackreuter.

The ceremonies were opened with music by the Fifth Regiment Band, after which Col. EDWARD L. GAUL, on behalf of the Committee, introduced the Grand Master, with remarks substantially as follows:

The occasion which calls us together today is well known to the greater number of those here present, but for the benefit of those who are in ignorance, it may be well to state that upon this foundation, the corner-stone of which is about to be laid, is to be erected a colossal statue of BENJAMIN FRANKLIN, which through the liberality of a well-known citizen of the Metropolis (Capt. DE GROOT,) is, when completed, to be dedicated to the Press and the printers of New-York. To the Press this honor is rather an unusual one for silent laborers, as its servants are; instead of being rewarded, they are rather accustomed to see others reaping the results of their work. In the gift itself there is a peculiar appropriateness, for the monument is in honor of an old printer and one whose memory to the craft is ever green. The site chosen for its location is also a fitting one, for, surrounded as it is by the great newspaper offices of the period, offices which each day gather, print and send forth to this Western Hemisphere the news of the world, we can almost feel that should the spirit of FRANKLIN visit the bronze erected in his honor, Poor Richard would feel at home again, and among the familiar scenes of his youth.

At this time, however, any but a brief speech would be out of place, and, therefore, I shall only say that those having this work in charge felt that it should be properly begun, and as is customary on occasions like this, desired that the corner-stone should be laid under the auspices of the ancient and honorable fraternity of Freemasons. I, therefore, in the name of the Committee, do now invite you, JOHN H. ANTHON, Most Worshipful Grand Master of Masons of this State, to proceed with the customary ceremonies.

The Grand Master, in opening, paid a just tribute to the memory of FRANKLIN, who was regarded not only as a distinguished man, he said, but as a Mason whose character was revered by the Craft throughout the world. Prayer was then offered by the Grand Chaplain, after which the stone was laid with the usual formalities. The assemblage then dispersed.

Anniversary of Old John-Street Church.

The John-street Methodist Church will celebrate the 103d anniversary of her dedication, Oct. 29, 1871. With cordial greetings to all her children and friends, she invites their presence through the day. Immortal in hallowed memories, her voice is still, as in ancient days, "Welcome to all." The services will be as follows: 9 A. M., Love Feast, in charge of Rev. J. B. MERWIN, presiding Elder of New-York District; 10½ A. M., sermon by Rev. JESSE T. PECK; 2 P. M., reunion of the old pastors and members, children and grand-children, at which Rev. E. L. JANES will preside; 6 P. M., reunion prayer-meeting; 7 P. M., sermon by Rev. THOS. GUARD, of the Irish Wesleyan Conference. PHILIP PHILLIPS will have charge of the singing through the day. All who love the Church, or who desire the preaching of a free Gospel in the lower part of the City, are invited to aid in the work. Rev. L. S. Weed, C. H. Applegate, Edward Allen, John Bentley, Anniversary Committee.

The Revere, Mass., Disaster.

BOSTON, Mass., Oct. 26.—The last unrecognized victim of the Revere disaster has been identified as Mrs. LOCKE, a widow lady about fifty-five years of age belonging to Lowell. She left Lowell to visit relations in Lynn, and while her friends in Lowell supposed she was in Lynn her relations in Lynn were not aware she had left home.

COLLECTOR MURPHY.

What the President Actually Did Say in Baltimore.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

BALTIMORE, Md., Oct. 26.—The American to-morrow morning will contain the following in relation to the statement in the Washington correspondence of today's New-York Tribune regarding the President and Collector MURPHY. After quoting the correspondent's statement the American says:

"As we were present with only one other person when the President spoke of the New-York Collectorship, it will possibly be more proper for us to publish what he did say, as the above by no means represents the language used. The President said that he could not listen to any proposition for the removal of Mr. MURPHY, or any other public officer, based upon accusations which he had himself investigated and knew to be unfounded. If, he added, Mr. GREELEY or any other responsible parties had come to him with charges well sustained, of Mr. MURPHY's unfaithfulness to his duties as Collector, or even urging his removal as essential to harmony among the friends of the Administration in New-York, he would have taken the subject into earnest consideration, and if found correct he would have removed him. To remove him on the charges made, he said, would indicate that he believed them, which he certainly did not."

KINGS COUNTY.

Nominations by the Democrats—The Tickets in the Field.

The Democracy of Kings County held their City and County Nominating Conventions, yesterday afternoon, in the General Committee-rooms, at the corner of Court and Remsen streets, Brooklyn. The result, as was generally anticipated, was the triumphant nomination of the "slate." Everything, from first to last, showed that matters had been thoroughly cut and dried; not a soul opened his mouth except at the instigation of "Boss" MCLAUGHLIN, and the speeches made were but echoes of that worthy gentleman's sentiments. The "old Dutchman," who now occupies the chair as Mayor, was remorselessly thrown overboard, and Ex-Mayor SAMUEL S. POWELL, amid much hurrahing, was put forward as his successor. WINCHESTER BRITTON, a trusty servant of the Ring, got the District-Attorneyship, while Mr. MORRIS, the present incumbent, bowed his head to the mandate of the chief, and created enthusiasm among the rank and file by swearing to work day and night for the success of the ticket. Most of the other gentlemen on the ticket are ex-office-holders. The Republicans, it will be remembered, held their Conventions two weeks ago.

The following are the opposing nominations:

COUNTY TICKET.

The Democrats have yet to make their Assembly district nominations. The following are the Republicans nominated:

Assembly—First District, no nomination; Second, E. P. White; Third, Hans Christian; Fourth, Capt. T. Tanner; Fifth, Eugene D. Berri; Sixth, Capt. Peck; Seventh, Col. Charles B. Morton; Eighth, George C. Bennett; Ninth, Oliver B. Leich.

ONONDAGA COUNTY.

Republican Mass-Meeting in Syracuse—Enthusiastic Indorsement of the State Ticket—Stirring Addresses.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Oct. 26.—In connection with the Young Men's State Republican Association, a mass-meeting was held here this evening by the Republicans of Onondaga County to ratify the State and county nominations. It took place at the Shakespeare Hall, and was both largely and enthusiastically attended. The meeting was opened at 8 o'clock by Mr. GEERE, the Chairman of the County Committee, who, in a few well-chosen words, opened the business of the evening. The usual number of Vice-Presidents and Secretaries were appointed, and then CHAUNCEY M. DEPEW was introduced as the first speaker. His appearance was greeted with long-continued applause.

He commenced by saying that the maxim that eternal vigilance was the price of liberty had been one of the best legacies which the fathers of the country had left to posterity. Under a combination of peculiar circumstances a state of things had occurred in New-York City which had made the advocates of monarchical institutions proclaim republicanism a sham and a failure, but even at the moment these criticisms were being made there arose a storm of public feeling which vindicated republican ideas with a grand and triumphant sweep. In Ohio and Pennsylvania and California, from the East to the West, the country had arisen to rebuke corruption and to applaud reform. The two parties had, upon this question, made their record an unalterable one. The Democratic Party stood under no pledges to punish crime and to abase fraud, with no desire to wrest from robbers their ill-gotten millions. The Republicans, on the contrary, were bound to deal with the ill-doers as sternly as the law could dictate, but the Democratic champions may claim that they intend to do better for the future, and that there is within the party an element that desires reform as earnestly as the Republicans. We must judge them by what they have done. This party has had possession of New-York for some time past, and how stands the record there? Is it not a fact that the City Government of New-York is a by-word and a scoffing everywhere? Mr. DEPEW then spoke of the Kuklux Klan, showing that no outrage had ever been committed upon a Democrat, but only Republicans and negroes. The Government had then spoken, and had said to the South, "If you so fail to appreciate the mercy we have extended to you, and will not control the desperadoes who outrage Republicans and negroes, then the Government must protect them by the bayonet, if necessary." The Democratic body was a corpse with two living arms—Tammany in the North, and the Kuklux Klan in the South.

Gen. VAN WYCK and Hon. BUTLER G. NOBLE also made stirring addresses.

Hon. L. R. GANOON, Secretary of the Young Men's State Republican Association, did not speak in consequence of the length of the other addresses.

An Honest Man Running in the Fourth Ward.

The Republican candidate for the Second Assembly District is Mr. HENRY G. LEASK, well known throughout the City as an honest, zealous worker for every good cause. He is not only supported by the Regular Republican Association of his district, but also by the City Council of Political Reform and the German-American Citizens' Association of the Fourth Ward. His friends are confident of his ability to win, in view of the fact that he has no better man opposed to him than the renowned Mr. "JIMMY" DUNPHY, of the Sheriff's office.

REPUBLICAN RALLY IN NEWARK, N. J.

An Address by Hon. Henry Wilson, of Massachusetts, on the Issues of the Day.

A mass-meeting of the Republicans of Newark, N. J., was held last evening at Library Hall, at which Senator HENRY WILSON, of Massachusetts, and Senator FRELINGHUYSEN, of New-Jersey, were present. District-Attorney FITSWORTH presided, and made a brief address and introduced Senator WILSON, who made a stirring speech. He said that on a fair count twenty-nine States of the Union are Republican and but eight Democratic. The Democrats have tried to start a new departure, and, with the exception of Texas, they have been defeated. He believed that the Republican Party ought to hold this country for at least one generation. Then there is the Copperhead element, which, while our brave young men of New-Jersey were maintaining the ancestral honor of the State, under PHIL. KEARNEY, these men were sorry over your victories. They told us we couldn't beat the South, but we did it. They impaired our credit and injured us as much as possible. These men are yet to be found everywhere. We can only trust them when they repent and adopt a fair and honest platform. Then, there is another element in the Democratic Party—the loyal Democrats. I do not intend to say one word of harshness against them. But let the Democratic Party get into power, and these men will be the tail-end of the Democratic Party. So, you, young men of New-Jersey, must see that the Republican Party, which was created by necessity, and in the interest of humanity and human civilization, remains in power. I believe that there never has been a political organization so pure and so necessary as the Republican Party. It has stood by the country in times of war and peace. Stand by this party, by your flag, and if there is some wrong in it set it right; but don't let your country go out of your own hands until the rights of humanity are well secured. Your Senator knows that we have met men in the Senate who say that the Republican Party has outlived itself, and should die. Well, I intend, or rather I should like to live as long as I can. So with the Republican Party, and I am ready to die when the Democratic Party comes into power. [Laughter.] The Administration of President GRANT, with all its faults and its weaknesses, is the best the country ever had since 1829, when JOHN QUINCY ADAMS left the office. We have not yet complete order in the South, but we have nine or ten Kukluxers in the Albany Penitentiary, and more to come. We do well with our National debt. Now I have no more sympathy with a Republican thief than with a Democratic one, yet I don't think that the Democratic Party has any right to talk to us about thieves. Look at New-York. The condition of its affairs now and its cheating and defrauding of voters is the theme of conversation in Europe, and it makes our best men over there hang their heads in shame, the same as they did ten years ago, when Europeans pointed to our four millions of slaves. Now, during the war, when our pay-masters paid out untold sums of money, we only lost $500,000. In the United States Treasury, where millions are handled every day, but $12,000 have been stolen during this Administration, and the man who stole $8,000 is now in the Penitentiary. Then we had some pay-masters lately and sent them to the Penitentiary, that is the difference between the Republican thieves and the Democratic ones. The former go to prison, the latter to office. Is TWEED in the Penitentiary? No, but on the road to the New-York Senate. Why, never since the world began has there been such stealing as in New-York now. Some people talk a great deal about our high protective tariffs. I talked to many Englishmen about it in Europe and they were all complaining about it. They say we pay too much wages. We want to see labor protected and must have tariff to pay such wages. I left Europe far more a protectionist than when I left America. We mean to regulate the tariff and reduce taxation some $50,000,000 at the next session, and yet pay off our honest debt. In no country does the laboring man occupy such a high position as in ours. He always has a chance to improve, and this fact draws to our shores the bone and sinew of Europe. They are welcome. For thirty-five years I have tried to build up a party. I have succeeded. I fought slavery and its abolition has made you and me better men than we ever were. I am a Republican because the doctrines of the New Testament are the principles of the party. We insist upon humanity and the equality of all men. The Republican Party was made for the laboring men. The honest, active, intelligent mechanics made the party. Slavery was kept out of the grand West to save the territory for our honest laboring men to make farms of. One of the first things we did was the Homestead law—an ornament on our statute books. For about ten dollars any man can have his sixty acres of land. Then we have built the Pacific Railroad—a work which the Democratic Party refused to do. I am not here to say one word against the candidate of the Democracy for Governor of New-Jersey. Yet, I must say that you, as Republicans, must elect Mr. WALSH as the candidate of the Republican Party. We will carry the country next year. If we don't it is our own fault, for the Democratic Party is not strong enough to defeat us. We all hope that New-Jersey will assume her rank in the vanguard of Republican States. You owe this to the memory of ABRAHAM LINCOLN and all of our departed heroes. I think the Republicans have made up their minds to nominate Gen. GRANT. If so Jersey will do her duty, as it will to any other nominees. We are fighting for the cause for which during twenty-five years we have asked the blessing of Almighty God. Senator WILSON then resumed his seat, and was followed by Gen. THOMAS VAN BUREN, after which the meeting adjourned.

LOCAL POLITICS.

Republican Mass-Meeting at Concordia Hall—Tweed's Arrest Announced.

A Republican mass-meeting to ratify the State ticket was held at Concordia Hall, Nos. 28 and 30 Avenue A, last evening, Dr. TRICATES in the chair. The following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, In the signs of the times we clearly discern the most conclusive evidence that the power of the Ring in this City, which has so long sat secure in its stronghold of corruption, is at last nearly destroyed; and,

Whereas, For the final consummation of that much-desired result it is only requisite that each and every honest man, irrespective of party considerations or ties of personal friendship, should labor zealously for the election of such candidates as are placed in opposition to Tammany Hall by the Republican and Reform Parties; therefore be it

Resolved, That the names of Scribner, Barber, Raines, Hopkins, Taylor, Barkeley and Kirkpatrick are in themselves ample guarantees for the faithful performance of such official duties as may devolve upon our State officers for the ensuing two years, and we hereby exhort every honest man, irrespective of party affiliations, to unite with us in all honorable efforts to secure their election.

Resolved, That the nomination for Register of Gen. FRANZ SIGEL, [applause] our true and tried friend, who has in many a hard-fought field proved his fidelity to the principles of the Republican Party, meets with our entire approval; that we look upon his name as in itself a tower of strength, well calculated to inspire the weak and vacillating with renewed energy and courage in the present death-struggle between the crumbling power of the "Ring" and the eternal principles of liberty, upon which our political fabric rests; that we look upon him as a gentleman of unsullied natural and personal reputation, hail with gratification his advent as our standard-bearer, and sincerely pledge him our undivided support.

Resolved, That the election of GEORGE C. BARRETT and CHAS. P. DALY to the respective offices of Judge of the Supreme Court and Judge of the Court of Common Pleas will be eminently prolific of beneficent results, inasmuch as it will in a measure check, by the presence on the Bench of such virtuous and incorruptible men, the tendency of the Judiciary toward corrupt and inequitable practices.

Resolved, That in our candidate for State Senator, Dr. AUGUSTUS WEISSMANN, we recognize a man of intelligence, ability, and high personal worth, whose social and political record is spotless and beyond reproach, and whose presence in the Council Chamber of the Empire State will be a continual menace and rebuke to the frauds and corrupting influences for which that body has of late years become so notoriously remarkable.

Gen. GEORGE H. SHARPE addressed the meeting in a lengthened and able address. He informed them that he had just received a communication from Albany announcing that an application had been made for a warrant for the arrest of WM. M. TWEED, [immense cheering and cries of "hang him;"] that Judge LEARNED, of the Third Judicial District, had acceded to the motion, and that a Deputy Sheriff of the City and County of Albany was proceeding by special train to New-York to execute the mandates of the Court. [Great cheering.] This, he asserted, was but the preliminary step toward a still greater movement of the entire State, which would determine that the scoundrel should meet with justice and go to the Penitentiary, [cheers,] for they were resolved that these robbers should no longer walk the earth unprisoned or unhung. Gen. SHARPE then called their attention in detail to the immense frauds which have lately been revealed in the City, the necessity for spirited action, and reminded them that their apathy and indifference to their wrongs encouraged and perpetuated these outrages. He invoked the spirit of truth and justice inherent in all republican hearts to participate in the struggle, and the result, he assured them, would be a complete triumph.

Gen. SIGEL was prevented, by indisposition, from attending. Addresses were delivered by Major HAGGERTY, Messrs. WEISSMANN and GERKE.

Republican Mass-Meeting in Williamsburg.

The Republicans of Williamsburg held a large ratification meeting in Hamilton's Hall, Williamsburg, last evening. Judge W. H. MADDOX occupied the chair, John GREANY acted as Secretary, and stirring addresses were delivered by SOLOMON SPITZER, Ex-Mayor SAMUEL BOOTH, Ex-Judge A. H. DAILEY, Gen. CATLIN, United States Army, and others. Resolutions indorsing all the nominees of the party were adopted by acclamation.

The Nomination of Judge Ledwith—What He Has to Say About it.

A TIMES reporter, inquiring for a committee meeting in a quiet up-town hotel last night, was informed by the urbane clerk at the desk that the Committee sought for did not meet there, but Judge LEDWITH was in the next room if the reporter wished to see him. The reporter, who had been making an unsuccessful effort during the day to find the Judge, was pleased with the opportunity thus thrown in his way, and immediately bowed himself into the presence of the much-nominated candidate of the Supreme Judgeship. Although probably unanticipated, the TIMES reporter was received by the Judge with an unruffled demeanor, and was asked to be seated.

REPORTER—I have been looking for you, Judge, to ask whether you intend to accept the nomination offered by Tammany Hall?

Judge LEDWITH—The nomination has not yet been tendered to me, nor have I seen any of the Tammany Hall men.

REPORTER—But will you accept the nomination when tendered?

Judge LEDWITH—I will not take any action in the matter until the nomination is tendered. When that event takes place it is time enough to act.

REPORTER—There is a great deal of speculation as to what your action will be.

Judge LEDWITH—So it would seem. I did not believe that my movements could be of such intense interest as some make it appear. I have several hundred cards at my house, sent in by persons wishing to see me.

REPORTER—The people have had so much confidence in you, they fear any defection upon your part.

Judge LEDWITH—I will satisfy all decent people that I care about, and will not betray any trust confided in me.

REPORTER—What do you think about TWEED's fix today?

Judge LEDWITH—I can't say; really I have not read the papers carefully, and don't know what to say about it.

Finding it impossible to draw the Judge into further conversation upon the point at issue, the reporter withdrew from the presence of the smiling Magistrate.

Local Political Brevities.

Mr. STEPHEN PELL has received the regular Republican nomination for the Ninth Assembly District.

W. A. WEISMAN has accepted the nomination for the Sixth Senatorial District tendered to him by the regular Republican Party.

The Tammany Democrats of the Twentieth Assembly District last night nominated Ex-Speaker WM. HITCHMAN as their candidate for Assembly.

The Democracy of Brooklyn, last night, in Convention, nominated HON. JAMES F. PIERCE for the Senate from the Second District. His Republican opponent is Mr. JOHN C. PERRY.

The Sixth District Greeley Republican Senatorial Convention met last evening, at No. 385 Bowery, and nominated Mr. AUGUSTUS WEISSMANN for the State Senate by acclamation.

At a meeting of the Thirteenth Assembly District Republican Convention last evening, Hon. ISAAC DAYTON was nominated, after conference with other organizations opposed to Tammany.

The Young Men's Municipal Reform Association of the Fifteenth Ward will hold a public meeting this evening in the University Building. Judge BARRETT and other speakers will be present.

The following nominations for Assembly have been made by the Democratic Union (KERRIN) Party: Fourth District, JOHN J. BLAIR; Seventh District, GEO. W. BLUNT; Fourteenth District, J. T. KELLY.

Last evening Hon. THOMAS W. PITTMAN was nominated for member of Assembly in the Eleventh District. Mr. PITTMAN is a member of the New-York Press, and was formerly Clerk of the Jefferson Market Police Court.

At a meeting of "the New American Reformed Party," held at Lincoln Hall, Thirty-third-street and Eighth-avenue, on Tuesday evening, Mr. JOSEPH MACKEY was nominated as Senator for the Seventh District.

The Democratic Reform Senatorial Convention of the Fourth District, last night, at No. 163 Hudson-street, appointed a committee to nominate a candidate for Senator in that district. They will report on Saturday evening.

The Democratic Union (Kerrin Branch) have nominated CHARLES P. DALY, as candidate for Judge of the Court of Common Pleas, Judge SPENSER, as candidate for Superior Court, and Judge ALKEN, for the Marine Court.

JAMES M. SCOVEL was unanimously nominated by the Independent Republicans' Convention, at Camden, N. J., last evening, as a candidate for Assembly in the Second District. He accepted, pledging himself for a reduction of the ferry rate.

Mr. MARTIN NACHTMAN, in reply to a rumor charging him with being a candidate in the interest of Tammany, for the Sixth Senatorial District, emphatically denies the charge. He says he never received and never intends to seek assistance from Tammany Hall.

The following nominations were made last evening: Fifth Senatorial District (Democratic Reform) nominated CHRISTOPHER JOHNSON, Working Men's Party; Fourth Senatorial District, CLINTON ROOSEVELT; Fifteenth Assembly District, PATRICK LOGAN; Seventeenth Assembly District, ROBERT MAYFIELD.

A Republican ratification meeting was held at Hoffman's Arcade, Newark-avenue, Jersey City, last evening. Resolutions were passed, and addresses were made by HON. JOHN A. BRIGGS, of Ohio; JONATHAN DIXON, Jr., Major JAMES HAGGERTY and A. D. UREDENBURG. The building was densely crowded, about 3,000 persons being present.

A meeting of the Ledwith County General Committee was held last night to indorse their nominees. The Committee appointed to wait on the candidates reported that Judge LEDWITH and Mr. HATCH had expressed their willingness to be nominees. A motion was made to appoint an Executive Committee for the election. The resolution was carried and the meeting adjourned.

The German Republican Association of the Tenth Assembly District held a meeting at Windolph's Hall, No. 346 Eighth-avenue, last evening, Mr. J. SHOENHOF presiding. Messrs. RALPH WEIL, WM. V. WEBER, GAYLORD and WM. SCHWAB addressed the meeting in very spirited and effective speeches, attacking corruption and fraud. Semi-weekly meetings will be held up to election day.

The Apollo Hall Republicans of the Eleventh Assembly District met last night in Convention. It was reported that Mr. WILLIAM M. EVARTS had for personal reasons declined the nomination for the Sixth Senatorial District, but had agreed, in certain contingencies, to accept a nomination for Assemblyman from the Eleventh Assembly District, but that the other wing of the party had absolutely rejected it.

ARREST OF COUNTERFEITERS.

Seizure of Plates, Presses, Seals, Type and Fibre Paper.

Col. WHITLEY, Chief of the Secret Service, has known for many months that a skillful counterfeiter was a resident of New-York, and that in the boldest manner the man was executing plates for other counterfeiters in distant parts of the United States. He, however, could not be traced to his workshop, and would doubtless have long eluded the search of detectives, if, through a remarkable series of betrayals, the Police had not at last had him surrendered into their grasp. On the 6th of September the detectives arrested DAVID KIRKBRIDE for offering to sell counterfeit money. KIRKBRIDE was easily frightened into informing the officers that he had, but a week previously, purchased "queer" to the amount of $2,000 from STEPHEN PAINE, a notorious passer of the same. PAINE said that he had often obtained counterfeit money from HARRY COLE a resident of Jersey City, and had, in fact, just obtained from that treasury $5,000 of fictitious bills. COLE was arrested, and when questioned, confessed that he had bought the counterfeit money from JOSHUA D. MINER, a contractor for street paving in Sixty-seventh-street, near Ninth-avenue. He is well known as "JOCK MINER," and is said to have given employment as a street contractor to nearly 130 men for many years back. Arrangements were made by Col. WHITLEY with COLE for the capture of this man who for many years past had been connected with the "queer business." He is said to have furnished capital for carrying it on. He it was who got up the $100 compound interest note in 1864, of which $950,000 worth were printed. A party named HOLMES was arrested at the time for the transaction, and MINER went his bail in $60,000. Col. WHITLEY got COLE to fix matters with MINER so that a meeting might be had between the two latter on Wednesday night, at 7 o'clock, on the corner of Sixty-seventh-street and Broadway. Here COLE was to receive plates and counterfeit money amounting to $5,000 for $1,500. MINER was willing to trade, and, by the way, he used to sell this "queer" for two cents on the dollar. At the hour appointed MINER appeared in front of his own stables, and was approached by a man who brought a couple of packages, and was about receiving them when Col. WHITLEY's detectives, who had been ambushed near by, pounced upon the man, whose name was TOM BALLARD, alias Avery, and found that the packages contained $5,000 in counterfeits. Meanwhile MINER, who had not observed the fate of his friend, received $1,500 in good money from COLE, and pulling from his pocket a counterfeit plate on the National Bank of Poughkeepsie, and another for $2 notes on the Ninth National Bank of this City, handed them to COLE. At this moment a preconcerted signal was given and the detectives sprang upon their man. MINER, thus attacked, dropped money and everything, and getting one of the officer's fingers in his mouth bit hard. A well-directed blow broke his hold, and very soon persuasion of a similar character brought him to his senses. Both prisoners were taken to Bleecker-street Secret Service Office, while the officers went off in quest of proof against them, in the shape of counterfeits and presses.

BALLARD's place of business—his work-shop—at No. 256 Rivington-street, was first visited on Wednesday night by the officers. On the upper floor of the building, which is a tenement-house, were found $3,500 concealed behind the sub-base, together with inks, colors, and a $1,000 United States Treasury issue plate, partly engraved. There was also an old woman who represented herself as being his aunt, but professed no knowledge of the man's employment outside of his being an engraver. Many of the tools of his craft were found about the premises. Indeed, it appears that BALLARD whose residence is in Fifty-third-street, near Eighth-avenue, was formerly in the Treasury Department. He says, however, that his occupation of late years has been that of a carriage painter.

The most important discovery and seizure here was a quantity of "fibre paper" such as is used by the Government for treasury notes, a quantity of old paper, and "mash" or "pulp" in a vat. These, as it was afterward found, were used for the manufacture of this very "fibre," of which the Government believed itself to be in sole possession. But BALLARD, it appears, is one and the only one outside who knows the secret of its manufacture. Without this the counterfeiter was not so very dangerous a foe to banks.

The next arrest made was that of LLEWELLYN WILLIAMS, who was captured last evening at his residence, No. 438 West Fifty-fourth-street, on information given by the other two prisoners. On his premises the officers found a full set of fifty-cent plates, "Stanton head," and from $10,000 to $15,000 worth of the bogus scrip, all over the house and on WILLIAMS' person. Many packages were damp, as if lately executed. This man was a printer, and in his establishment were found presses, inks, colors and all the appurtenances of his part of the business.

JOSHUA MINER was taken before United States Commissioner DAVENPORT, yesterday who came up to the Secret Service office for the purpose. The prisoner waived an examination, and was committed to Ludlow-street Jail in default of $25,000. BALLARD was likewise sent there. WILLIAMS, who is at Head-quarters, will be brought before the Commissioner today. MINER is an Englishman, between forty-five and fifty years old; BALLARD, aged thirty, also an Englishman, was, it is said, discharged from the Government employ on suspicion of dishonest or fraudulent practices. WILLIAMS, aged thirty-eight, is a Welshman.

LIST OF THE SEIZURES.

New United States issue—One $1,000 plate, in an unfinished state; one $20 greenback, fully finished back and front; one $10 national bank, (Poughkeepsie Bank,) on steel; one national bank, not finished, the back only being engraved; one $2 national bank, on steel, fully completed; one full set, "Lincoln head," fifty cent stamp, on steel, fully completed; one full set, "Stanton head," completed, fifty cent, on steel, for seven impressions; one full set, "Stanton head," on steel, for ten impressions; one full set, "Stanton head," on copper, for five impressions; ten transfer rolls, (hardened steel,) for reproducing duplicates of all the above except the $1,000 plate; ten full sets, original bel pieces, (hardened steel,) for making the transfer rolls; one transfer press, costing $1,700, of a kind rarely found outside of the Treasury Department or bank-note companies; one transfer press, smaller pattern, costing $1,200; two large printing presses for making counterfeit money; two smaller, for same purposes; a large quantity of type, for altering bank bills to other banks; two full sets of engraver's tools, ink rollers, ink and cloths; a full set of Treasury seals for stamping the red seal impressions on the notes; $45,000 in counterfeit $2, $10, $20 and $100 notes; about 150 pounds of the celebrated "fibre" paper and the entire apparatus required to prepare and make the same; one excellent set of "Lincoln head" plates, besides those mentioned above.

As will be observed, the names of the officers have not been given, for very good reasons. Their work, which has been well done so far, resulting in the capture of $60,000 worth of bogus money, the material for its manufacture, and, it is hoped, has uprooted and destroyed the most troublesome and skillful nest of counterfeiters in the country.

AMUSEMENTS.

Musical.

OPERA BOUFFE AT LINA EDWIN'S THEATRE.

Lina Edwin's Theatre was filled, last evening, by a very fashionable audience, gathered to enjoy the promised representation of "Fleur de Thé." The anticipated pleasure was generously supplied. "Fleur de Thé" is, in respect of the score, one of the choicest buffo operas of the day. It is full of melody of a singularly elegant turn; its numbers are orchestrated with infinite taste; and its incidents make up a story told with sufficient cleverness to bear public recapitulation without the music. Mlle. AIMEE and her company place the merits of the work in the strongest light. Though much has been written concerning Mlle. AIMEE, her well-controlled voice, her neat vocal execution, and her consummate skill as an actress suggest, from the stage of Lina Edwin's Theatre, far higher commendation. For the first time in this country, opera-bouffe has a setting in accord with its requirements. And the finesse of M. LECOQ's writing, of all compositions of the same order, derives especial advantage from its appropriate framing. Its attractiveness, as implied above, was thoroughly shown last night. Mlle. AIMEE, as a cantinière of a French man-of-war, bringing Parisian modes and manners into China; M. FERNAND NOE as Pinsonnet, a husband astray among Celestial beauties; M. DUCHESNE, a most comical chief of the Pekin Police, and M. EDGARD, in the garb of a Chinese dignitary, were all at their best, and for almost three hours kept their hearers in a continuous state of merriment. Plenty encores were included in the applause; and the four salient pieces in the opera, that is to say, Mlle. AIMEE's tuneful song in the second act; the beautiful air "Césarine, à mes voeux docile," which would not be discordant in a composition of much greater pretensions; the droll duo in the third, and the spirited drinking-song introducing the last finale, were all redemanded. Mlle. AIMEE, who is the directress of the theatre as well as its most potent attraction, is to be thanked, not only for her personal contribution to the performance, but for the fresh and appropriate scenery Mr. CALYO's facile brush has provided. The costumes also are new and brilliant, and the impression of the recital of "Fleur de Thé," and of its illustrations, was so favorable, yesterday, that we can lay no claims to a reputation for prophesy when we predict that it will have a long run.

ITALIAN OPERA.

The reappearance of Mlle. NILSSON is announced for to-night. "Martha" will be sung, the parts being distributed as below:

| Plunkett | M. Jamet |

Miscellaneous.

JARLEY'S WAX WORKS.

The "True and Only Jarley," whose exhibitions in Steinway Hall were attended by large audiences, and whose Washington shows have had something of a national reputation, will give exhibitions on Tuesday and Wednesday nights of next week, at St. Peter's Hall, West Twentieth-street, for charitable objects. Tickets may be obtained at POND'S, or at the Hall on the evenings of the Jarleys.

BENEFIT NIGHT AT THE GRAND OPERA-HOUSE.

The performance of "Eileen Oge" at the Grand Opera-house, this evening, is for the benefit of Mrs. W. J. FLORENCE. The claims of that vivacious and accomplished artist upon playgoers are numerous, and local audiences are not chary of honoring the demands of performers to whom they are indebted for pleasure. The attendance, in this instance, will surely be large and appreciative.

AID FOR CHICAGO.

The performance given in aid of Chicago by "The Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks," at the Academy of Music, yesterday, will result in the transmission, to the sufferers whom it was intended to assist, of at least $1,000.

The Disgraceful Attack on Mr. Andrew D. White.

The attack made by the New-York Tribune on Mr. ANDREW D. WHITE, one of the most honored members of the Republican Party, continues to excite hearty protests from journals in all parts of the State. The "Fenton feud" is being carried pretty far when an attempt is made to drag Mr. WHITE into it. The Nation of this week has the following comments:

"Probably no result of the Syracuse Convention surprised people more than the attack of the Tribune on Mr. ANDREW D. WHITE, the Chairman. It was very bitter, and that its bitterness was deliberate and intentional has been shown by that journal's recent reply to a defense of Mr. WHITE, which appeared in Harper's Weekly. We have not touched on the affair beyond mentioning the mere fact of the dissatisfaction of the minority with Mr. WHITE's rulings, because it was very difficult to know what to say that would mend the matter either for Mr. WHITE or anybody else. Harper's Weekly is quite right in laying great stress on Mr. WHITE's character and antecedents as an answer to the Tribune's charges of unfairness. As to these, no man can stand higher. He took an active part in the politics of the State for some years before becoming President of Cornell University, and was the author or most active supporter of some of the best pieces of legislation of these latter years, and we believe nobody who ever heard of him did not consider his willingness to do political work, when so many men of his position were mere loungers in Europe, a piece of great good fortune for all of us. We all grumble so savagely or groan so pitifully over the unwillingness of educated men and men of fortune to touch politics, that certainly mere decency, if not gratitude, entitled Mr. WHITE to warm support and encouragement. Everything in his career since he left the State Senate has certainly strengthened his claim on public regard. We did not approve of the San Domingo scheme, and did not estimate very highly the Commissioners' report, but we did warmly approve of Mr. WHITE's willingness to be a Commissioner, because whenever such offices are to be filled we desire that such men as he, and not old political hacks and 'war-horses' and 'wheel-horses,' should fill them; and we believe that his character is such that no charge of intentional unfairness or double-dealing is to be entertained against him, except on such proof as is hardly ever forthcoming in support of such charges, and is, in our opinion, not forthcoming in the present case.

We confess frankly, however, that when we saw that he had consented to be President of the Syracuse Convention, we felt satisfied that he would come to grief. In the present condition of the Republican Party in this State, no man, no matter what his talents, character, or experience of politics, in the proper sense of the term, can successfully meddle between the two factions which divide it with the view either of reconciling them or holding the balance between them, unless he has personally mingled in their fights, and has personal knowledge of the strong and weak points of the warriors on both sides; and this for reasons we have given in another article. Moreover, Mr. WHITE's speech, which was highly laudatory of the Administration, must have exasperated the Fentonites, seeing that the principal Federal office-holder in this City, the famous TOM MURPHY of the Custom-house, is their deadliest foe, for whose scalp they may be said to have offered a reward. Finally, the State Committee, which, as we understand, in accordance with immemorial usage, furnished the President with the names of the committees, is also regarded by the Fentonites as an enemy and oppressor, and Mr. WHITE's adoption of its suggestions was in itself an offense to them, though the committees were never so fairly composed. Whether they were fairly composed, we do not take upon ourselves to say. We could not form a judgement on this question without studying deeply the character and watching closely the goings and comings of a body of men in this City for whom we entertain anything but feelings of respect. All this is about tantamount to saying that Mr. WHITE made a mistake in trying to decide between them. There is no ground to base mediation on—their differences are personal, and not political. When Bob says Hank is a thief, and Hank says Bob is a perjurer, what could you do to reconcile them, except prove that Hank is honest and that Bob tells the truth? This being impossible, there is nothing for it but to let them fight it out."

A Cultivated Taste.

There are ladies whose tastes lead them naturally to arrange flowers in a bouquet. There are the roses, the lilies, the heliotropes, the fuschias, the geraniums, and the green leaves. Without knowing why, simply from taste, these ladies will group these leaves and flowers into beauteous bunches. The rose is no prettier, nor is the fuschia more graceful, but the tout ensemble is charming. Taste did the work. No copyist could. The Gorham Company found silver and beautiful forms in vases, and flowers, and vines, and columns, and animals, and supposititious gods and goddesses, and forthwith, with artistic fingers, began to arrange them into congenial and beautiful groups. Wherever it worked, beauty grew apace beneath its hand. By degrees this work was accomplished, until now there is continually produced some new beauty, which is eagerly purchased. In a few years the Gorham ware will find its way into the houses of all who can afford to use silver, to the improvement of the taste and the comfort of our citizens. Messrs. STARR & MARCUS, No. 22 John-street, New-York, (upstairs,) offer to the public many pieces of silver-ware of rare beauty. Every article is designed in good taste, and wrought out by skillful hands. It would occupy too much space to give detailed descriptions, but a visit will gratify and astonish many who have not conceived of the artistic styles into which silver is wrought by the Gorham Company.—New-York Tribune.

STEINWAY & SONS'
GRAND, SQUARE AND UPRIGHT
PIANOS
WERE AWARDED THE
FIRST GRAND GOLD MEDAL
WORLDS' FAIR, PARIS, 1867, and LONDON, 1862.

The STEINWAY PIANOS are universally conceded to be THE LEADING FIRST-CLASS PIANO
now before the public. These instruments are preferred to all others by the most celebrated pianists. They are used by all the principal concert troupes whenever attainable. They have a truly "world-wide" reputation, being largely exported to Europe and all parts of the civilized world, and they are sought to be imitated by nearly all American and European Piano-makers.

STEINWAY & SONS' MAMMOTH MANUFACTORY
is the most perfectly-arranged and extensive establishment of its kind in the world. The published official revenue returns have revealed the fact that "the amount of their yearly sales exceed those of the twelve largest piano-makers of New-York combined."

STEINWAY & SONS call special attention to their
with double iron frame, patent resonator and tubular frame action, which are matchless in volume and quality of tone, and surpassing facility of action, while standing longer in tune and being more impervious to atmospheric influences than any other piano at present manufactured.

EVERY PIANO WARRANTED FOR FIVE YEARS.

Prices as low as the exclusive use of the best materials and most thorough workmanship will permit. Old Pianos taken in exchange, and illustrated catalogues, with price lists, mailed free on application.

THE CAUSE AND CURE OF CONSUMPTION.—The primary cause of Consumption is derangement of the digestive organs. This derangement produces deficient nutrition and assimilation. By assimilation, I mean that process by which the nutriment of the food is converted into blood, and thence into the solids of the body. Persons with digestion thus impaired, having the slightest predisposition to pulmonary disease, or if they take cold, will be very liable to have Consumption of the lungs in some of its forms; and I hold that it will be impossible to cure any case of Consumption without first restoring a good digestion and healthy assimilation. The very first thing to be done is to cleanse the stomach and bowels from all diseased mucus and slime which is clogging these organs so that they cannot perform their functions, and then rouse up and restore the liver to a healthy action. For this purpose, the surest and best remedy is Schenck's Mandrake Pills. These Pills clean the stomach and bowels of all the dead and morbid slime that is causing disease and decay in the whole system. They will clear out the liver of all diseased bile that has accumulated there, and arouse it up to a new and healthy action, by which natural and healthy bile is secreted.

The stomach, bowels, and liver are thus cleansed by the use of Schenck's Mandrake Pills; but there remains in the stomach an excess of acid, the organ is torpid and the appetite poor. In the bowels, the lacteals are weak, and requiring strength and support. It is in a condition like this that Schenck's Seaweed Tonic proves to be the most valuable remedy ever discovered. It is alkaline, and its use will neutralize all excess of acid, making the stomach sweet and fresh; it will give permanent tone to this important organ, and create a good, hearty appetite, and prepare the system for the first process of a good digestion, and ultimately make good, healthy, living blood. After this preparatory treatment, what remains to cure most cases of Consumption is the free and persevering use of Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup. The Pulmonic Syrup nourishes the system, purifies the blood, and is readily absorbed into the circulation, and thence distributed to the diseased lungs. There it ripens all morbid matters, whether in the form of abscesses or tubercles, and then assists nature to expel all the diseased matter in the form of free expectoration, when once it ripens. It is then by the great healing and purifying properties of Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, that all ulcers and cavities are healed up sound, and my patient is cured.

The essential thing to be done in curing Consumption is to get up a good appetite and a good digestion, so that the body will grow in flesh and get strong. If a person has diseased lungs, a cavity or abscess there, the cavity cannot heal, the matter cannot ripen, so long as the system is below par. What is necessary to cure is a new order of things, a good appetite, a good nutrition, the body to grow in flesh and get fat; then nature is helped, the cavities will heal, the matter will ripen and be thrown off in large quantities, and the person regain health and strength. This is the true and only plan to cure Consumption, and if a person is very bad, if the lungs are not entirely destroyed, or even if one lung is entirely gone, if there is enough vitality left in the other to heal up, there is hope.

I have seen many persons cured with only one sound lung live and enjoy life to a good old age. This is what Schenck's Medicines will do to cure Consumption. They will clean out the stomach, sweeten and strengthen it, get up a good digestion, and give nature the assistance she needs to clear the system of all the disease that is in the lungs, whatever the form may be.

It is important that, while using Schenck's Medicines, care should be exercised not to take cold; keep in doors in cool and damp weather; avoid night air, and take outdoor exercise only in a genial and warm sunshine.

I wish it distinctly understood that when I recommend a patient to be careful in regard to taking cold while using my medicines, I do so for a special reason. A man who has but partially recovered from the effects of a bad cold is far more liable to a relapse than one who has been entirely cured, and it is precisely the same in regard to Consumption. So long as the lungs are not perfectly healed, just so long is there imminent danger of a full return of the disease. Hence it is that I so strenuously caution pulmonary patients against exposing themselves to an atmosphere that is not genial and pleasant. Confirmed consumptives' lungs are a mass of sores, which the least change of atmosphere will inflame. The grand secret of my success with my medicines consists in my ability to subdue inflammation instead of provoking it, as many of the Faculty do. An inflamed lung cannot with safety to the patient be exposed to the biting blasts of Winter or the chilling winds of Spring or Autumn. It should be carefully shielded from all irritating influences. The utmost caution should be observed in this particular, as without it a cure under almost any circumstances is an impossibility.

The person should be kept on a wholesome and nutritious diet, and all the medicines continued until the body has restored to it the natural quantity of flesh and strength.

I was myself cured by this treatment of the worst kind of Consumption, and have lived to get fat and hearty these many years, with one lung mostly gone. I have cured thousands since, and very many have been cured by this treatment whom I have never seen.

About the 1st of October I expect to take possession of my new building at the northeast corner of Sixth and Arch streets, where I shall be pleased to give advice to all who may require it.

Full directions accompany all my remedies, so that a person in any part of the world can be readily cured by a strict observance of the same.

TO THE CONSUMPTIVE.—LET THOSE who languish under the fatal severity of our climate through any pulmonary complaint, or even those who are in decided consumption, by no means despair. There is a safe and sure remedy at hand, and one easily tried. WILBOR'S COMPOUND OF COD-LIVER OIL AND LIME, without possessing the very nauseating flavor of the oil as heretofore used, is endowed by the phosphate of lime with a healing property which renders the oil doubly efficacious. Remarkable testimonials of its efficacy can be exhibited to those who desire to see them. For sale by A. B. WILBOR, chemist, No. 166 Court-st., Boston.

TO THE BOOK TRADE AND THE PUBLIC.

The great favor with which our
JUVENILE CLASSICS
have been received by both old and young; and the flattering literary criticisms from many of our most prominent and high-toned journals, both secular and religious, have prompted us to give greater variety and beauty of illustration to the splendid works in oil-color painting produced by THE RUTHERFORD PARK PRESS.

We aim to couple artistic excellence and originality of design with instruction and amusement for children and youth, in which neither pains nor expense will be spared.

The New-York Tribune says:

"A new series of attractive books for the young has been issued from the Rutherford Park Press by R. SHUGG & Co., under the title of "Juvenile Classics," which will command attention by their elegance of illustration and typography, and the adaptation of their contents to youthful tastes. The enterprise of the Rutherford Park Press appears to be a novel venture in juvenile literature, and from the good taste and agreeable character of the present specimens, it bids fair to take a prominent place in the specialty in which it has made so handsome a start.

The New-York Evening Post says:

Messrs. R. SHUGG & Co., of No. 53 Chatham-st., have brought out, in rich variety and gay attire for the holidays, many illustrated books and pamphlets which will make the nursery riotous with merriment. A silhouette series comprising "Cock Robin," "John Gilpin," "Simple Simon," and other favorite ballads, a collection of "Fables," with engravings in colors; "The Adventures of Little Fantasy," and a gorgeous folio all about "Little Workers," such as butterflies, bees, moths, spiders, &c., "God's little creatures that work without hands," make up a collection of wonderful interest and attractions.

The New-York Observer says:

Juvenile Classics.—The neatest and most attractive picture-books for children are made at the Rutherford Park Press, by R. SHUGG & Co. They include some of the oldest and most popular ballads, with the most amusing illustrations, and the presswork and cuts are so beautifully executed that they leave nothing to be desired, and cannot fail to be vastly popular for Christmas books, and indeed, for all the year round. The Rutherford Park Press, producing such gems of art as these, will make for itself a name quite as widely known as the "Riverside" and "University."

PROPOSALS.

POST-OFFICE AND UNITED STATES COURT-HOUSE,
NEW-YORK CITY,
OFFICE OF SUPERINTENDENT, Oct. 21, 1871.

WROUGHT AND CAST-IRON WORK.

Sealed proposals will be received at the office of the Superintendent until 12 M., Nov. 9, 1871, for furnishing, delivering, fitting, and putting in place the wrought and cast-iron work exhibited in plans, specifications, and schedules now in this office, consisting of rolled-iron beams, channel-irons, angle and T-irons, tie-rods, boiler-iron plates, angle and fish plates, bolts, rivets, &c., and cast-iron columns, pilasters, cornices, brackets, bed plates &c.

The work of the columns, pilasters, rolled-iron beams, &c., to third story, must be furnished, delivered, fitted, and put in place as rapidly as required by the Superintendent or the progress of the work, the whole to be completed and put in place by July 4, 1872.

The contractors will be permitted the use of the dericks and engines in putting the work in place without charge, but will be required to pay the time of the men employed in working them, who will be furnished by the Department, when required.

All scaffolding to be furnished by the contractors.

Proposals will be made by the piece, lineal foot or by weight, for the various beams, channel irons, castings, &c., as provided for in the schedules.

The work will not be subdivided among different bidders, but will be considered in the aggregate.

Payments will be made monthly, deducting ten per cent. until the final completion of the contract.

All bids must be accompanied by a penal bond, in the sum of $50,000, that the bidder will accept and perform the contract, if awarded him, the sufficiency of the security to be certified by the United States Judge, Clerk of the United States Court, or District-Attorney of the district where he resides.

The Department reserves the right to reject any or all bids, if it be deemed for the interest of the Government to do so; and any bid that is not made on the printed form to be obtained in this office, and does not conform in every respect to the requirements of this advertisement, will not be considered; neither will any proposals be received from parties who are not themselves engaged in the manufacture of cast or wrought-iron work, and who have not the necessary facilities for getting out the work.

Proposals will be indorsed "Bids for Iron Work," and addressed to CALVIN T. HULBURD, Superintendent.

PROPOSALS FOR IRON FRAME BARRACK BUNKS.

QUARTERMASTER-GENERAL'S OFFICE,
WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 8, 1871.

Sealed proposals in duplicate, with copy of this advertisement attached, will be received at this office until 12 o'clock noon, the 20th day of October, 1871, for the manufacture of such number, not exceeding 12,000, of Iron Frame single Barrack Bunks, as may be required for the use of the United States Army, during the present fiscal year, in accordance with the two patterns adopted by the War Department.

Plans and specifications of the adopted patterns may be seen at this office, and at the offices of the Depot Quartermasters at New-York, Philadelphia, Boston, Louisville, St. Louis, Chicago and Pittsburg.

Proposals will state distinctly at what point the bunks will be delivered to officers of the Quartermaster's Department for transportation; the price per bunk complete; as also for iron-work complete, but without the wooden slats.

The right is reserved to reject all bids offered; as also to contract for such number of each or either pattern, as may be deemed advisable by the Quartermaster-General. Each bid must be accompanied by a guarantee of at least two responsible persons, that in case the bid is accepted, and a contract entered into, they will become sureties in a sum equal to one-fourth of the amount of the contract, for its faithful fulfillment.

Proposals to be indorsed "Proposals for Iron Frame Bunks," and addressed to the Quartermaster-General of the Army, Washington, D. C.

An error in the published engraving of the composite iron army bunk having been discovered, the opening of bids above advertised, for the 20th of October, is postponed till the 31st of October, at 12 o'clock M., to enable bidders to substitute amended proposals.

The total length of the posts of the bunk should be engraved 3 feet 0¾ inches, instead of 3 feet 11¼ inches.
M. C. MEIGS,
Quartermaster-General,
Brevet Major-General United States Army.

OFFICE A. C. S., FORT COLUMBUS, N. Y. H.,
Oct. 20, 1871.

SEALED PROPOSALS, IN DUPLICATE, will be received at this office until 12 M., Nov. 20, 1871, for furnishing the fresh beef required by the Subsistence Department, United States Army, at this station, during the six months commencing Jan. 1, 1872. Information as to conditions, quality of beef, payments, &c., can be obtained by application to R. G. RUTHERFORD, Second Lieutenant Twelfth United States Infantry, A. C. S.

LEGAL NOTICES.

NEW-YORK SUPREME COURT, COUNTY OF MONROE.—THE UNION TRUST COMPANY OF NEW-YORK, Plaintiff, vs. THE ROCHESTER WATER-WORKS COMPANY and others, defendants.—In pursuance and by virtue of the provisions of a judgment of foreclosure and sale, rendered in the above-entitled action, at the Special Term of the Supreme Court of the State of New-York, held in and for the Seventh Judicial District thereof, at the Court-house, in the City of Rochester, in the County of Monroe, on the 2d day of October, A. D. 1871, I, Benjamin H. Bayliss, the referee named in the said judgment, and therein authorized and appointed to make inquiry, take proof, and ascertain and report to the said Court how many of the bonds of the defendant, The Rochester Water-works Company, mentioned in and secured by the mortgage of the said defendant, The Rochester Water-works Company to the Union Trust Company, of New-York, and which bears date the first day of May, A. D. 1869, and given to secure the payment of the bonds of the said The Rochester Water-works Company, of even date with the said mortgage, the principal and interest whereof is payable in gold coin, have been issued by the said The Rochester Water-works Company, and are now outstanding, and by whom the same are respectively held and owned, and the amounts due and owing to the several and respective holders thereof for the unpaid interest or coupons of and upon the said several bonds or any or either of them, and also the amounts owing upon the said several bonds, or either or any of them, for principal, Do hereby give notice to all persons holding any of the said bonds, or any of the coupons thereof, that they are, pursuant to the provisions of the said judgment, hereby required to produce or exhibit to me, as such referee, at my office, No. 120 Broadway, in the City of New-York, within three months from the date of the first publication of this notice (to wit, the 27th day of October, A. D. 1871,) the said bonds or coupons and to make proof either by their examination before me or by affidavit, or such other proof as may be satisfactory to me as such referee, to establish the ownership of the said bonds and coupons and the amount due, owing and unpaid upon said bonds or coupons respectively for principal and interest, which said affidavit in case of any of the holders residing out of or being absent from the said State of New-York may be made and taken before any officer of the State or country where the said several non-residents or absent holders of the said bonds or coupons may be or reside, authorized by law to administer oaths. Also that in case the holders of any of the said bonds shall fail to produce or exhibit the same to me as such referee and to make proof or affidavit as aforesaid within the said period of three months from the date of the first publication, (to wit, the 27th day of October, 1871,) of this notice, then that they be precluded from sharing in the proceeds of the sale of the said mortgaged property and premises. Notice is also further given that, on application to the undersigned, in person or by letter, in case of holders of any of the bonds, not residing in the City and County of New-York, printed forms of affidavit in reference to the ownership of said bonds and coupons, and the amount due, owing and unpaid thereon for principal and interest, will be furnished to such holders.—Dated New-York City, Oct. 27, 1871.

CIRCULAR.

TO THE HOLDERS OF THE SEVERAL CLASSES OF BONDS OF THE JACKSON, LANSING AND SAGINAW RAILROAD COMPANY.

Whereas, By an agreement between the Michigan Central and the Jackson, Lansing and Saginaw Railroad Companies, the road of the last-named Company is to be worked by the Michigan Central in future; and by the terms of that agreement, and for the purpose of extending the Jackson, Lansing and Saginaw Road northerly, a new and consolidated mortgage is to be put upon the road for such an amount as will provide both a sufficient fund for the extension of the road as far north as the Straits of Mackinac, and also for the exchange of all outstanding bonds under previous mortgages, for the bonds under the new mortgage of a similar kind; that, by the terms of the agreement, as may be done under the laws of Michigan, the Michigan Central Railroad Company may make its own bonds, to be secured by the same mortgage as the Jackson, Lansing and Saginaw, and issue the same in lieu of those of the Jackson, Lansing and Saginaw, if it should prefer so to do. That whether it does so or not will depend upon the action of those who hold the several classes of bonds already issued under the several mortgages upon the Jackson, Lansing and Saginaw Road; that if the holders of these bonds shall elect to exchange them for the bonds of the Michigan Central, secured by a single first mortgage on the Jackson, Lansing and Saginaw, then it will issue its own bonds for the extension of the road, and also for exchange for the outstanding bonds of the Jackson, Lansing and Saginaw Railroad Company, and otherwise not; and in order that it may determine whether it will or will not issue its own bonds under said mortgage, it is necessary that the holders shall signify, at an early day, their disposition in the matter.

The bonds of the Michigan Central Railroad Company, to be issued, will be in sums of one thousand dollars each, and dated Nov. 1, 1871, payable in twenty-five years, interest at eight per cent., free of Government tax, payable semi-annually at its office in Boston.

When exchange is made, it will be at par, interest to be adjusted.

Therefore, all holders of the bonds of the Jackson, Lansing and Saginaw Railroad Company desirous of making the exchange as herein provided, will please notify ISAAC LIVERMORE, Treasurer of the Michigan Central Railroad Company, at Boston, on or before the 10th day of December, 1871.

BOSTON, Oct. 10, 1871.

$600,000

OF THE SEVEN PER CENT. FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS OF THE SOUTH CAROLINA RAILROAD COMPANY,
Principal due 1st January, 1888, and coupons payable in New-York 1st January and 1st July.

These bonds are the only mortgage lien on the railway and rolling stock of the corporation, and are for less than $13,000 per mile.

The gross receipts of the Company for 1870 amounted to $1,468,340 53-100; operating expenses and renewals, $916,096 82; showing a profit of $552,244 71, or $335,244 71 in excess of its annual interest of Seven per Cent. on $3,100,000 first mortgage bonds.

The South Carolina Railway is one of the earliest-built railways in the United States; its affairs have ever been managed with care and integrity, and the present condition of the property is that of complete restoration. We recommend its mortgage bonds to investors, with the assurance of their being a first-class security.

The above are offered for sale by the undersigned at 87½ per cent.

Holders of Five-Twenties

WHO WISH TO INCREASE THEIR INCOME
WITHOUT RISK,

Can obtain from us any of the best descriptions of Railroad Bonds for cash, or in exchange for Government Securities. We have the Bonds of the

Rondout and Oswego Railroad

FOR SALE.

These bonds are in good demand, and we recommend them as safe and most remunerative. The popularity of these Bonds is partly due to the fact that the interest is not paid out of capital, as has to be done by some other incipient enterprises. The Rondout and Oswego Railroad Company are doing a prosperous business. The net earnings of the road already amount to 10 per cent. on all the Bonds to be issued. Fifty miles are now in operation, and the remaining fifty miles will be opened next Summer, fifteen miles being almost finished. The road passes through a rich agricultural district heretofore shut out from railroad facilities; its local traffic is, and will be, good; while its connections will give it a large through traffic between the great lakes and deep-water navigation on the Hudson. The nearness of the road to this City allows its true condition to be examined and thoroughly known by the bondholder. By procuring these Bonds in exchange for Five-twenties, the investor gets a Bond equally sound and safe; he also adds to his capital more than 25 per cent.; while to his income he adds more than 47½ per cent.

THE NEW-YORK CLICHY.

The Anticipated General Delivery of Ludlow-Street Jail—Who the Prisoners Are, and What They are in For.

The movement on the part of Assistant District-Attorney SULLIVAN to bring to the attention of the Court of Oyer and Terminer the large number of prisoners who are detained in Ludlow-street Prison for long periods of time, without the remotest hope of ever complying with the formal terms of release, is generally regarded as well-timed, and the subject one which has long claimed judicial attention. It is well known that through the cunning of sharp practitioners at the Bar, and the unscrupulousness of greedy creditors in making affidavits, hardly a case of ordinary indebtedness can arise that cannot be brought within the letter of the exceptional statutes authorizing arrest for debt. By this means the spirit of the Constitution abolishing imprisonment for debt has practically become a dead letter, and indebtedness made more effectually a crime in the State of New-York, today, than in any country in Europe, whence the barbarism was borrowed originally.

Among the prisoners whose cases will probably be presented to the Court on Monday next, the following, with a few of the facts in each case, have been selected from the report of Warden TRACY to Sheriff BRENNAN:

SAMUEL OPPENHEIMER has been imprisoned since Jan 5, 1870. He is held on ten different processes, representing in the aggregate bail to the amount of $52,250. Unless Judge BARNARD interferes, the probabilities are that death alone will bring him a release.

JOHN C. MCQUHAE has been imprisoned since Feb. 21, 1871, under an unsatisfied execution for $6,602 65. He claims to be utterly insolvent, and has long been ill.

HORACE BONE has been imprisoned since April 18, 1871. He claims that he could have been discharged at any time under the Insolvent act, but that he has had no money to fee counsel.

BERRIAN GRAY has been imprisoned since April 20, 1871, under an order of arrest and in default of $600 bail. He says he has no money, no friends, not even a change of clothing. He is charged with representing himself a member of a Southern firm of the same name, and obtaining goods and paying in forged paper.

WM. HOFFMAN has been imprisoned since May 24, 1871. He is held under fourteen different processes, requiring bail in the aggregate to the sum of $73,600. His affairs are in the hands of counsel.

MORRIS BERNSTEIN has been imprisoned since May 21, 1871, held under execution in three suits, amounting to $541 35. He thinks he ought to be released, but has not seen his counsel for months.

JEREMIAH O'DONOHOE has been imprisoned since May 11, 1871. He is held under an order of arrest in default of $400 bail. He has a wife and three children living in a cellar in Hudson-avenue, Brooklyn, who are destitute. The wife and children have been supported some time from the prison, other prisoners subscribing to pay her rent. O'DONOHOE claims to be in for appropriating four sewing-machines, which he bought under what is known as the "no title until paid" system, and on which he only paid a part. The whole debt is $100, to earn which, however, Clichy affords JERRY a somewhat hopeless opportunity.

EDWARD F. HEWLETT has been imprisoned since June 12, 1871 under an order of arrest in default of $4,000 bail.

CHARLES A. BERGMAN has been imprisoned since July 21, 1871, under six orders of arrest, in default of bail to the amount of $2,600. He says he left New-York to go to Germany, expecting to get money there to pay his debts but failed. He returned to New-York and called upon his creditors to tell them of the condition of his affairs. His creditors immediately had him placed in Ludlow-street Jail, in the belief doubtless that he would be more successful in obtaining the money there than he had been in fatherland.

THOMAS SLATTERLY has been imprisoned since July 29, 1871, under an order of arrest in default of $1,000 bail. The suit against him is one to recover damages by his landlord. He can, in his judgment, neither give bail now or hereafter.

GEORGE W. HANCOCK has been imprisoned since Aug. 12, 1871, under an order of arrest in default of $600 bail. He says he is a Texan stock-raiser, and if he could go home, could and would raise the money to pay. Here he can do nothing; and Warden TRACY reports that he seems to tell the truth.

FRANK L. NORTON has been imprisoned since Aug. 18, 1871, under an order of arrest in default of bail to the amount of $4,000. He has no counsel, no money, no friends, but a wife and three children. The Warden reports him as a respectable man, who could be discharged on proper application.

J. SILVIO DURAND has been imprisoned since Aug. 19, 1871, under an execution for $685.

GEORGE T. COBB has been imprisoned since Aug. 25, 1871, in default of $1,000 bail, in a suit by the Southern Express Company.

M. MARKHEIM has been imprisoned since Aug. 28, 1871.

THEODORE KUNGMAN has been imprisoned since Aug. 28, 1871, on a debt of $250. He, with a number of others similarly situated, and in for about the same amount, tells the same story of no money, no friends, no lawyer.

Warden TRACY further states in his report that not a few of these prisoners have been sadly imposed upon by sharp lawyers, who have pretended to be engaged in procuring their liberation. The prison is without suitable accommodations for the sick, and no provision has ever been made for their removal to any hospital where suitable treatment can be afforded. Mr. SULLIVAN is making a full investigation into all the cases brought to his notice, and doubtless in all such recommended for discharge, the Court will exercise a liberal construction of its authority in this respect.

AMERICAN BIBLE UNION.

The Twenty-second Anniversary—Second Day's Proceedings.

The second day's session of the American Bible Union commenced yesterday morning in the Oliver-street Church. The Secretary read a letter from Dr. GEORGE B. IDE, regretting his inability to be present, owing to the annual report not being finished. Afterward other minor business was transacted, and the report of the Committee on the Revised Book of Proverbs, read by Dr. WALWORTH, adopted. The translator and reviser being present, stated that his whole aim in his labor was to adhere as closely to the Hebrew text as possible. No word was introduced, nor was any omitted, so far as he knew, in the translation. After a few remarks from Dr. EATON, late President of the Madison University, the session adjourned.

On the Union assembling in the afternoon, the reports from the Committee on the Circulation of Scriptures; on the Tologos Translation; the Book of Psalms; the Italian Scriptures, all of which were severally discussed by the members and unanimously adopted. An interesting account was afterward read, showing what was being done among the freedmen of the South. Rev. Mr. EVANS also read a letter, which he had received from Rome, asking aid from the Society in the shape of Bibles and religious works. On which subject Rev. Mr. VAN MEEKER, of the Howard Mission, delivered a stirring address, advocating that the works should be sent as soon as the Society's means would allow. On motion of the Secretary it was unanimously resolved that the sincere and earnest thanks of the Union be extended to the pastor and ladies of the Oliver-street Baptist Church, for the kindness and hospitality they had extended to the Union while in session. In the evening Rev. THOMAS ARMITAGE, D. D., delivered a discourse upon "Verbal Inspiration of the Scriptures." The preacher took for his text the second chapter of First Corinthians, thirteenth verse: "Not in words that man's wisdom teacheth, but the Holy Spirit teacheth." At the conclusion of the sermon the Union adjourned sine die.

The Murdered Swede—Verdict of the Coroner's Jury.

The body of the Swedish miner who was murdered last week, near Franklin Furnace in Sussex County, N. J., has been interred at Sparta, where his family reside. The name of the murdered man, which was not reported last week, was JOHN A. CARLSEN. He left Franklin Post-office on Monday of last week with about $40 in his pocket, which he was taking home to his family. He was never again seen alive, and his body was not found until, three or four days afterward, it was discovered partially concealed in a hole in the woods, horribly mutilated. Justice MORRIS HOPPAUGH commenced an inquest which has at last been concluded by a verdict that the deceased came to his death "by reason of blows from some person or persons unknown to the jury." It was, however, proved that he was followed from the Post-office by a man who could not be identified, and it was also shown by the trail through the woods, and the blood spilled upon the fallen leaves, that after being murdered the body was dragged several hundred feet to the hole where it was finally hidden. These facts showed that the murderer was probably acquainted intimately with the locality.

Considerable excitement still exists among the Swedish miners and laborers employed upon the Midland Railroad, and a vigorous search for the murderer is being prosecuted.

Masonic Celebration at New-Brunswick—Laying of a Corner-Stone of a New Temple.

New-Brunswick was yesterday full of Masonic societies from different parts of the State, congregated to witness the laying of the corner-stone of a new Masonic temple. Lodges from Newark, Trenton, Jersey City, Paterson, Elizabeth and other towns throughout the State were in the city dressed in regalia, and the streets of the city, damp and dreary though the day was, were crowded with spectators. Over 1,000 masons were in line of procession, led by four bands of music. The corner-stone of the temple, which is to be one of the most costly and imposing buildings in the State, was laid with full Masonic ceremonies. The oration was delivered by Rev. D. H. MILLER, of Elizabeth. After the conclusion of the ceremonies the Masons sat down to a dinner, which had been prepared by the New-Brunswick lodges.

THE TRIENNIEL CONVENTION.

The Proposed Canon on the Ritual Lost—Twentieth Days' Proceedings.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 26.—As predicted in my dispatch of last week, the Episcopal General Convention has not adopted the proposed ritual canon, but has left the whole subject just as they found it. The debate has probably been one of the most full and able ever heard in any church council on this continent, and has been throughout characterized by the greatest courtesy, brotherly kindness and charity. There was great unanimity in condemning extreme ritualism, but many were opposed to some of the provisions of the proposed canon, and after a crowded session, continuing till 1 o'clock this morning, it failed to pass for want of a constitutional majority of the clerical vote. The fact that individual members of the Convention have ordered from the publishers in New-York 300 copies of the forthcoming works of Judge HOFFMAN on the ritual law of the Church, and Rev. Dr. FULTON on the ancient councils and canons, indicates that churchmen are fully determined to thoroughly investigate this whole subject.

Dispatch to the Associated Press.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 21.—Last night's session of the Episcopal Convention voted the canon on the Ritual, as reported by the Special Committee and passed by the House of Bishops, which was lost for want of a constitutional majority, the vote being taken by dioceses and orders. The result was as follows: Clerical—For, 20; against, 13; divided, 7. Lay—For, 18; against, 14; divided, 2. The House was in session until 1 o'clock this morning.

The Convention reassembled at 0 o'clock this morning.

The Committee on Canons submitted a report on the organization of churches or congregations in foreign countries, recommending that this House concur with the House of Bishops in the amendments proposed by them in section 3, canon 5, title 3, with certain amendments by the Committee. The report was adopted and the resolutions of the House of Bishops, as amended, concurred in.

The amended canon prescribes the conditions under which a church or congregation in any foreign country, other than Great Britain or Ireland, and the Colonies and dependencies thereof, and not within the limits of any missionary Bishop of this Church, may organize; such church organization to recognize and accede to the constitution, canons, doctrine, discipline and worship of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States. The House then proceeded, with closed doors, in secret session, to consider the nomination of Rev. WM. HOBART HARE, of Pennsylvania, as Missionary Bishop at Cape Palmas, Africa. It is understood that the confirmation was opposed by the friends of the reverend gentleman, on the ground of the great value of his services in his present office of Secretary of the Foreign Committee of the Board of Missions, and the very serious injury which would be done to the foreign missionary work of the Church by his withdrawal from said office; and a message was adopted and sent to the House of Bishops requesting them to appoint a committee of conference on the subject of the nomination. Committees were appointed by both Houses, and at 12½ P. M. Rev. Dr. HAIGHT, of New-York, from the Committee on Conference, reported to this House that the House of Bishops, after hearing the reasons of the House of Deputies, had decided to withdraw the name of Rev. WILLIAM HOBART HARE, and will not now make any further nomination. Provision is made by the canon for filling the vacancy of the House of Bishops.

The canon designed to prevent alienation of the Church buildings and property by those not in accordance with the doctrine and discipline of the Protestant Episcopal Church was taken up and passed.

The message from the House of Bishops proposing a joint committee to determine and report the form of service to be used at schools, colleges, Bible-classes, hospitals, college lectures and missionary meetings, was taken up, and after considerable discussion the whole subject was laid on the table.

The resolution reported by the Committee on Payer-book that any deviation from the standard edition is unlawful, was taken up and discussed.

Rev. Dr. GOODWIN, of Pennsylvania, moved as a substitute that the insertion in the editions of the Book of Common Prayer of unauthorized italic letters, or any change of punctuation, or of any musical notation, or of any additional words whatever is unlawful"—which was adopted.

A memorial and resolutions relative to the division of the Diocese of Illinois into three dioceses was referred to the Committee on New Dioceses. The resolution of Judge BATTLE, of North Carolina, providing for the office of Suffragan Bishops, was indefinitely postponed. The resolutions offered by Mr. WELSH, of Philadelphia, providing, the House of Bishops concurring, that this House appoint a standing committee on Indian Affairs, composed of six laymen, to co-operate with the Board of Missions, in response to the request of the Chief Magistrate of the United States, asking the cooperation of this Church and other religious bodies in the Church, for promoting the civilization of the Indians, was taken up and passed.

The following message was received from the House of Bishops:

The House of Bishops informs the House of Clerical and Lay Deputies that it has adopted the following resolution:

Resolved, That the House of Clerical and Lay Deputies concurring, the following canon be adopted and enacted, to be entitled Canon ——: The elevation of the elements in the Holy Communion in such manner as to expose them to the view of the people as objects toward which adoration is to be made, in or after the prayer of consecration, or in the act of administering them, or in carrying them to or from the communicants; and any gesture, posture or act implying such adoration; and any ceremony not prescribed as part of the order of the administration of the Lord's Supper, or Holy Communion, in the Book of Common Prayer, and the celebration or reception of the Holy Communion by any Bishop or priest when no person receives with him; likewise the use at any administration of the Holy Communion of any hymns, prayers, collects, epistles or gospels other than those appointed in the authorized formularies of the Church, or under section 14 of canon 13, title 1, of the Digest, are hereby forbidden.

A motion to concur was debated.

After animated and somewhat excited discussion, a motion that the vote on concurring in the message from the Bishops be taken at 4 o'clock, was carried in the affirmative, the vote being taken by dioceses. The debate was then continued until 4 o'clock, when the vote on concurring in the resolution of the House of Bishops, proposing a canon on ritual, was taken by dioceses, and resulted as follows: Clerical, yeas, 17; nays, 18; divided, 4. Lay vote—yeas, 18; nays, 12; divided, 3.

Dr. LYMAN, of California, offered the following:

Resolved, The House of Bishops concurring, that this Convention hereby express its decided condemnation of all ceremonies, observances and practices which are fitted to express a doctrine foreign to that set forth in the authorized standards of this Church.

Resolved, That in the judgment of this House, the paternal counsel and the advice of our right reverend fathers, the Bishops of the Church, is deemed sufficient at this time to secure the suppression of all that is irregular and unseemly, and to promote greater uniformity in conducting the public worship of the Church and in the administration of the holy sacraments.

The resolutions were adopted almost unanimously.

Messages were received from the House of Bishops concurring in the action of the House of Deputies in its amendments to Canon 4, Title 2, relative to the restoration to the ministry of clergymen who have been deposed for other than reasons affecting their moral character. Also concurring in the action of the House of Deputies in amending section 5, canon 13, title 1, relative to the appointment of Assistant Bishops in dioceses where, by reason of the extent of territory, due episcopal supervision cannot be exercised by the Bishop. Also, concurring in the resolution of this House relative to the unauthorized editions of the Book of Common Prayer.

A message from the House of Bishops, that this Convention adjourn, sine die, at 10½ to-night, was amended to 12 o'clock to-night, and adopted.

A message from the House of Bishops, that the City of New-York be the place of meeting of the next triennial Convention, was concurred in.

Adjourned to 7 o'clock.

At the evening session an attempt was made to bring up the ritual question again, but it was ruled out of order. The Bishops assented to the election of assistant bishops in Texas and California, concurring in the resolution condemning ceremonies not agreeing with authorized standards of the Church.

A New National Bureau of Migration.

A public meeting, under the auspices of the National Bureau of Migration, was held last evening, at Co-operative Hall. Mr. HENRY S. DRAYTON, the Assistant Secretary of the Association, briefly stated the object of the organization. He said it is the purpose of this Bureau to hold frequent meetings in different parts of the country, to appoint agents in all the principal localities of emigration in this and other countries, and to labor for the settlement of the public lands under the Homestead and Preemption laws of the United States. The Bureau will also promote the establishment of a labor depot in each settlement or colony it may found, and it will also undertake to procure labor helps of all kinds for employers, but with the understanding that the employment is to be temporary, and that the persons employed are, as soon as may be, to become united with some colony or homestead settlement enterprise the Bureau is promoting. At the conclusion of this review of the object of the association, several gentlemen interested in the welfare of the association spoke as to its tangibility and usefulness. The Executive Committee of the Bureau is composed of gentlemen representing every interest and nationality. The Bureau will hold meetings in future on every Thursday evening, for the purpose of discussing the advantages of various tracts of land, and for generally furthering the object in view. Emigrants who wish to join this society can be received at once.

CHICAGO.

The Observatory—Losses of the City Government—The Bricklayers and Masons—What Relief is Needed—Forty Thousand Persons Supported by the Aid Society.

CHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 26.—It is feared that the operations of the Chicago Observatory, which contains the famous Clark telescope, will have to be suspended, owing to the want of funds to continue them. The Corporation of the City of Chicago loses by the fire property valued at $5,000,000, consisting of bridges, buildings, damages to the water-works, destruction of engines, hose and other property. The damage to street improvements, which falls upon the abutters, is not included. The Evening Journal says that it is now believed that a large number of the persons burned were thieves, who, in their anxiety for plunder, remained in the buildings until escape was cut off. The bricklayers and masons are endeavoring to form an organization in which each member shall pledge himself to work at the ordinary day's wages, for the purpose of rebuilding the city; it is also their wish that each should work under the supervision of an architect, and not for contractors, as the latter charge exhorbitant prices for work and say the masons compel them to do so. The Chicago Relief and Aid Society receive numerous inquiries as to what is most needed by the sufferers in Chicago at present; many letters say that persons are desirous of contributing articles who cannot well send money. In reference to all such proposed contributions the Society wish to say:

That nothing is so much needed now as beans, potatoes and onions. They are advised by the Sanitary Committee that the people must have these articles if they expect to escape sickness. The Society are informed that many farmers would be glad to contribute these articles, and they ask all persons who can to ship beans or onions or potatoes to them to do so. By a little proper attention car-loads can be made up at different places for shipment. The Society also want straw beds of the usual size for two persons, and friends in the country are requested to furnish as many as they can. The ticking should be of strong material filled with straw or prairie hay. The Society are feeding and caring for over 40,000 people at the present time, with a very small stock of vegetables on hand, and but little coming in.

(Signed,) WIRT DEXTER,
Chairman of the Committee.

Ex-Gov. WM. DENNISON, of Ohio; Gen. GEO. W. WRIGHT, of the United States Army, and Hon. GEO. B. LINDERMAN, of Pennsylvania, are at the St. Nicholas Hotel.

JOSEPH HOWARD, a clerk, was committed yesterday, at the Tombs Police Court, for stealing five pieces of cotton goods, worth $32, from HENRY R. THOMPSON, No. 103 Franklin-street.

At the Jefferson Market Police Court, yesterday, CONSTANT L. THERAULT was committed for stabbing EMILE BENIER, of No. 519 Broome-street.

EDWARD R. MYERS, aged thirty-five years, died yesterday at Park Hospital from concussion of the brain received on Wednesday by falling down stairs at No. 101 William-street.

MORRIS ABRAHAM, keeper of a second-hand store at No. 274 Seventh-avenue, has been arrested on a charge of receiving goods stolen from the store of JAMES B. DEMOREST, No. 266 Eighth-avenue.

JOHN E. CROSS, of No. 122 Henry-street, was committed, yesterday, by Justice HOGAN, on a charge of assaulting Patrolman DOWNS, Fourth Precinct, with a knife, inflicting a severe wound in his neck.

At the Essex Market Police Court, yesterday, ELIZABETH MCCARTHY was charged by her mistress, HENRIETTA SMITH, of No. 253 Bowery, with having stolen $60. She was committed for examination.

Mr. CHANCE, United States Consul, at Nassau, N. P.; Judge G. P. PELTON, of Poughkeepsie; Gov. BULLOCK, of Georgia, and Gen. GEO. W. WILLIAMSON, of the United States Army, are at the Fifth-avenue Hotel.

LOUISA F. SHAW appeared before Commissioner BETTS, yesterday, and put in her claims for informer's fees in regard to a quantity of human hair, worth about $6,000, seized for undervaluation.

MARY KEHOE, fifty years of age, died yesterday at No. 37 West Eighteenth-street from injuries received from being knocked down by horses attached to a coach driven by CHAS. MCKENNA, of No. 481 Cherry-street.

Judge WOODRUFF, in the United States Circuit Court, yesterday, said that in appeals in bankruptcy he would not render a decision until all the points in the case had been passed upon by the Court below. The object is to prevent a multiplicity of appeals in one case.

Rev. Dr. THOMPSON will preach his farewell sermon at the Broadway Tabernacle Church, Thirty-fourth-street, on Sunday morning next, at 10½ o'clock, when he will render his acknowledgement of the munificent gift to him of $55,000 by his congregation.

The many friends of Ex-Sheriff KELLY will rejoice to learn that he has returned from his European trip, in better health than he ever before enjoyed. He has entirely recovered from the nervous prostration of which he was a victim for so long a period.

The stench which is chronic in South-street, opposite the fish market, only finds a parallel in that at Fulton Ferry at low tide. The sewer emptying into the river which causes this was to have been removed, but no steps apparently have yet been taken in the matter.

Coroner HERRMAN held an inquest yesterday in the case of DETTMER BELLMER, who was found dead on the roof of No. 200 Greenwich-street. It appeared from the evidence that the deceased had become despondent from impaired health, and that it was while under the influence of this feeling that he destroyed his life.

A sharp and intelligent company of boys left the Newsboys' Home, No. 49 Park-place, on yesterday, to work in the Raritan Woolen Mills at good wages. It would be impossible to calculate the large amount of good achieved for the community by this institution since it commenced operations eighteen years ago.

The losses of the Merchants' Insurance Company of New-York by the fire at Chicago were only $10,000. They contributed $1,000 to the relief fund, and when called upon by the Superintendent of the Insurance Department, they at once furnished a statement of the condition of the Company.

The race yesterday between the Dauntless and Dreadnaught was postponed until this morning, as the fog was so thick that it was impossible to see fifty yards from the side of the boat. The tug Leon left this City at 7 A. M. and returned at noon. An early start will be made, and the Leon will leave the foot of Desbrosses-street at 5 A. M.

Mr. LEANDER BUCK'S Committee, appointed to confer with JAMES MACGREGOR, Superintendent of Buildings, waited upon him yesterday, and propounded a series of questions, the answers to which were intended to show that there was nothing irregular, on the part of Mr. MACGREGOR, in the management of his Department.

A statement has been sent to the TIMES office of alleged atrocities on board the Samuel G. Glover, Capt. MILLER, on her voyage from Manila to this port. We have not published it, so many complaints of a similar nature against officers of other vessels have, on investigation, proved groundless, and we believe this charge ranks in the same category.

On Tuesday we gave the particulars of a difficulty between Mr. E. B. WESTON and BENJAMIN GOLDBERG, arising from a contract for the sale of a house. On being taken before Justice HOGAN Mr. WESTON fully established his title to the satisfaction of Mr. GOLDBERG, and the latter expressed himself perfectly willing to abide by his agreement, and the sale was consummated on Wednesday.

BROOKLYN.

The Commissioners of Charities report sixty-seven small-pox cases remaining in hospital, being ten less than last week.

The cigar-store of ABRAHAM ISAACS, at No. 224 Washington-street, was at an early hour yesterday morning, robbed of its contents, valued at $500.

The divorce suit of WILMETTA S. ARCHER against HARRY E. ARCHER for adultery was tried yesterday, in the City Court, before Judge NEILSON, in equity. Decision reserved.

There were 174 deaths in the city last week—36 men, 49 women, 36 boys and 46 girls. Of the deceased, 20 died of consumption, 12 of brain disease, 11 of marasmus and 5 of small-pox.

The naturalization-mill in the City Hall is now being worked with great industry by the Democratic officials from early morning till sundown. A Judge of the Supreme Court is in constant attendance to superintend the business.

JOHN SCHANTER, a workman in the foundry of W. H. SHORT, in North First-street, Williamsburg, was severely burned about the hands and face on Wednesday night, by the rupture of a plate on and consequent escape of hot water from the boiler in the foundry.

WILLIAM MCNAMARA, a Pearl-street liquor-dealer, and ALBERT HOFFMAN and JOHN REINHARDT, cigar-makers at Nos. 410 and 412 South street, Williamsburg, were arrested by United States Marshal HARLOW yesterday for violation of the revenue laws, and were admitted to $500 bail each.

WM. MCCAFFERTY, a resident of Yonkers, brought action in the Supreme Court before Justice PRATT, yesterday, to recover $1,500 from the Spuyten Duyvil and Port Morris Railroad Company for injuries done to his premises by the servants of the Company while engaged in blasting some rocks. Plaintiff was non-suited.

The house in which a range-boiler exploded, the other day, was No. 588 Washington-avenue, and not Washington-street. The family of Mr. JAFFE, the occupant of the dwelling, were not taken to the hospital, but were cared for at home by Dr. CHILDS. The injured persons are still in a critical condition, but it is hoped that they will ultimately recover. Mr. JAFFE informs us that the boiler material was as thin as the paper upon which this is printed, and he will at once proceed against the owner for criminal carelessness in placing such an instrument of death in his house.

WESTCHESTER COUNTY.

HENRY RANKIN, for selling liquor without a license on the Sabbath, was yesterday, fined $25 and committed until paid.

CHARLES WRIGHT was tried, yesterday, and found guilty of stealing a wagon belonging to JOHN A. VAN TASSELL, of Tarrytown. Sent to State Prison for two years and six months.

The Grand Jury, yesterday, found bills of indictment against CHARLES L. TINICE, (colored) for an assault with intent to kill Miss CONKLING of Yonkers, and against HENRY ELLINGHAUSEN for burglary.

In the Court of Sessions for Westchester County, now being held at White Plains, JAMES SCOTT pleaded guilty to stealing an ox, the property of his employer, and was sentenced to one year and six months imprisonment at Sing Sing.

Two convicts, whose names have not transpired, succeeded in making their escape from Sing Sing Prison, on Wednesday afternoon. The fugitives took with them a horse owned by one of the contractors at the prison. A strong guard was sent in pursuit, but up to a late hour the escaped convicts had not been recaptured.

LONG ISLAND.

A tramp has just been arrested near Riverhead for setting fire to the woods near that village, which until the rains of the present week have been very dry. Unless the fire had been promptly checked it would have proved most disasterous.

NEW-JERSEY.

During the last ten days several persons have imposed upon the citizens of Jersey City by representing themselves as sufferers by the Chicago fire.

On Wednesday night a man named LOUIS BENNETT was attacked by highwaymen near the Observatory at West Hoboken, and robbed of $10, all the money he had about him.

An unknown man, yesterday morning, attempted suicide by leaping from a Pavonia ferry-boat, near Long Dock. The boat was stopped and the man rescued. He refused to give his name.

The retort-house attached to the chemical works of Mr. JOHN EASTWOOD, at Belleville, was destroyed by fire at 3 o'clock yesterday morning. The loss is $1,000; insured in the Liverpool and London and Globe Insurance Company.

The unknown man found by Officers DEEGAN and MERVE lying insensible on the sidewalk, in William-street, Newark, was supposed to be dying yesterday at St. Michael's Hospital, to which place he had been conveyed.

In the Hudson County Supreme Court yesterday, Mr. MCCARTER, of Newark, in behalf of the plaintiffs in the Hoboken ejectment suit, delivered a long argument against the motion for a non-suit. Judge BEDLE reserved his decision.

Yesterday's session of the State Convention of the Young Men's Christian Association was opened with prayer by J. A. BEECHER, after which a discussion relative to the methods of establishing and supporting Associations in small towns was participated in by several members.
